

LETTERS OF HEROD AND PILATE

Connecting Roman history with the death of Christ at Jerusalem. These letters occur in a Syriac manuscript in the British Museum, dated in the sixth or seventh century. There is a Greek copy in a Paris museum.

LETTER OF HEROD TO PILATE THE GOVERNOR

Herod to Pontius Pilate the Governor of Jerusalem, Peace:

1. I am in great anxiety. I write these things to you, that when you have heard them you may be grieved for me. For as my daughter Herodias, who is dear to me, was playing upon a pool of water that had ice upon it, it broke under her and all her body went down, and her head was cut off and remained on the surface of the ice. And behold, her mother is holding her head upon her knees in her lap, and my whole house is in great sorrow.
2. For I, when I heard of the man Jesus, wished to come to you, that I might see him alone and hear his word, whether it was like that of the sons of men.
3. And it is certain that because of the many evil things which were done by me to John the Baptist, and because I mocked the Christ, behold I receive the reward of unrighteousness, for I have shed much blood of others' children upon the earth. Therefore the judgments of God are righteous, for every man receives according to his thought. But since you were worthy to see that God-man, therefore it is appropriate for you to pray for me.

Of course, the author of this epistle was not Herod the Great who caused the massacre of the children at Bethlehem (Matthew 2:16), but by his son Herod Antipas, also known as Herod the Tetrarch.

4. My son Azbonius also is in the agony of the hour of death.
5. And I too am in affliction and great trial, because I have the dropsy and am in great distress, because I persecuted the introducer of baptism by water, which was John. Therefore, my brother, the judgments of God are righteous.

For this Herod's imprisonment and beheading of John the Baptist, see Luke 3:1, 19, Matthew 14:1-10.

6. And my wife, again, through all her grief for her daughter, is become blind in her left eye, because we desired to blind the Eye of righteousness.
7. There is no peace to the doers of evil, says the Lord. For already great affliction comes upon the priests and upon the writers of the law because they delivered unto you the Just One.

Compare with: "[There is] no peace, saith the Lord, unto the wicked." (Isaiah 48:22), "[There is] no peace, saith my God, to the wicked." (Isaiah 57:21)

8. For this is the consummation of the world, that they consented that the Gentiles should become heirs. For the children of light will be cast out, for they have not observed the things which were preached concerning the Lord and concerning his Son.
9. Therefore gird up your loins, and receive righteousness, you with your wife remembering Jesus night and day; and the kingdom shall belong to you Gentiles, for we the chosen people have mocked the Righteous One.

The phrase "gird up your loins," meaning "prepare for action," seems to have been a popular expression (see Luke 12:35), and cannot be a reference to New Testament books written later, such as Ephesians 6:14, or 1 Peter 1:13.

10. Now if there is place for our request, O Pilate, because we were at one time in power, bury my household carefully, for it is right that we should be buried by you rather than by the priests, whom, after a little time, as the Scriptures say, at the coming of Jesus Christ, vengeance shall overtake.
11. Fare you well, with Procla your wife.
12. I send you the earrings of my daughter and my own ring, that they may be for you a memorial of my decease. For already do worms begin to issue from my body, and lo, I am receiving temporal judgment, and I am afraid of the judgment to come. For in both we stand before the works of the living God; but this judgment, which is

Letters of Herod and Pilate Billy R. Fincher, 2016-04-02 CONNECTING ROMAN HISTORY WITH THE DEATH OF CHRIST AT JERUSALEM These letters occur in a Syriac manuscript of the sixth or seventh century in the British Museum Dr Tischendorf states in his Apocalypses Apocryph Prolegg p 56 that he has a copy of the same in Greek from a Paris manuscript of which he says scripture satis differt non item argumentum The letters are followed by a few extracts which seem to have been added by some copyist although they are followed by the subscription to Pilate s letter We suppose that by Justinus we are to understand Justus of Tiberias of whom Josephus speaks as a historian of his time We cannot venture an opinion favorable to the genuineness of this extract because Photius says Justus did not mention Christ By Theodorus we understand the Emperor Tiberius The question and answer agree in sense with what is read in the Anaphora or response of Pilate
