Friends Witness to Scriptural Truth, 1910      The Seven Letters to the Seven Churches in Revelation James Thomas Lee, Jr., 2014-04-15 The Apostle John had been exiled to the isle of Patmos because of his stand for Christ So on the Lord's Day Jesus had come to him and had commanded him to write the words that appear in the book of Revelation Revelation 1 10 11

says I was in the Spirit on the Lord s day and heard behind me a great voice as of a trumpet Saying I am Alpha and Omega the first and the last and What thou seest write in a book and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia unto Ephesus and unto Smyrna and unto Pergamos and unto Thyatira and unto Sardis and unto Philadelphia and unto Laodicea Each of the seven letters had followed a simple but consistent pattern They had begun with a simple greeting that had stated specific characteristics of Jesus Those characteristics had been indicated to the specific church based upon what the Lord through John would be saying to the church Following that opening characteristic Jesus had reported to each church an assessment of where they had been spiritually He had then given them a prescription for fixing their problems Lastly He had concluded each letter by giving the people in each church a promise to those that HAVE overcome In chapter one of this book the author date and occasion for the writing of the book of Revelation will be given What evidence exists to actually show that the Apostle John had written the book The four most popular approaches for understanding the book of Revelation will also be discussed Had the seven letters just been written to the seven churches or is there an expanded viewpoint about their applicability In chapter two a consideration of Proconsular Asia will be provided That is the area where the seven churches had been located So in looking at it one can better understand when the seven churches had been established One can also better understand the spiritual problems that had been prevalent in that region In chapters three through nine each of the seven letters will be carefully examined Then chapter ten will present any final thoughts and conclusions that one might draw from this kind of study As always the purpose of this book is to honor and glorify the Lord He is the beginning and the end the Alpha and the Omega He is worthy of ALL honor and glory

The Apocalypse Charles H. Talbert, 1994-01-01 In this concise and clearly written commentary Charles H Talbert brings to mainline Christians a fresh reading of the book of Revelation demonstrating that it is not only accessible but relevant for the modern day Christian According to Talbert the primary causes of the marginalized status of the book of Revelation by mainline Christians are threefold the apparent inaccessibility of its meaning the seeming impossibility of its pastoral application and its demonstrated susceptibility to abuse Talbert ably demonstrates that the book of Revelation was written to help the early Christians avoid assimilation into the larger pagan culture Talbert also gives full attention to the literature of the Greco Roman early Christian and early Jewish worlds as he examines the more mystical components of the narrative
