Notable Americans of Czechoslovak Ancestry in Arts and Letters and in Education Miloslav

Rechcigl Jr.,2021-11-02 As pointed out in my last two publications no comprehensive study has been undertaken about the American Learned Men and Women with Czechoslovak roots The aim of this work is to correct this glaring deficiency with the focus on immigration from the period of mass migration and beyond irrespective whether they were born in their European ancestral homes or whether they have descended from them Whereas in the two mentioned monographs the emphasis has been on scholars and social and natural scientists and men and women in medicine applied sciences and engineering respectively the present compendium deals with notable Americans of Czechoslovak ancestry in arts and letters and in education With respect to women although most professional fields were closed to them through much of the nineteenth century the area of arts and letters was opened to them as noted earlier and as this compendium authenticates

A Bird on Water Street Elizabeth O. Dulemba,2019-11-05 Elizabeth Dulemba seamlessly melds a coming of age story to the reality of life in a single industry town This is a book that sings Betsy Bird School Library Journal blog A Fuse 8 Production Living in Coppertown is like living on the moon Everything is bare there are no trees no birds no signs of nature at all And while Jack loves his town he hates the dangerous mines that have ruined the land with years of pollution When the miners go on strike and the mines are forced to close Jack s life long wish comes true the land has the chance to heal But not everyone in town is happy about the change Without the mines Jack s dad is out of work and the family might have to leave Coppertown Just when new life begins to creep back into town Jack might lose his friends his home and everything he s ever known Dulemba paints a vivid picture of life in the Appalachia in this beautiful story about a boy looking for new beginnings while struggling to hold on to the things he loves most Primary Science: Teaching Theory and Practice John
