Writing a Non-Boring Family History Hazel Edwards, 2011-04-01 Family history sleuthing is the biggest hobby worldwide Amid a sea of genealogy books Hazel Edwards has written a practical handbook on how to craft stories about our ancestors in an interesting way that other people will want to read She addresses the vital issues of injecting life into a name on a shipping list presenting the family's murky secrets doing justice to intriguing ancestors getting the amount of dramatisation right interviewing elderly relatives and people close to the family how to use anecdotes and record memories This revised edition acknowledges the new e formats that today's family members use includes helpful tips on how to write a eulogy and covers the growing interest in touring military battlefields and researching onsite material

Migrant Letters Marcelo J. Borges, Sonia Cancian, 2019-10-23 The migrant letter whether written by family members lovers friends or others is a document that continues to attract the attention of scholars and general readers alike What is it about migrant letters that fascinates us Is it nostalgia for a distant yet desired past Is it the consequence of the eclipse of letter writing in an age of digital communication technologies Or is it about the parallels between transnational experiences in previous mass migrations and in the current globalized world and the centrality of interpersonal relations mobility and communication then and now Influenced by methodologies from diverse disciplines the study of migrant letters has developed in myriad directions Scholars have examined migrant letters through such lenses as identity and self making family relations gender and emotions This volume contributes to this discussion by exploring the connection between the practice of letter writing and the emotional economic familial and gendered experiences of men and women separated by migration It combines theoretical and empirical discussions which illuminate a variety of historical experiences of migrants who built transnational lives as they moved across Europe Africa Latin America and the United States This volume was originally published as a special issue of The History of Family
