Food Plane Soup: the Desert Island Letters Ron-Luc Nickell, 2005-12 When the dot com bubble burst in the fall of 2001 the newly laid off author spent three months on Grand Turk in the Turks Caicos Islands of the British West Indies This collection comprises the weekly email updates with which he entertained and stymied his audience back home It follows his misadventures with backwardness and corruption in a colony no longer wanted by its rulers dealing with the events of September 11 in a foreign country and the imminent nervous breakdown which threatened his sanity and forced him back into civilization

Disciples of the Desert Jennifer L. Hevelone-Harper, 2005-07-12 Publisher Description

Rome in Egypt's Eastern Desert Hélène Cuvigny, 2021-08-21 A detailed archaeological study of life in Egypt's Eastern desert during the Roman period by a leading scholar Rome in Egypt's Eastern Desert is a two volume set collecting H l ne Cuvigny's most important articles on Egypt's Eastern Desert during the Roman period The excavations she directed uncovered a wealth of material including tens of thousands of texts written on pottery fragments ostraca Some are administrative texts but many more are correspondence both official and private written by and to the people mostly but not all men who lived and worked in these remote and harsh environments supported by an elaborate network of defense administration and supply that tied the entire region together. The contents of Rome in Egypt's Eastern Desert have all been published earlier in peer reviewed venues but most appear here for the first time in English. All of the contributions have been checked or translated by the editor and brought up to date with respect to bibliography and some have been significantly rewritten by the author in order to take account of the enormous amount of new material discovered since the original publications. A full index makes this body of work far more accessible than it was before. This book assembles into one collection thirty years of detailed study of this material conjuring in vivid detail the lived experience of those who inhabited these forts often through their own expressive language and the realia of desert geography, military life, sex, religion, quarry operations and imperial administration in the Roman world.
