Eliot, 2015-07-14 This fifth volume of the collected letters of poet playwright essayist and literary critic Thomas Stearns Eliot covers the years 1930 through 1931 It was during this period that the acclaimed American born writer earnestly embraced his newly avowed Anglo Catholic faith a decision that earned him the antagonism of friends like Virginia Woolf and Herbert Read Also evidenced in these correspondences is Eliot's growing estrangement from his wife Vivien with the writer's newfound dedication to the Anglican Church exacerbating the unhappiness of an already tormented union Yet despite his personal trials this period was one of great literary activity for Eliot In 1930 he composed the poems Ash Wednesday and Marina and published Coriolan and a translation of Saint John Perse s Anabase the following year As director at the British publishing house Faber Faber and editor of The Criterion he encouraged W H Auden Stephen Spender Louis MacNeice and Ralph Hodgson published James Joyce s Haveth Childers Everywhere and turned down a book proposal from Eric Blair better known by his pen name George Orwell Through Eliot s correspondences from this time the reader gets a full bodied view of a great artist at a personal professional and spiritual crossroads

Edmund Burke, 1828. After 1815 the usual form became a number of chapters on Britain, paying particular attention to the proceedings of Parliament, followed by chapters covering other countries in turn, no longer limited to Europe. The expansion of the History came at the expense of the sketches, reviews and other essays, so that the nineteenth-century publication ceased to have the miscellaneous character of its eighteenth-century forebear, although poems continued to be included until 1862 and a small number of official papers and other important texts continue to be reproduced to this day. Includes a long historical essay on the History of the Present War, the Seven Years War, 1756-63. In his preface to the 1758 volume, Burke noted the difficulties he had faced in writing the history section of the book: Taking the broken and unconnected materials and creating from them one connected narrative had been he commented a work of more labour than may at first appear. The 1758 volume is considered a unique contemporaneous account of the Seven Years War, analyzing its origins and development with a perspective not readily available at the time in newspapers or magazines.

Youth Activism in Environmental Politics, 2nd Edition Matt Henn, Sarah Pickard, 2023-02-02

Recently important new research has emerged to explain the large intergenerational cleavages in values and political preferences in many contemporary societies. In most established democracies and many newer democracies, young people are more likely to possess progressive values and are much more cosmopolitan in their outlook, socially liberal, accepting of cultural diversity and outward looking than older generations. They tend to reject mainstream electoral politics and authoritarian nationalist forms of populism in favour of alternative progressive political parties and movements. Indeed, there is burgeoning evidence of a global tendency towards young people's support for and participation in new styles of non-institutionalised political action that seem to better fit their life styles and to permit the actualisation of their political aspirations. Although there is a considerable body of existing literature that examines the rise of such values and political participation preferences, there is little work that focuses on the relationship with the prioritisation of environmental issues and environmental activism as evidenced in the September 2019 global climate strikes The goal of the current Research Topic is to explore the contemporary realities and patterns of youth participation in environmental politics in different societies As such we welcome manuscripts of original research and conceptualization that address the different practices of youth as they seek to effect environmental change and also their motivations for doing so Contributions are welcome from scholars youth practitioners and activists operating in a range of different settings and using diverse disciplinary and multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives
