Torture Porn in the Wake of 9/11 Aaron Kerner,2015-04-24 Saw Hostel The Devil s Rejects this wave of horror movies has been classed under the disparaging label torture porn Since David Edelstein coined the term for a New York magazine article a few years after 9 11 many critics have speculated that these movies simply reflect iconic images anxieties and sadistic fantasies that have emerged from the War on Terror In this timely new study Aaron Kerner challenges that interpretation arguing that torture porn must be understood in a much broader context as part of a phenomenon that spans multiple media genres and is rooted in a long tradition of American violence Torture Porn in the Wake of 9 11 tackles a series of tough philosophical historical and aesthetic questions What does it mean to call a film sadistic and how has this term been used to shut down critical debate In what sense does torture porn respond to current events and in what ways does it draw from much older tropes How has torture porn been influenced by earlier horror film cycles from slasher movies to J horror And in what ways has the torture porn aesthetic gone mainstream popping up in everything from the television thriller Dexter to the reality show Hell s Kitchen Reflecting a deep knowledge and appreciation for the genre Torture Porn in the Wake of 9 11 is sure to resonate with horror fans Yet Kerner s arguments should also strike a chord in anyone with an interest in the history of American violence and its current and future ramifications for the War on Terror

The Legacy of World War II in European Arthouse Cinema Samm Deighan,2021-06-11 World War II irrevocably shaped culture and much of cinema in the 20th century thanks to its devastating global impact that changed the way we think about and portray war This book focuses on European war films made about the war between 1945 and 1985 in countries that were occupied or invaded by the Nazis such as Poland France Italy the Soviet Union and Germany itself Many of these films were banned censored or sharply criticized at the time of their release for the radical ways they reframed the war and rejected the mythologizing of war experience as a heroic battle between the forces of good and evil The particular films examined made by arthouse directors like Pier Paolo Pasolini Rainer Werner Fassbinder and Larisa Shepitko among many more deviate from mainstream cinematic depictions of the war and instead present viewpoints and experiences of WWII which are often controversial or transgressive They explore the often complicated ways that participation in war and genocide shapes national identity and the ways that we think about bodies and sexuality trauma violence power justice and personal responsibility themes that continue to resonate throughout culture and global politics

A Not So Foreign Affair Andrea Slane,2001 An examination of how the aesthetics of Nazi Germany have been deployed to help define the place of sexuality in U S political and popular culture
