All Poets Welcome Daniel Kane,2003-03-26 This landmark book together with its accompanying CD captures the heady excitement of the vibrant irreverent poetry scene of New York's Lower East Side in the 1960s Drawing from personal interviews with many of the participants from unpublished letters and from rare sound recordings Daniel Kane brings together for the first time the people political events and poetic roots that coalesced into a highly influential community From the poetry reading venues of the early sixties such as those at the Les Deux M gots and Le Metro coffeehouses to The Poetry Project at St Mark s Church a vital forum for poets to this day Kane traces the history of this literary renaissance showing how it was born from a culture of publicly performed poetry The Lower East Side in the sixties proved foundational in American verse culture a defining era for the artistic and political avant garde The voices and works of John Ashbery Amiri Baraka Charles Bernstein Bill Berkson Ted Berrigan Kenneth Koch Bernadette Mayer Ron Padgett Denise Levertov Paul Blackburn Frank O Hara and many others enliven these pages and the thirty five track CD includes recordings of several of the poets reading from their work in the sixties and seventies The Lower East Side s cafes coffeehouses and salons brought together poets of various aesthetic sensibilities including writers associated with the so called New York School Beats Black Mountain Deep Image San Francisco Renaissance Umbra and others Kane shows that the significance for literary history of this loosely defined community of poets and artists lies in part in its reclaiming an orally centered poetic tradition adapted specifically to open up the possibilities for an aesthetically daring playful poetics and a politics of joy and resistance

Villainsac

John Warwick, 2023-07-21 Villainsac is a small market village situated in Southwest France which was constructed during the 13th century by Count Alphonse de Poitiers. The Count begets an illegitimate son called Charles who was tyrannical and mentally unstable. The Count therefore built a Chateau where he had Charles incarcerated until he died on 13th January 1289 or according to folk tale suddenly disappeared. The Chateau lay empty until it was occupied again in 1858 by John Henry Forbes, a wealthy London banker, and who on the night of 5th May 1868 also disappeared. In 2006 the Chateau was purchased by John Mortimer, also a wealthy banker. However, after signing the first contract for the purchase of the Chateau, the Maire discovers a document which proves to be a Decree signed by Count Alphonse enforcing the owner of the Chateau to pay a pension to the local residents free of tax. John Mortimer is a wealthy man but finding the money to fund the pensioners seems impossible. John returns to London and late one afternoon in the City, John stumbles upon a pub which he had never noticed in the past, called the Alphonse. On entering the pub, John finds that he has gone back in time to 1868 and is addressed by the landlord as Mr Forbes. He purchases a pint of beer, sits down at a table, and passes out. He is awoken back in his own time by a young man whom in time John will find familiar. Realising that he has been taken for John Forbes, he contrives to make a Will with himself the main beneficiary. Strange events start to occur, and it is presumed that the spirit of a person who died by means other than of natural causes was imprisoned in the tunnel. Meanwhile, the ancient Decree becomes public knowledge, and a great deal of interest is shown by the village folk. Cleverly, this is quelled, lest the Tax Officials should find out about it. However, there are three ladies in the village who have nothing much more to do than snoop on other people's business and are hell bent in finding the truth about the pension payments. As a result, all three meet their untimely deaths. They do, in their plight, managed to attract the attention of the Tax Office, which generates the interest of Mme Baldazzini, Tax Officer. In order to find the truth, she finally gate-crashes a Halloween Party given by John Mortimer at the Chateau, thus manages to gain access to his study and filing cabinets. In doing so, she becomes possessed and disappears. This generates further interest by the police, the news media, and the Tax Office. Further supernatural disturbances occur at the Chateau, which culminate in a surreal sexual experience being encountered between John and Mathieu Laffite. John's Valet, John, makes a trip to the Cayman Islands where his funds are held. He meets Charles Snoopchut Sfenalono, who has a seat next to him on the aircraft and is staying at the same hotel on the island. John soon realises that Charles has very strange powers. Mathieu is asked to travel to the island when he arrives, Charles has mysteriously disappeared. John goes to the bank where the Manager tells him that a further letter of wishes by Mr Forbes had been found and written at the same time as the Will. This letter gives further instructions that the monies are to be transferred to a Mr Charles Snoopchut Sfenalono. The night after, John and Mathieu return to the Chateau. Mathieu is unable to sleep and in his disturbed state decides to take his bedding downstairs to sleep outside John's room in the corridor. The following morning, Mathieu discovers that John is missing; he alerts the rest of the occupants in the Chateau, and a search commences. Mathieu is arrested on the basis that he is the main suspect, resulting in
