Servant of Mut Sue D'Auria, 2008 Richard A Fazzini has inspired and mentored many scholars of Egyptology through his tireless efforts as curator and then chairman of the Brooklyn Museum's Department of Egyptian Classical and Ancient Middle Eastern Art ECAMEA field archaeologist of the Precinct of Mut at Karnak scholar and teacher The 35 contributions to this volume in his honor represent the variety of Professor Fazzini's own research interests namely in ancient Egyptian art religious iconography and archaeology particularly of the New Kingdom Third Intermediate Period and Late Period Reflections on Professor Fazzini's scholarship and teaching are accompanied by an extensive bibliography of his works

Dawn of Egyptian Art Diana Craig Patch, Marianne Eaton-Krauss, Susan J. Allen, 2011 This catalogue is published in conjunction with the exhibition The Dawn of Egyptian Art on view at the Metropolitan Museum of Art New York from April 10 to August 5 2012 T p verso Royal Bronze Statuary from Ancient Egypt Marsha Hill, 2004 Egyptian bronze statuary has proven particularly intractable to chronological investigations This study exploits clues offered by bronze royal statuettes to make identifications or stylistic assignments A fuller understanding of the artistic milieu and role of small royal bronze statuary results Wooden Statues of the Old Kingdom Julia Harvey, 2021-10-11 About 240 wooden statues survive from the Old Kingdom c 2575-2134 BC The statues that can be dated by external criteria have been gathered together into a chronological catalogue and their features studied to establish dating criteria The criteria are then applied to the remaining statues enabling many of them to be assigned dates within individual reigns of the Old Kingdom Portraits of the

Ptolemies Paul Edmund Stanwick, 2010-07-22 As archaeologists recover the lost treasures of Alexandria the modern world is marveling at the latter day glory of ancient Egypt and the Greeks who ruled it from the ascension of Ptolemy I in 306 BC to the death of Cleopatra the Great in 30 BC The abundance and magnificence of royal sculptures from this period testify to the power of the Ptolemaic dynasty and its influence on Egyptian artistic traditions that even then were more than two thousand years old In this book Paul Edmund Stanwick undertakes the first complete study of Egyptian style portraits of the Ptolemies Examining one hundred and fifty sculptures from the vantage points of literary evidence archaeology history religion and stylistic development he fully explores how they meld Egyptian and Greek cultural traditions and evoke surrounding social developments and political events To do this he develops a visual vocabulary for reading royal portraiture and discusses how the portraits helped legitimate the Ptolemies and advance their ideology Stanwick also sheds new light on the chronology of the sculptures giving dates to many previously undated ones and showing that others belong outside the Ptolemaic period

Ancient Egyptian Portraiture Alessio Delli Castelli, 2024-12-09 Ancient Egyptian Portraiture History of an Idea concerns the origin nature and removal the unravelling and explanation of the impasse pertaining to the definition assessment and judgement of Ancient Egyptian portraiture Condensed in the syntagm different from ours this impasse arises from the polarisation and dichotomy of idealism and realism which characterise the three main Egyptological definitions of portraiture In offering a transcendental definition of art and portraiture that is anthropologically valid the overarching aim of this book is to challenge assessments of Egyptian art and portraiture based on historically particularistic concepts that are foreign to its cultural premises and development      Hatshepsut, from Queen to Pharaoh Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2005 A fascinating look at the artistically productive reign of Hatshepsut a female pharaoh in ancient Egypt

Mistress of the House, Mistress of Heaven Anne K. Capel, Glenn Markoe, 1996 The first of its kind exhibit cataloged here focuses on the women of Egypt from all levels of society in works compiled strictly from American collections by American curators Because the quantity of written records is limited though enormous in comparison to most early societies there is still much guesswork involved in determining the place women held in Egyptian society It is clear that unlike most ancient and not so ancient societies Egypt conferred on women the legal right to own property and to barter their own goods which means a larger record for current study The essays here are both erudite and fascinating to read the illustrations are clear and well presented in conjunction with the text 117 colour 112 b w illustrations      IMAGES FOR ETERNITY. Richard Fazzini, 1975      Prophets, Lovers and Giraffes Orly Goldwasser, 2002 The book s central proposition is that the prominent feature of the hieroglyphic script which Egyptologists call determinatives makes up an elaborate system of classifiers All items of the lexicon take motivated pictorial classifiers By this device the script reflects the map of knowledge organization of ancient Egyptian culture The book aims to reveal the principles and constraints governing the codification of the ancient Egyptian universe in this system There is to date no comprehensive study either in Egyptology or in cognitive linguistics of the hieroglyphic classifiers as a structured system The present work attempts to fill the existing hiatus by bridging the disciplines of Egyptology and cognitive studies using the tools of the latter to elucidate the former and thus perhaps arrive at new perspectives on both From the Egyptological angle the book deals with the ancient Egyptians nomenclature for items in the world and the relationship between lexicon and the knowledge organization However the events occurring in the picture script render cognitive processes visible to our inspection hundreds of years before they have ripened into the Egyptian language This visibility bears directly on a number of crucial questions in cognitive linguistics and ethnobiology The book also includes an introduction to the hieroglyphic script      Images for Eternity Richard Fazzini, 1975      Proportion and Style in Ancient Egyptian Art Gay Robins, 2010-07-05 This study of ancient Egyptian art reveals the evolution of aesthetic approaches to proportion and style through the ages The painted and relief cut walls of ancient Egyptian tombs and temples record an amazing continuity of customs and beliefs over nearly 3 000 years Even the artistic style of the scenes seems unchanging but this appearance is deceptive In this work Gay Robins offers convincing evidence based on a study of Egyptian usage of grid systems and proportions that innovation and stylistic variation played a significant role in ancient Egyptian art Robins thoroughly explores the squared grid systems used by the ancient artists to proportion standing sitting and kneeling human figures This investigation yields the first chronological account of proportional variations in male and female figures from the Early Dynastic to the Ptolemaic periods Robins discusses the proportional changes underlying the revolutionary style instituted during the Amarna Period She also considers how the grid system influenced the overall composition of scenes Numerous line drawings with superimposed grids illustrate the text

The Architecture of Imperialism Ellen Morris, 2021-11-29 This volume traces the evolution of New Kingdom foreign policy in Syria Palestine Nubia and Libya through an analysis of the distribution of Egyptian military bases over time and across borders Archaeological and textual evidence pertaining to fortress towns forts border checkpoints and military headquarters is analyzed in order to illuminate the ever shifting strategies employed by the Egyptian government to rule its subject territories Exhaustive in its scope and illustrated throughout with numerous maps and architectural plans this book should interest Egyptologists Near Eastern archaeologists and historians as well as anthropologists engaged in the comparative study of early empires and military tactics
