Images Of Redemption Understanding Soteriology Through Art And Literature:

Images of Redemption Patrick Sherry, 2003-05-01 After discussing the arts of redemption and their rivals and introducing soteriology the theology of salvation Patrick Sherry argues that the Christian Drama of Redemption has three Acts The next five chapters discuss the three Acts namely salvation history our present human life and the life to come In each case Sherry explains how art and literature can lead to an understanding of what is at stake here His main concern is with the present life hence three of those chapters deal with that phase of redemption one of them specifically with novels of redemption The last substantial chapter of the book takes up the general issue of how art and literature contribute to religious understanding Sherry argues that they may be primary expressions of religious belief as well as illustrations and that as such they may criticise or complement theology or in turn be open to criticism themselves from that quarter Finally he summarises the main theme and briefly discusses some of the particular problems of assessing the arts of redemption The book's most distinctive feature is the way in which it uses art and literature as a means of religious and theological understanding It is not a survey of the arts of redemption though it uses a wide variety of examples including ancient Greek drama Flemish and Italian painting religious music and 19th 20th century novels These examples are used as a tool for understanding what is one of the most difficult areas of theology

Liturgy and the Beauty of the Unknown David Torevell, 2017-03-02 Contemporary culture is rediscovering the importance of beauty for both social transformation and personal happiness Theologians have sought in their varied ways to demonstrate how God's beauty is associated with notions of truth and goodness This book breaks new ground by suggesting that liturgy is the means par excellence by which an experience of beauty is communicated Drawing from both secular and religious understandings in particular the mystical and apophatic tradition the book demonstrates how liturgy has the potential to achieve the one ultimately reliable form of beauty because its embodied components are able to reflect the disturbing beauty of the One to whom worship is always offered Such components rely on understanding the aesthetic dynamics upon which liturgy relies This book draws from a broad range of disciplines concerned with understanding beauty and self transformation and concludes that while secular utopian forms have much to contribute to ethical transformation they ultimately fail since they lack the Christological and eschatological framework needed which liturgy alone provides

Theology After Reading Darren J. N. Middleton, 2008 Examining Graham Greene's The End of the Affair Toni Morrison's Sula Nikos Kazantzakis's The Last Temptation of Christ Earl Lovelace's The Wine of Astonishment and Paul Thigpen's My Visit to Hell Middleton deftly illuminates the expression of both mainstream and progressive Christian doctrines as themes in these selected works of fiction ultimately reaffirming the graced search for meaning in the mindful Christian life

A Theological Aesthetics of Liberation Vicente Chong, 2019-02-07 Since its emergence in the sixties of the last century liberation theology in Latin America has paid little attention to the areas of aesthetics and art At the same time theological aesthetics seldom has been directly and explicitly concerned about the reality of the poor and the struggle for justice This mutual disinterest between liberation theology and theological aesthetics is regrettable because discerning a correlation between them would benefit both theological disciplines in their attempt to understand the saving action of God in the world It is the intention of this book to fill that gap A Theological Aesthetics of Liberation correlates liberation theology and theological aesthetics exploring different themes such as the liberating power of art and how the Spirit of God is involved in the process of liberation in and through art This study is a critical reflection upon the question of the beauty of Jesus Christ especially in relationship with the event of the cross and upon its meaning for Christian life This book analyzes such topics in conversation with important theologians Gustavo Gutierrez Jon Sobrino Karl Rahner Hans Urs von Balthasar Edward Schillebeeckx and other contemporary Christian theologians who have explored these themes

The Redemption Stephen T. Davis, Daniel Kendall SJ, Gerald O'Collins SJ, 2004-10-21 This interdisciplinary study follows an international and ecumenical meeting of twenty one scholars held in New York at Easter 2003 the Redemption Summit After an opening chapter which explores seven central questions for writers on redemption five chapters are dedicated to the scriptural roots of the doctrine A section on the patristic and medieval periods then examines the interpretation of redemption through the centuries The volume moves on to foundational and systematic issues the problem of horrendous evil karma and grace and differing views on justification Studies on the redemption in literature art music and preaching form the final part There is a fruitful dialogue between experts in a wide range of areas and the international reputation of the participants reflects and guarantees the high quality of this joint work The result is a well researched skilfully argued and at times provocative volume on the central Christian belief the redemption of human beings through Jesus Christ

The Art of Theology Stephan van Erp, 2004 Art and theology are two different ways of making meaning Art is a matter of inspiration and intuition It needs neither standards nor guidelines It does not follow predictable patterns nor is it determined by any specific goal Theology is similar in that it generates meaning in order to understand and communicate faith It explores the continuities and discontinuities between divine and human creations through metaphors images and the play of ideas Unlike art however theology is primarily a matter of reason It follows patterns of consistency and coherence and is shaped by the will to clarify and explain Can art offer a way of understanding the nature of theology despite these differences The twentieth century Swiss theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar 1905-1988 wrote a seven volume masterpiece on theological aesthetics He restructured theology around basic aesthetic concepts like form and beauty The present study offers a critical analysis of Balthasar's work against the background of contemporary debates on theological foundations The author approaches this task through a careful rereading of two of Balthasar's key sources Nicholas of Cusa and Friedrich Wilhelm Joseph Schelling In this way the author rediscovers hidden undercurrents in modernity from Renaissance aesthetics to German Idealism The result is a theological aesthetics rooted in tradition and capable of understanding and communicating faith in the face of present day challenges

A Saving

Science Eric M. Ramírez-Weaver,2017-02-24 In A Saving Science Eric Ramirez Weaver explores the significance of early medieval astronomy in the Frankish empire using as his lens an astronomical masterpiece the deluxe manuscript of the Handbook of 809 painted in roughly 830 for Bishop Drogo of Metz one of Charlemagne's sons Created in an age in which careful study of the heavens served a liturgical purpose to reckon Christian feast days and seasons accurately and thus reflect a heavenly order the diagrams of celestial bodies in the Handbook of 809 are extraordinary signifiers of the intersection of Christian art and classical astronomy Ramirez Weaver shows how by studying this lavishly painted and carefully executed manuscript we gain a unique understanding of early medieval astronomy and its cultural significance In a time when the Frankish church sought to renew society through education the Handbook of 809 presented a model in which study aided the spiritual reform of the cleric's soul and by extension enabled the spiritual care of his community An exciting new interpretation of Frankish painting A Saving Science shows that constellations in books such as Drogo's were not simple copies for posterity's sake but functional tools in the service of the rejuvenation of a creative Carolingian culture

Jonathan Edwards's Vision of Reality John J. Bombaro,2011-10-19 Since the publication of Sang Hyun Lee's revolutionary commentary The Philosophical Theology of Jonathan Edwards scholars have considered the possibilities of understanding Jonathan Edwards's thought in terms of dispositional laws forces and habits While some scholars reject the notion of a dispositional ontology in Edwards others have taken the concept of disposition in his thought beyond the usage the Northampton minister ever indicated especially with respect to soteriological considerations The preacher of Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God is made to be an inclusivist if not a crypto universalist Jonathan Edwards's Vision of Reality substantiates that Edwards in an effort to combat deistic and materialistic Enlightenment paradigms employs dispositions in his philosophy but that his radical theocentrism and Calvinistic particularism established its boundaries within his apologetical reconsideration of spatiotemporal and metaphysical reality Within his spiritual vision of reality Edwards leaves no stone unturned history and even the reprobate find inherent value and a positive functional role not only in God's program of self glorification but as manifestations of divine being the damned are deformities in God The logic of Edwards's theocentric vision of reality pushes his ideas to the limits of acceptable Reformed orthodoxy and sometimes beyond those limits

Jesus Our Redeemer Gerald O'Collins,2007-01-11 Jesus Our Redeemer examines what it means when Christians call Jesus their Redeemer or Saviour It tackles such questions as How can redemptive events in the past Christ's life death and resurrection bring about saving effects in the present Why do human beings need redemption both individually and collectively What images of God are implied by the saving action of God and by human needs Gerald O'Collins SJ draws on the scriptures Christian hymns and texts for worship literature the visual arts and other sources He examines four major models of how redemption through Christ has been thought to work theories of deliverance penal substitution sacrifice and transforming love He concludes by considering the outworking of salvation in the life of the Church the situation of non

Christians and the final consummation of human life and the created world at the end of time Conformed to the Image of His Son Haley Goranson Jacob, 2018-07-17 What does Paul mean when in Romans 8:29 he speaks of being conformed to the image of his Son? Is it a moral or spiritual or sanctifying conformity to Christ or to his suffering or does it point to an eschatological transformation into radiant glory? Haley Goranson Jacob points out that the key lies in the meaning of glory in Paul's biblical theological perspective and in how he uses the language of glory in Romans The Oxford Handbook of Modern Chinese Literatures Carlos Rojas, Andrea Bachner, 2016 With over forty original essays The Oxford Handbook of Modern Chinese Literatures offers an in-depth engagement with the current analytical methodologies and critical practices that are shaping the field in the twenty-first century. Divided into three sections: Structure, Taxonomy, and Methodology, the volume carefully moves across approaches, genres, and forms to address a rich range of topics that include popular culture in Late Qing China, Zhang Guangyu's Journey to the West in Cartoons, writings of Southeast Asian migrants in Taiwan, the Chinese Anglophone Novel, and depictions of HIV/AIDS in Chu Tien-wen's Notes of a Desolate Man Heythrop Journal, 2003 A select book list appears quarterly Redemption Nicholas Roumas, 2025-08-05 A bold trailblazing investigation into soteriology approached by way of Girardian mimetic theory and Eastern Orthodox theological reflection. Redemption: A Mimetic Soteriology brings French literary critic Ren Girard's mimetic theory of human behavior together with a breadth of Christian approaches to redemption through the Cross. Girard's mimetic understanding of sacrifice is drawn upon to illuminate biblical narratives about redemption as well as the theologies of Anselm of Canterbury, Peter Abelard, and Gregory of Nyssa. Nicholas Roumas shows by these readings that redemption can be understood as a reconfiguration of symbolic values with profound consequences for human relations and social organization. Redemption thus serves theologians as a basis for a new practical dogmatics. This exploration is a breath of fresh air in Orthodox theology, utilizing patristic and scriptural sources outside the framework of the predominant neo-Patristic synthesis and introducing an entirely new modern paradigm onto the Orthodox scene. For theologians of other traditions, Redemption contributes to the library of Girardian theologies; its first Eastern Orthodox installment. For Girardians, it provides critique and refinement of many of Girard's most nuanced views and gives due attention to overlooked and controversial aspects of his thought. For the lay reader, the book provides an accessible entry into the spirituality of the Cross through a lens that is both modern and traditional. Redemption provides a revitalizing infusion into contemporary Orthodox theological discourse. Its ideas will impact theology in the Orthodox Church and beyond for decades to come and are the basis for a paradigm shift in our understanding of redemption and its practical consequences. The lay reader and professional theologian alike will find novelty and utility in its ideas Art and Doctrine Rosemary Woolf, 1986-01-01 No Marketing Blurb Medieval Poetics and Social Practice Seeta Chaganti, 2012 This collection responds to the critical legacy of Penn R. Szittya. Its contributors investigate how medieval poetic language reflects and shapes social, political, and religious worlds. In addition to new readings of canonical poetic texts

it includes readings of texts that have previously not held a central place in critical attention The Purple Island and Anatomy in Early Seventeenth-century Literature, Philosophy, and Theology Peter Mitchell, 2007 Sets out to reconstruct and analyze the rationality of Phineas Fletcher's use of figurality in The Purple Island 1633 a poetic allegory of human anatomy This book demonstrates that the analogies and metaphors of literary works share coherence and consistency with anatomy textbooks Supper at Emmaus Glenn W. Olsen, 2016 Supper at Emmaus traces various important intellectual topics from the ancient world to the modern period Generally as in its treatment of the question of whether the long standing contrast between cyclical and linear views of history is helpful it introduces important thinkers who have considered the question A preoccupation of the book is the appearance and reappearance across the centuries of patterns used to organize temporal and cultural experience After an opening essay on transcendental truth and cultural relativism the second chapter traces a distinction common in historical writings during the past two centuries between an alleged ancient classical cyclic view of time and history used to describe the claimed repetitiveness of and similarities between historical events nothing is new under the sun and a contrasting Jewish Christian linear view sometimes described as providential in that it moves through a series of unique events to some end intended by God In the latter history is about something the education of the human race or the redemption of humankind As in each of the remaining essays the book then attempts to draw out the limitations of what the current consensus on this topic has become It does this for such things as our current understanding of religious toleration humanism natural law and teleology Some of the essays such as those on debate about Augustine's understanding of marriage or the concluding illustrated essay on the baroque city of Lecce are published for the first time Others are based on previously published contributions to the scholarly literature though generally each of these chapters concludes with a postscript that engages with current scholarly debate on the subject A Dictionary of the Bible, Dealing with Its Language, Literature, and Contents, Including the Biblical Theology: Kir-Pleiades James Hastings, John Alexander Selbie, 1900

America, 1913 Paul's Designations of God in Romans Wing Yi Au, 2023-08-03 Wing Yi Au investigates Paul's ways of characterizing God in Romans and finds that Paul's divine designations in the letter trace God's essential salvific activities Meanwhile special emphasis is put on the inclusion of Gentiles in God's plan of salvation
