Images of Medieval Sanctity Debra Higgs Strickland, 2007-08-31 Assembled on the occasion of Gary Dickson's retirement from the University of Edinburgh following a distinguished career as an internationally acclaimed scholar of medieval social and religious history this volume contains contributions by both established and newer scholars inspired by Dickson's particular interests in medieval popular religion including religious enthusiasm Together the essays comprise a comprehensive and rich investigation of the idea of sanctity and its many medieval manifestations across time fifth through fifteenth centuries and in different geographical locations England Scotland France Italy the Low Countries By approaching the theme of sanctity from multiple disciplinary perspectives this highly original collection pushes forward current academic thinking about medieval hagiography iconography social history women's studies and architectural history

The Captor's Image Basil Dufallo, 2013-01-24 An influential view of ecphrasis the literary description of art objects chiefly treats it as a way for authors to write about their own texts without appearing to do so and even insist upon the aesthetic dominance of the literary text over the visual image However when considering its use in ancient Roman literature this interpretation proves insufficient The Captor's Image argues for the need to see Roman ecphrasis with its prevalent focus on Hellenic images as a site of subtle ongoing competition between Greek and Roman cultures Through close readings of ecphrases in a wide range of Latin authors from Plautus Catullus and Horace to Vergil Ovid and Martial among others Dufallo contends that Roman ecphrasis reveals an ambivalent receptivity to Greek culture an attitude with implications for the shifting notions of Roman identity in the Republican and Imperial periods Individual chapters explore how the simple assumption of a self asserting ecphrastic text is called into question by comic performance intentionally inconsistent narrative satire Greek religious iconography the contradictory associations of epic imagery and the author's subjection to a patron Visual material such as wall painting statuary and drinkware vividly contextualizes the discussion As the first book length treatment of artistic ecphrasis at Rome The Captor's Image resituates a major literary trope within its hybrid cultural context while advancing the idea of ecphrasis as a cultural practice through which the Romans sought to redefine their identity with and against Greekness

Music and Image in Concert Meghan Stevens, 2009 In Music and Image in Concert composer graphic designer and writer Meghan Stevens explores the implications to music when images are presented in music concerts But how do artistic directors ensure that listeners aren't more engaged by the images than the music Stevens presents a number of concepts that aim to maintain musical salience over added image in the instrumental music concert This is to avoid the situation that occurs in film where the music is backgrounded and often not heard or not remembered These concepts cover a range of music image characteristics including narrative synchronisation rhythm tempo meaning emotion structure genre integration interpretation voice and text As there is little research in this new field these original concepts draw on a number of other disciplines including film music video multimedia cognitive psychology

psychomusicology education and music philosophy This book provides a practical approach for adding image to the music concert

Image Brokers Zeynep Devrim Gursel, 2016-04-12 Image Brokers is an in depth ethnography of the labor and infrastructure behind news images and how they are circulated Zeynep Gursel presents an intimate look at the ways image brokers the people who manage the distribution or restriction of images construct and culturally mediate the images they circulate Through this framework news images become visual commodities that impact how politics and culture are visualized in the world Set against the backdrop of the War on Terror and the industry wide transition from analog to digital technologies Image Brokers is a multi sited ethnography based on fieldwork conducted at the industry s centers of power in New York and Paris It also explores how new digital and social media platforms continue to change photojournalism and create ever widening distribution networks The book is a powerful investigation of the processes of decision making amid the changing infrastructures of representation

Martin Buber and Eastern Wisdom Teachings Hune Margulies, 2022-02-28 This book is an in depth conversation between philosophies of Dialogue particularly as espoused by Martin Buber and teachings from the wisdom traditions of the East particularly Zen Buddhism and its Pure Land School It argues that God is the between of I and Thou Writings from Sufism Hasidism Hinduism and other spiritual traditions are excerpted as well as they all draw their teachings from similar primordial moments of deep poetic insight Dialogical philosophy articulates the principle of relationship which is discussed throughout the book in its various contexts and different modalities

imply Video's intrinsic principle is feedback Gary Hill From Inter view For more than twenty years Gary Hill has been at the cutting edge of video often setting the terms for its development and pointing it in new exciting directions Since the mid eighties Hill has established himself as one of the major voices in the medium His work has been the focus of major exhibitions and retrospectives at museums in Europe and the United States including the Guggenheim Museum in Soho the Whitney Biennial and the Lyon Museum in France He has received numerous awards including the coveted MacArthur Award 1998 Hill's work focuses on the poetic and philosophical implications of temporal perception Tall Ships for example is a large scale video installation that presents haunting images of isolated human figures in a darkened corridor seen from a distance then close up Hill's representation of time in videos is partly informed by his adolescent experiences as a surfer in Southern California his Learning Curve series invites the viewer to sit at the end of a long table and watch a black and white projection of a wave folding and unfolding upon itself Other themes in Hill's work include meditations on the self referentiality of the medium and explorations of the connections and conflicts between language and image This new volume in PAJ's Art Performance series is the first critical edition devoted to Hill's work Edited by Robert C Morgan it anthologizes a number of critical essays tracing Hill's reception from the mid seventies to today a series of informative interviews as well as a selection of Hill's writings revealing him as an original and articulate thinker The book also offers a detailed chronology of Hill's career a bibliography and videography and twenty five photos from his installations Morgan's introduction traces Hill's emergence as an artist out of the sixties counter culture and explores how his work creates dialogues with philosophers as diverse as Heidegger Blanchot Derrida and Marshall McLuhan

Ravishing Images Katy Aisenberg, 1995 This major study of Wordsworth Auden and Larkin proposes that we read the history of contemporary poetry as the history of a war between words and images This book argues that the desire for transparent clear poetry in the 19th and 20th centuries led poets to try to appropriate the powers of the image the main trope they used was ekphrasis a written description of a work of art But the relationship between the arts was less a marriage than a rape These poets feared the wordless power of the other they described They narcissistically created these images with the rhetoric of possession domination violence or entombment

The Diegueño Ceremony of the Death Images Edward H. Davis, 1919 The American Journal of Science Mrs. Gambold, 1887 American Journal of Science, 1887 The American Journal of Science, 1887 Horror Film Murray Leeder, 2018-01-25 An introduction to the horror film genre Absence Peter Handke, 2000-06-15 A challenging and rewarding novel from Nobel Prize winning author Peter Handke The time is an unspecified modernity the place possibly Europe Absence follows four nameless people the old man the woman the soldier and the gambler as they journey to a desolate wasteland beyond the limits of an unnamed city In this smoothly written fable Handke forcefully summons readers to the recognition that the essence of human life lies in the striving for self expression even though its perfect realization must always remain elusive Publishers Weekly A remarkably abstract book even for the very abstract Handke Slippery but engrossing work silkily translated Kirkus Reviews      A Guide to Modern Opera Esther Singleton, 1909      The Roads of Heaven Trilogy Melissa Scott, 2016-05-09 Five Twelfths of Heaven Book I of The Roads of Heaven In a space faring civilization where a single woman is increasingly disenfranchised the star pilot Silence Leigh is defrauded from her inheritance by a greedy competitor Forced to ally with two men Silence is dragged into a deadly political struggle and is tantalized by the hints of the legendary Earth as well as the dread and the glory of Magi's power Her dreams of having her own ship and of escape from the Hegemony's oppressions take on new direction and focus when she joins the crew of The Sun Treader Silence in Solitude Book II of The Roads of Heaven In Five Twelfths of Heaven Silence Leigh discovered that she was not only unusual as a female pilot but that impossible thing a female magus Her unique abilities make her the only person capable of reaching Earth humanity's original home now sealed behind a mysterious barrier but first she must learn to use her new found talents As the Hegemon's men close in on her and her husbands and teacher she must make a dangerous bargain undertake an impossible rescue mission in exchange for a vital map If she succeeds she may be able to save Earth If she fails The Empress of Earth Book III of The Roads of Heaven Following Five Twelfths of Heaven and Silence in Solitude this is the third and concluding novel in the Silence Leigh series Silence Leigh now faces the ultimate test of her skills as a pilot and of her powers as a sage Silence has finally wangled a deal with the Hegemony to use their gear to help them find the lost star roads to Earth This comes at a price though as the credit for this will go to the leader of the Hegemony's family so that one of his relatives can inherit his position given that he has no children The roads are not lost by accident there is an active group of planets trying to block access to Earth setting up a final conflict      Über(w)unden Lien Heidenreich-Seleme, Sean O'Toole, 2012 This book follows on from her wunden art in troubled times a multi disciplinary conference and series of performances organised by the Goethe Institut South Africa and held in Johannesburg 7-11 September 2011      The Construction of Drawings and Movies Thomas Forget, 2013 Author Thomas Forget demonstrates how to construct analytical drawings and movies that challenge the alleged realism of linear perspective and cinema These demonstrations expose you to underlying principles that will allow you to understand the broader implications of these methods      Listening to Others Natalia Brizuela, Krista Brune, 2024-05-01 Listening to Others is the first English language volume dedicated solely to the vast corpus of the preeminent Brazilian director Eduardo Coutinho 1933-2014 From his early work in the 1960s to his last posthumous film in 2015 Coutinho transformed documentary filmmaking in Brazil and beyond Described as an informal linguist and savage anthropologist Coutinho filmed encounters with people different from himself that foregrounded their voices and his role as an attentive listener creating a cinema of listening This collection brings together leading scholars of film literature visual culture Brazilian studies and Latin American studies from the United States and Latin America to examine both Coutinho's masterpieces and less studied films Using a range of approaches the contributors invite new ways of understanding the documentarian's trajectory and importance as his work transformed in response to dictatorship democratization and other political social and technological changes over the course of five decades

The volume also features original translations of a selection of Coutinho s writings and key texts by Brazilian critics to offer a historical perspective on his filmmaking and its reception      Majnun and Layla: Songs from Beyond the Grave Yann Damezin, 2023-11-21 The classic Persian poem of romance and tragedy captured as a sumptuous and richly colorful graphic novel inspired by traditional art of the region
