Images ,1976 Women in Transition Maria-José Blanco,Claire Williams,2021-05-06 This volume brings together scholars students and writers as well as artists from around the world By choosing a thematic focus on transition in women s lives we present research on women who have crossed biological geopolitical and political borders as well as emotional sexual cultural and linguistic boundaries The international approach brings together different cultures and genres in order to emphasize the links and connections that bind women together rather than those which separate them The chapters consider the ways in which the changes and transitions women undergo influence the world we live in We are particularly interested in the idea of crossing borders and how this influences identity and belonging and the theme of crossing boundaries in the context of motherhood as well as sexual orientation The topic is timely given the waves of migration all around the world in recent times The contributors deal with issues central to contemporary life such as gender equality and women s empowerment as well as understanding women s identities and being sensitive to fluid concepts of gender and sexuality

Image in Outline Gisela Brinker-Gabler,2012-08-09 A exploration of Lou Andreas Salom s critical and creative transformation of modern thought Image and Power Sarah Sceats,Gail Cunningham,2014-09-11 Image and Power is an important work of literary and cultural criticism This collection of essays focuses on some of the major issues addressed by women s writing in the twentieth century concerning genre subjectivity and social and cultural expectations issues which in the past have been regarded from an essentially male perspective The text introduces women writers whose novels have been widely read and provides an important contribution to the debate about women in literature Photographies East

Rosalind C. Morris,2009-03-23 Scholars of Asia most of whom are anthropologists examine the transformations precipitated or accelerated by the spread of photography across East and Southeast Asia Ritual Making Women Jan

Berry,2017-07-05 Ritual Making Women looks at the way in which women s making of ritual has emerged from the rapidly developing field of women s spirituality and theology The author uses ethnographic material to explore how the construction of ritual uses story making and embodied action to empower women Ritual far from being a timeless and universal practice is shown to be a contextual and gendered performance in which women subvert conventional distinctions of private and public The book combines narrative and case study material and draws on feminist theology and theory social anthropology and gender studies Challenging Images of Women in the Media Theresa Carilli,Jane Campbell,2012-07-13 Challenging

Images of Women and the Media Reinventing Women s Lives edited by Theresa Carilli and Jane Campbell collects fifteen articles addressing the status of women through an examination of depictions of women in the media This in depth study shows how mixed messages from the media muddle attempts at breaking the glass screen causing women to constantly question their role in global culture With cake ads followed by diet commercials the media s depiction of women is both confusing and contradictory While more and more women have begun to contribute to the media as respected anchors talk show hosts and commentators these portrayals are often counteracted by music videos and reality television shows such as Jersey Shore This collection seeks to analyze these depictions and their effects on women and culture The contributors to this anthology hail from such diverse locations as Japan Australia Pakistan India China Bulgaria and the United States With this global focus Challenging Images of Women in the Media scrutinizes issues of race ethnicity class and sexuality through a study of gendered media portrayals By challenging the status quo of media images the contributors to this essential volume invite a dialogue about women's lives

Text Into Image, Image Into Text Jeffrey Morrison, Florian Krobb, 1997 This is a truly interdisciplinary work Whilst all of the contributions focus upon the central problem of the relationship between literature and the visual arts they come from contributors working in a large number of different areas Represented are academics from the worlds of German studies French studies English studies art history and film studies in literature etc

Educating in the Divine Image Chaya Rosenfeld Gorsetman, Elana Maryles Sztokman, 2013-10-01 Although recent scholarship has examined gender issues in Judaism with regard to texts rituals and the rabbinate there has been no full length examination of the education of Jewish children in day schools Drawing on studies in education social science and psychology as well as personal interviews the authors show how traditional mainly Orthodox day school education continues to re inscribe gender inequities and socialize students into unhealthy gender identities and relationships They address pedagogy school practices curricula and textbooks as along with single sex versus coed schooling dress codes sex education Jewish rituals and gender hierarchies in educational leadership Drawing a stark picture of the many ways both girls and boys are molded into gender identities the authors offer concrete resources and suggestions for transforming educational practice

Text Into Image, 1997 Text into Image Image into Text is a truly interdisciplinary publication Whilst all of the contributions focus upon the central problem of the relationship between literature and the visual arts one which has lost nothing of its fascination as the debate has expanded in numerous forms from antiquity into the realm of postmodern theory they come from contributors working in a large number of different areas Represented are academics from the worlds of German Studies French Studies English Studies Art History and Film Studies Given their backgrounds each of the contributors can offer a different perspective upon the core issue of translation between media but perhaps most valuable is the combination of perspectives made possible by the arrangement of the volume into sections dealing with aspects of the image text debate In the same way that the volume gains by ranging across traditional disciplinary boundaries so it also gains from dealing with a wide range of historical material from to take only one possible route Baroque iconography through Romantic imagery to Expressionist agony

Childbirth in the Global Village Dawn Hillier, 2013-10-14 Is the experience of childbirth becoming globalised Is the encroachment of the western medical model dehumanising a profoundly human experience If so what can midwives and midwife educators do about it These are the questions at the heart of

Childbirth in the Global Village which highlights the role that globalisation plays in changing childbirth practices and its implications for midwifery practice and education Built around the vivid personal stories of women and midwives experiencing childbirth in four very different cultures Childbirth in the Global Village will resonate with the experience of midwives everywhere and makes a strong case for redesigning the midwifery curriculum to reflect the interconnectedness of childbirth midwifery education and practice around the globe
