Steinacher,2019-05-01 Classes and books on the Holocaust often center on the experiences of victims perpetrators and bystanders but rescuers also occupy a prominent space in Holocaust courses and literature even though incidents of rescue were relatively few and rescuers constituted less than 1 percent of the population in Nazi occupied Europe As inspiring figures and role models rescuers challenge us to consider how we would act if we found ourselves in similarly perilous situations of grave moral import Their stories speak to us and move us Yet this was not always the case Seventy years ago these brave men and women today regarded as the Righteous Among the Nations went largely unrecognized indeed sometimes they were even singled out for abuse from their co nationals for their selfless actions Unlikely Heroes traces the evolution of the humanitarian hero looking at the ways in which historians politicians and filmmakers have treated individual rescuers like Raoul Wallenberg and Oskar Schindler as well as the rescue efforts of humanitarian organizations Contributors in this edited collection also explore classroom possibilities for dealing with the role of rescuers at both the university and the secondary level Projecting the Holocaust into the Present Lawrence Baron,2005-11-01 Most Holocaust scholars and survivors contend that the event was so catastrophic and unprecedented that it defies authentic representation in feature films Yet it is precisely the extremity of the Final Solution and the issues it raised that have fueled the cinematic imagination since the end of World War II Recognizing that movies reach a greater audience than eyewitness historical or literary accounts Lawrence Baron argues that they mirror changing public perceptions of the Holocaust over time and place After tracing the evolution of the most commonly employed genres and themes in earlier Holocaust motion pictures he focuses on how films from the 1990s made the Holocaust relevant for contemporary audiences While genres like biographical films and love stories about doomed Jewish Gentile couples remained popular they now cast Jews or non Jewish victims like homosexuals in lead roles more often than was the case in the past Baron attributes the recent proliferation of Holocaust comedies and children s movies to the search for more figurative and age appropriate genres for conveying the significance of the Holocaust to generations born after it happened He contends that thematic shifts to stories about neo Nazis rescuers survivors and their children constitute an expression of the continuing impact the Holocaust exerts on the present The book concludes with a survey of recent films like Nowhere in Africa and The Pianist Women in European Holocaust Films Ingrid Lewis,2018-01-19 This book considers how women s experiences have been treated in films dealing with Nazi persecution Focusing on fiction films made in Europe between 1945 and the present this study explores dominant discourses on and cinematic representation of women as perpetrators victims and resisters Ingrid Lewis contends that European Holocaust Cinema underwent a rich and complex trajectory of change with regard to the representation of women This change both reflects and responds to key socio cultural developments in the intervening decades as well as to new directions in cinema historical research and politics of remembrance The book will appeal to international scholars students and educators within the fields of Holocaust Studies Film Studies European Cinema and Women s Studies Screen World 1994 John Willis,Barry Monush,2000-02-01 Covers American and foreign films released in the United States each year with listings of credits and profiles of screen personalities and award winners TLA Film and Video Guide David Bleiler,1999 Detailed indexes by star director genre country of origin and theme Lavishly illustrated with over 450 photos Comprehensive selection of international cinema from over 50 countries Over 9 000 films reviewed Up to date information on video availability and pricing Appendices with award listings TLA Bests and recommended films Ingmar Bergman Marc Gervais,1999-11-15 Ingmar Bergman has long been revered as a master craftsman of the cinema a film poet who has created works that are intensely revealing of himself while resonating mysteriously and powerfully with his audience In Ingmar Bergman Marc Gervais explores what has largely been taken for granted how Bergman achieves this cinematic magic through his specific choices in the use of film language and the texturing and structuring of his images sounds and rhythms Gervais shows also how Bergman s work resonates in a much broader sphere than the personal His films which are without equal in the history of cinema in quality consistency and relevance are crucial moments in an ongoing conversation with western culture in its frenetic evolution since World War II Gervais situates Bergman within the tensions of modernism and the western tradition that have manifested themselves in the twentieth century from existentialism through deconstruction and into postmodernism Bergman s films are experienced as incarnations meditations explorations and aesthetic objects that reflect comment on conflict with or embrace the movements that produced them How the Holocaust Looks Now M.
