Ilsa The Wicked Warden:

Cultivating Extreme Art Cinema Simon Hobbs, 2018-08-01 Using paratextual theory to address the accusations of gimmickry often directed towards extreme art films Cultivating Extreme Art Cinema focuses upon the DVD and Blu ray object analysing how sleeve designs blurbs and special features shape the identity of the film Nazisploitation! Daniel H. Magilow, Elizabeth Bridges, Kristin T. Vander Lugt, 2012-01-01 A brilliant line up of international contributors examine the implications of the portrayals of Nazis in low brow culture and that culture's re emergence today The Vatican Versus Horror Movies Matt Rogerson, 2025-02-04 Since public audiences were first introduced to the medium of film in 1895 the Catholic Church has sought to impose its will on the distribution and exhibition of movies These activities include the fortnightly publication of the Segnalazioni Cinematografiche which passed Catholic moral judgment on every film released In this pamphlet and in other settings no set of filmmakers has invited the ire of the Vatican as much as those working in the genres of horror and exploitation At times filmmakers have responded in kind attacking the Catholic church directly and indirectly presenting clergy as outright antagonists and shining a light on the Vatican's crimes past and present including its collusion with fascism Translating the judgments of the Segnalazioni Cinematografiche into English for the first time and juxtaposing them with film content and social and historical context this book presents in full the cultural conflict between the Vatican and horror movies Super Bitches and Action Babes Rikke Schubart, 2014-08-23 With actress Pam Grier's breakthrough in Coffy and Foxy Brown women entered action science fiction war westerns and martial arts films genres that had previously been considered the domain of male protagonists This ground breaking cinema however was and still is viewed with ambivalence While women were cast in new and exciting roles they did not always arrive with their femininity intact often functioning both as a sexualized spectacle and as a new female hero rather than female character This volume contains an in depth critical analysis and study of the female hero in popular film from 1970 to 2006 It examines five female archetypes the dominatrix the Amazon the daughter the mother and the rape avenger The entrance of the female hero into films written by produced by and made for men is viewed through the lens of feminism and post feminism arguments Analyzed works include films with actors Michelle Yeoh and Meiko Kaji the Alien films the Lara Croft franchise Charlie's Angels and television productions such as Xena Warrior Princess and Alias Mr. Skin's Skincyclopedia Mr. Skin, Skin, 2005 Cult hero radio personality and internet maven Mr Skin is the foremost authority on celebrity nudity At last the inimitable Mr Skin has compiled his vast knowledge into this truly entertaining reference work With skin on more than 2000 actresses the films in which they appeared naked and their best nude scenes this is presented in a very easy to use alphabetical format This is both a hilariously alternative take on Hollywood culture and an educational guide to movie stars and really is a one of a kind book Film and the Holocaust Aaron Kerner, 2011-05-05 When representing the Holocaust the slightest hint of narrative embellishment strikes contemporary audiences as somehow a violation against those who suffered under the Nazis This anxiety is at least in part rooted in Theodor Adorno's dictum that To write poetry after Auschwitz is barbaric And despite the fact that he later reversed his position the conservative opposition to all artistic representations of the Holocaust remains powerful leading to the insistent demand that it be represented as it really was And yet whether it's the girl in the red dress or a German soldier belting out Bach on a piano during the purge of the ghetto in Schindler's List or the use of tracking shots in the documentaries Shoah and Night and Fog all genres invent or otherwise embellish the narrative to locate meaning in an event that we commonly refer to as unimaginable This wide ranging book surveys and discusses the ways in which the Holocaust has been represented in cinema covering a deep cross section of both national cinemas and genres

Film and Video Censorship in Modern Britain Julian Petley, 2011-05-17 How does film and video censorship operate in Britain Why does it exist And is it too strict Starting in 1979 the birth of the domestic video industry and the first year of the Thatcher government this critical study explains how the censorship of films both in cinemas and on video and DVD has developed in Britain As well as presenting a detailed analysis of the workings of the British Board of Film Classification Petley casts his gaze well beyond the BBFC to analyse the forces which the Board has to take into account when classifying and censoring These range from laws such as the Video Recordings Act and Obscene Publications Act and how these are enforced by the police and Crown Prosecution Service and interpreted by the courts to government policy on matters such as pornography In discussing a climate heavily coloured by 30 years of lurid video nasty stories propagated by a press which is at once censorious and sensationalist and which has played a key role in bringing about and legitimating one of the strictest systems of film and video DVD censorship in Europe this book is notable for the breadth of its contextual analysis its critical stance and its suggestions for reform of the present system

Women, Film, and Law Suzanne Bouclin, 2021-03-15 Entertainment and profit constitute the driving force behind popular representations of women in correctional facilities But the creative influence of film and television also generates legal meaning The women in prison WIP genre can leave viewers feeling both empathetic toward the women portrayed in these representations and troubled about the crimes for which they have been convicted Focusing on five exemplary WIP films and a television series Ann Vickers Caged Caged Heat Stranger Inside Civil Brand and Orange Is the New Black Women Film and Law asks how fictional representations explore shape and refine beliefs about women who are incarcerated From melodrama to exploitation and from theatre screenings to on demand film television programs and music videos these texts bring into view the legal economic and political structures that criminalize women differently from men and that target those women who are already marginalized Women Film and Law convincingly argues that popular depictions of women s imprisonment can illuminate the multiple forms of social exclusion and oppression experienced by criminalized women
