Augusta, Gone Martha Tod Dudman,2001-04-08 I m not telling you where I am Don t try to find me Remember Go Ask Alice Augusta Gone is the memoir Alice s mother never wrote A single parent Martha Tod Dudman is sure she is giving her two children the perfect life sheltering them from the wild tumult of her own youth But when Augusta turns fifteen things start to happen first the cigarette then the blue pipe and the little bag Augusta says is aspirin Just talking to her is like sticking your hand in the garbage disposal Martha doesn t know if she s confronting adolescent behavior craziness her own failures as a parent or all three Augusta Gone is the story of a girl who is doing everything to hurt herself and a mother who would try anything to save her It is a sorrowful tale but not a tragic one Though the book charts a harrowing course through the troubled waters of adolescence hope that mother and daughter will be reunited and will learn to love one another again steers them toward a shore of forgiveness and redemption Written with darkly seductive grace Augusta Gone conjures the dangerous thrill of being drawn into the heart of a whirling vortex This daring book will be admired for its lyricism applauded for its courage and remembered for its power It demands to be read from start to finish in one breathless sitting This Is the Way It Is from the Heart Paul Pattinson,2016-12-22 About the Book This is the way it is from the Heart is all my Poetry from 1992 till present day The poems relate to sadness trauma humour everyday life relationships dark side Environment and Mother Nature Something within my book could relate to you the reader I have experienced some of the poems within this book You should enjoy reading it may make you cry or laugh but you will enjoy reading Paul Pattinson The Envelope Andrew Stevenson,2014-12-11 Twelve years after his classic travel narrative Annapurna Circuit Andrew Stevenson returns alone once again to the Himalayas on a deeply personal quest a journey both corporal and spiritual Narrowly escaping paralysis after shattering his spine in a motorbike accident weeks after his younger brother s untimely death Stevenson s hike up to Everest Base Camp is as much introspective passage of healing as intriguing depiction of his fellow backpackers and the Sherpa people Lying in a hospital bed in a morphine induced state of hallucination after his accident Stevenson promises himself to go back to the Himalayas to heal Five months after his mishap and against all the odds this recuperative solitary climb into high mountain valleys provides a spectacular backdrop to an emotional acknowledgment and acceptance of a lost sibling Interlaced with the hardships of pushing to the edge of personal physical endurance and beyond The Envelope Walking up to Everest Base Camp is a richly rewarding read on every level Start Jon Acuff,2013-04-22 Wall

Street Journal best selling author Jon Acuff reveals the steps to getting unstuck and back onto the path of being awesome Over the last 100 years the road to success for most everyone has been divided into five stages that mirror the decades of working life Your 20s are a period of Learning This is the decade of trying a thousand things exploring a multitude of interests and discovering what really motivates you Your 30s are a period of Editing This is the decade of sorting out interests where you discover what you really care about and who you really are Your 40s are a period of Mastering This is the decade of narrowing focus honing skill sets and becoming an expert in your field Your 50s are a period of Harvesting This is the decade of reaping the benefits of good decisions and enjoying the highest income earning period in a career Your 60s are a period of Guiding This is the decade of mentoring training and encouraging others on their own road to success Every successful person has followed these steps regardless of their occupation But three things have changed the path to success and erased the decades associated with them Finish lines are dead Boomers are realizing that a lot of the things they were promised aren't going to materialize and they have started second and third careers Anyone can play Technology has given access to an unprecedented number of people who are building online empires and changing their lives in ways that would have been impossible years ago Hope is boss The days of success first significance later have ended A new generation doesn't want to change the world eventually they want to change it now through the wells they kickstart in Africa and the TOMS they wear on their feet The value system has been flipped upside down The result is that you've got an entire generation pushing down to start over another generation pushing up to start for the first time and in the middle of this collision the tools to actually change the world Experience years now trump chronological age And while none of the five stages can be skipped they can be shortened and accelerated There are only two paths in life average and awesome The average path is easy because all you have to do is nothing The awesome path is more challenging because things like fear only bother you when you do work that matters The good news is Start gives readers practical honest actionable insights to be more awesome more often It's time to punch fear in the face escape average and do work that matters It's time to Start

The Standard, 1915 The Rainbow Runners Kristen M. Snyder, Martin Wagenius, 2021-03-05 The Rainbow Runners is a true story of a sled dog adventure told by Alaskan Husky Nija JaJa the youngest member of the team who along with her uncle buncles and brother set out to follow a dream to participate in a long distance race through the Swedish mountains With fewer dogs in the team than is common for such a race the team begins their journey with an uphill battle During preparations they experience what it means to build team and not just a functioning team but a team that is flexible and adaptable to changing conditions a team that is built on recognizing and celebrating the unique strengths in each team member and a team that keeps sight on their own dream even when others doubt their ability The story culminates in the 250 kilometers long distance race during which they get caught in a white out on a mountain top For more than five hours they struggle to keep themselves safe in the storm and eventually navigate their way off the mountain top down to the final
