Revealing Reveiling Sherifa Zuhur, 1992-07-01 In modern Egypt the pace of Islamic resurgence has increased as in other Muslim societies Throughout the twentieth century Egyptian women have fought fiercely for political participation and for legal and educational reform to improve their status To many of them the adoption of a new form of the veil seemed retrogressive and ominous This book explores the history of Muslim women and the debates over gender which have developed since the golden age of Islam It considers the opinions goals and ideals of fifty Egyptian women veiled and unveiled and compares their views to the gender ideology of the contemporary Islamists Women's social backgrounds are examined in the context of the Egyptian state and its social policies

Fictions of Masculinity Peter F. Murphy, 1994-07 We are just beginning to understand masculinity as a fiction or a localizable historical and therefore unstable construct This book points the way to a much needed interrogation of the many modes of masculinity as represented in literature Both women and men who are engaged in critical thinking about genders and sexualities will find these essays always thoughtful and often provocative Thas E Morgan Associate Professor of English Arizona State University Peter Murphy has assembled an innovative challenging and important set of contributions to a growing field of inquiry into constructions of masculinities in literature inspired principally by feminist and gay studies

Illuminatingly crossing lines of genders sexualities cultures and methodologies Fictions of Masculinity greatly advances our understanding of representations of men masculinities misandry and misogyny in a wide range of literary works and genres and helps us to imagine and thereby ultimately bring about alternative constructions Harry Brod Editor The Making of Masculinities The New Men s Studies A Mensch Among Men Explorations in Jewish Masculinity and Theorizing Masculinities Women writing about women dominates contemporary work on sexuality Men have been far more willing to discuss female sexuality than male sexuality while the most radical and insightful analyses of male sexuality have come from women When men consider the issue of female sexuality they often speak from assumptions of security about their own unexamined sexuality This book maintains that men have to interrogate their own sexuality if there is to be a revision of phallogocentric discourse and that this revision of masculinity must be done in dialogue with women The essays included in this collection examine the deep structure of masculine codes They ask the question Who are the men in modern literature Examining the force of the dominant values of Western masculinity they synthesize insights from feminism psychoanalysis post structuralism and new historicism These perspectives help explain how male sexuality has been structured by fictional representations By examining the images of masculinity in modern literature the essays explore traditional and non traditional roles of men in society and in personal relationships They look at how men are represented in literature the fiction of manhood They attempt to unravel the assumptions behind these representations by looking at the implications of this imagination And they speculate on possibilities for creating a new imaginary of masculinity by identifying what literature has to say about that change With analyses of a range of genres novels poetry plays and autobiography Western and Third World literatures and theoretical perspectives Fictions of Masculinity provides a significant contribution to this rapidly growing field of study Contributors are David Bergman Towson State University Miriam Cooke Duke University Martin Danahy Emory University Richard Dellamora Trent University Ontario Leonard Duroche University of Minnesota Jim Elledge Illinois State University Alfred Habegger University of Kansas Suzanne Kehde California Polytechnic University San Luis Obispo David Leverenz University of Florida Christopher Metress Wake Forest University Peter F Murphy SUNY Empire State College Rafael Prez Torres University of Pennsylvania David Radavich Eastern Illinois University and Peter Schwenger St Vincent University Nova Scotia

Reconstructing Gender in Middle East Fatma Muge Gocek, Balaghi Shiva, 1995-06-15 Employing a broad interdisciplinary perspective on gender relations Reconstructing Gender in the Middle East questions long standing stereotypes about the traditional subordination of women in the region With essays on gender construction in Iran Turkey Israel Morocco Egypt Lebanon and the Occupied Territories this collection offers a wide ranging exploration of tradition identity and power in different parts of the Middle East Seeking to overcome monolithic Western notions of women s life in the traditional society the essays in Part I reexamine the assumption that such societies leave little room for female participation Part II focuses on the reconstruction of identities by women in Iran Turkey Israel and the Occupied Territories

The authors examine the complex variables that contribute to the development of identities including gender class and ethnicity in various Middle Eastern societies questioning whether certain identities are more important to women than others These essays also look at the issue of group identity formation versus the autonomy of the individual Part III looks at the relationship between gender and power in everyday life in Lebanon Israel Egypt and Morocco showing how power relations are constantly contested and renegotiated among family members and members of a community between nations and between men and women With its collection of enlightened and diverse contemporary perspectives on women in the Middle East Reconstructing Gender in the Middle East is an important work that will have significant impact on the way we look at gender in traditional societies Tradition, Modernity, and Postmodernity in Arabic Literature Kamal
