and cry     Dirt Road James Kelman, 2017-07-11 Booker Prize winner James Kelman's new novel Dirt Road tells the story of a teenage boy who travels with his father from Scotland to Alabama to visit with relatives after the death of his mother. In the American South he becomes swept up into the world of zydeco and blues. A powerful meditation on loss, life, death, and the bond between father and son, Kelman has created a fully realized, relatable voice that reveals a young man's urgent need for connection in a time of grief. Publishers Weekly starred review: "After his mother's recent death, sixteen-year-old Murdo and his father travel from their home in rural Scotland to Alabama to be with his emigre uncle and American aunt. Stopping at a small town on their way from the airport, Murdo happens upon a family playing zydeco music and joins them, leaving with a gift of two CDs of Southern American songs. On this first visit to the States, Murdo notices racial tension, religious fundamentalism, the threat of severe weather, guns, and aggressive behavior—all unfamiliar to him. Yet his connection to the place strengthens by way of its musical culture. Murdo may be young, but he is already a musician. While at their relatives' home, the grieving father and son experience kindness and kinship but share few words of comfort with each other. Murdo, losing himself in music, and his reticent and protective dad, in books. The aunt, the very, very best Murdo calls her, provides whatever solace he receives until his father comes around in a scene of great emotional release. As James Wood has written of this brilliant writer's previous work in The New Yorker, 'The pleasure, as always, in Kelman is being allowed to inhabit mental meandering and half-finished thoughts, digressions, and wayward jokes so that we are present with his characters.' Dirt Road is a powerful story about the strength of family ties, the consolation of music, and one unforgettable journey from darkness to light.

complicated enough Now his Dad whose mind isn't as sharp as it once was is driving out for a visit Or he was before he got lost along the way Now it's up to Jacob to get this right A touching story about families relationships and aging parents Editorial Review by Jon Michael Miller of Readers Favorite In Dad by Bob Seay we meet Jacob our narrator and protagonist in his mid to late thirties struggling both in his professional world and in his marriage With his compulsion to tell everybody everything he tells us his story as if we are his best friends exposing all his failures and amusing quirks Brooke his wife wants all his money and he has lost his job as a high school teacher In survival mode he lives in Colorado and works as a ghost writer of term papers for college students He lives and works online from the back room of a laundry His squalid existence is interrupted when he is informed by his brother back in Cincinnati that their dad suffering from Alzheimer's has hit the road and is in a hotel room in Kansas City Missouri Jacob is the logical person to collect his old man In so doing he finds his dad having lunch with a hotel maid Amelia who is watching over him We soon become familiar with the sights along Interstate 70 as his dad tells Jacob about installing communications devices in St Louis's Gateway Arch He has other stories about his activities on Mars and in submarines Despite Jacob's honest flaws and his relentless search for self and redemption I came to like and even to identify with him Yes he is largely responsible as he admits for his own problems Fortunately he is in a stable tight knit family all intent on taking care of their sad but sometimes funny dad But I felt that Dad is the vehicle of the real underlying story which is Jacob trying to dig himself out of the hole he has dug for himself He meets his female spiritual twin in the person of Amelia not really a hotel housekeeper but a refugee from nursing and an aspiring artist She escapes from an abusive Confederate flag flying boyfriend into Jacob's black Mustang convertible nicknamed Beast which hauls Jacob back and forth several times between Denver Kansas City Topeka and Cincinnati We're all doing the best we can says Amelia compassionately I was both sadly moved and often amused by Jacob's search for a better life And along with the story we learn a lot from the various topics Jacob ghost writes about nursing burnout the Feds Buddhism and neo Nazis to name only a few Oh yes and the Stanford Marshmallow Index which somehow nibbles at Jacob's core And we meet a quirky loving family in the turmoil of losing the family patriarch who is quite an overarching backdrop in his own right Author Bob Seay dedicates his novel Dad to all families with aging parents and I cannot imagine a more accurate portrayal or one more moving
