

Nicholas J. ANNASE

To you who answered the call of your country and served in its Armed Forces to bring about the total defeat of the enemy, I extend the heartfelt thanks of a grateful Nation. As one of the Nation's finest, you undertook the most severe task one can be called upon to perform. Because you demonstrated the fortitude, resourcefulness and calm judgment necessary to carry out that task, we now look to you for leadership and example in further exalting our country in peace.

Letters From The White South:

Letters of Mr. William E. Chandler Relative to the So-called Southern Policy of President Hayes William Eaton Chandler, 1878 Chandler was a representative on the Republican National Committee from Concord NH Chandler criticizes President Rutherford B Hayes for abandoning his campaign pledge to defend civil rights of Blacks in the South and for betraying southern Blacks and his party by appointing renegade Democrats to public office especially in South Carolina and Louisiana Garrison's letter confirms Chandler's views about Hayes and his policy of favoring southern whites over Blacks

Letters to Change the World Travis Elborough, 2018-09-06 We know through painful experience that freedom is never voluntarily given by the oppressor it must be demanded by the oppressed Martin Luther King In an era where the liberties we often take for granted are under threat Letters To Change the World is a collection of inspiring letters offering reminders from history that standing up for and voicing our personal and political beliefs is not merely a crucial right but a duty if we want to change the world Edited by Travis Elborough the collection includes George Orwell's warning on totalitarianism Martin Luther King's Letter from a Birmingham Jail Albert Camus on the reasons to fight a war Bertrand Russell on peace Emmeline Pankhurst rallying her suffragettes Nelson Mandela's letter to his children from prison and Time's Up on the abuse of power

From Immigrants to Ethnic Minority Lorna Chessum, 2017-07-05 While there is an extensive sociological literature concerning race relations racial discrimination and the process of migration this has tended to focus on snapshots at a given moment in time There are few historical accounts of the development of black communities in Britain This book will be the first social history of a black community in modern times which attempts to weave many aspects of life together to give a more comprehensive understanding of the lives of black people in Britain The book will address the way peoples lives are constructed through racialized identities and how African Caribbean people in Leicester relate to the wider community It provides an important contribution to the debate concerning the social class profile of different ethnic groups The work is gendered throughout and discusses the different nature of the experiences of men and women The 1991 census shows Leicester to have the highest proportion of ethnic minority residents of any city outside London however compared to other cities with black and Asian communities it has received little attention from academics The present study charts the development of Leicester's African Caribbean community from its origins in the Second World War to 1981 and its changing construction from immigrants to ethnic minority

Redeeming the South Paul Harvey, 2000-11-09 Together and separately black and white Baptists created different but intertwined cultures that profoundly shaped the South Adopting a biracial and bicultural focus Paul Harvey works to redefine southern religious history and by extension southern culture as the product of such interaction the result of whites and blacks having drawn from and influenced each other even while remaining separate and distinct Harvey explores the parallels and divergences of black and white religious institutions as manifested through differences in worship styles sacred music and political agendas He examines the relationship of broad social phenomena like progressivism and modernization to the development of southern religion focusing on the clash between rural southern folk religious expression and models of spirituality drawn from northern Victorian standards In tracing the growth of Baptist churches from small outposts of radically democratic plain folk religion in the mid eighteenth century to conservative and culturally dominant institutions in the twentieth century Harvey explores one of the most impressive evolutions of American religious and cultural history

Edinburgh Companion to Nineteenth-Century American Letters and Letter-Writing Celeste-Marie Bernier, 2016-02-15 This comprehensive study by leading scholars in an important new field the history of letters and letter writing is essential reading for anyone interested in nineteenth century American politics history or literature Because of its mass literacy population mobility and extensive postal system nineteenth century America is a crucial site for the exploration of letters and their meanings whether they be written by presidents and statesmen scientists and philosophers novelists and poets feminists and reformers immigrants Native Americans or African Americans This book breaks new ground by mapping the voluminous correspondence of these figures and other important American writers and thinkers Rather than treating the letter as a spontaneous private document the contributors understand it as a self conscious artefact circulating between friends and strangers and across multiple genres in ways that both make and break social ties

Letters from the White South Sidney Trentbridge-Smith, 1984 Diary and Letters of Rutherford Birchard Hayes: 1865-1881 Rutherford Birchard Hayes, 1924 Massive Resistance and Southern Womanhood Rebecca Brückmann, 2021-01-01 Massive Resistance and Southern Womanhood offers a comparative sociocultural and spatial history of white supremacist women who were active in segregationist grassroots activism in Little Rock New Orleans and Charleston from the late 1940s to the late 1960s Through her examination Rebecca Brückmann uncovers and evaluates the roles actions self understandings and media representations of segregationist women in massive resistance in urban and metropolitan settings Brückmann argues that white women were motivated by an everyday culture of white supremacy and they created performative spaces for their segregationist agitation in the public sphere to legitimize their actions While other studies of mass resistance have focused on maternalism Brückmann shows that women's invocation of motherhood was varied and primarily served as a tactical tool to continuously expand these women's spaces Through this examination she differentiates the circumstances tactics and representations used in the creation of performative spaces by working class middle class and elite women engaged in massive resistance Brückmann focuses on the transgressive street politics of working class female activists in Little Rock and New Orleans that contrasted with the more traditional political actions of segregationist middle class and elite women in Charleston who aligned white supremacist agitation with long standing experience in conservative women's clubs including the United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Daughters of the American Revolution Working class women's groups chose consciously transgressive strategies including violence to elicit shock value and create states of emergency to further legitimize their actions and push for white supremacy

The Letters of Jean Toomer, 1919-1924 Jean Toomer,2006 Mark Whalen s compilation offers a vital document for understanding the contexts intellectual debates and tensions undergirding Toomer s work including his simultaneous feelings of attraction to and estrangement from rural southern life the influence of technology on race and urban existence in America and the contradictory pulls of folk culture and modernist experimentation The collection also charts the motives underlying Toomer s abandonment of the style that distinguished Cane and his growing fascination with the teachings of the mystic G I Gurdjieff in 1924 BOOK JACKET The Letters of C. Vann Woodward C. Vann Woodward,2013-09-24 divC Vann

Woodward was one of the most prominent and respected American historians of the twentieth century He was also a very gifted and frequent writer of letters from his earliest days as a young student in Arkansas and Georgia to his later days at Yale when he became one of the arbiters of American intellectual culture DIVdiv DIVdivFor the first time his sprightly wry sympathetic and often funny letters are published including those he wrote to figures as diverse as John Kennedy David Riesman Richard Hofstadter and Robert Penn Warren The letters shed new light not only on Woodward himself but on what it meant to be an American radical and public intellectual as well as on the complex politics and discourse of the historical profession and the anxious modulations of Southern culture DIV The Danish Pilot ,1890 Waterloo Sunrise John Davis,2024-03-26 This is an urban history of London during the pivotal years of the 1960s and 1970s when the metropolis was transformed from an industrial city that the Victorians might have recognised to an embryonic modern world city Previous work on London in these years has tended to focus upon the 1960s in particular the Swinging London phenomenon Mary Quant Carnaby Street and the King s Road Chelsea all appear in these pages but it is argued that the swinging moment of the mid sixties was a passing symptom of a much broader transformation from an industrial to a service based city and it is that transformation which this book examines London is too complex and diverse a city to be comprehended in a simple linear narrative this book adopts instead an innovative approach to urban history by which London life and London s transformation are examined through a number of case studies looking at specific themes and areas of the city Consumerism and the experience economy home ownership and gentrification deindustrialisation and deprivation racial tension and unemployment the attrition of public services and the steady loss of confidence in public agencies national and local emerge as overarching themes from the individual case studies in this book Their combined effect it is argued was to prepare the ground for the Britain that Margaret Thatcher is usually held to have created after 1979 without Thatcher herself having anything to do it Selected Letters of Langston Hughes Langston Hughes,2015-02-10 This is the first comprehensive selection from the correspondence of the iconic and beloved Langston Hughes It offers a life in letters that showcases his many struggles as well as his memorable achievements Arranged by decade and linked by expert commentary the volume guides us through Hughes s journey in all its aspects personal political practical and above all literary His letters range from those written to family members notably his father who opposed Langston's literary ambitions and to friends fellow artists critics and readers who sought him out by mail These figures include personalities such as Carl Van Vechten Blanche Knopf Zora Neale Hurston Arna Bontemps Vachel Lindsay Ezra Pound Richard Wright Kurt Weill Carl Sandburg Gwendolyn Brooks James Baldwin Martin Luther King Jr Alice Walker Amiri Baraka and Muhammad Ali The letters tell the story of a determined poet precociously finding his mature voice struggling to realize his literary goals in an environment generally hostile to blacks reaching out bravely to the young and challenging them to aspire beyond the bonds of segregation using his artistic prestige to serve the disenfranchised and the cause of social justice irrepressibly laughing at the world despite its quirks and humiliations Venturing bravely on what he called the big sea of life Hughes made his way forward always aware that his only hope of self fulfillment and a sense of personal integrity lay in diligently pursuing his literary vocation Hughes's voice in these pages enhanced by photographs and quotations from his poetry allows us to know him intimately and gives us an unusually rich picture of this generous visionary gratifyingly good man who was also a genius of modern American letters
