With a New Pref. And Epreviously Unpublished Letters by Father Flye James Letters James Agee, James Harold Flye, Robert Phelps, 1962 Letters of James Agee to Father (James Agee, 1962 Harold) Flve James Agee, 1971 James Agee Letters James Agee, 1971-08-12 Letters of James Agee to Father James Agee, 1962 James Agee, Selected Journalism James Agee, Paul Ashdown, 1985-01-01 James Agee, Omnibus, and Mr. Lincoln William Hughes, 2004-08-02 In 1952 CBS in conjunction with the Ford Foundation launched Omnibus a remarkable experiment in television The objective was to raise the programming standards of an emerging medium that figured to profoundly influence American life The centerpiece of Omnibus during its inaugural season was Mr Lincoln a series of five films about the early life of our foremost political icon James Agee the distinguished American author was the principal creator of Mr Lincoln At the time his scripts were hailed as the most beautiful writing ever done for television and even today Agee's characterization of Lincoln remains among the finest perhaps the finest film about Abraham Lincoln ever made Regrettably this important and sensitive work a revealing expression of American culture at mid century has been consigned to the archives and has not been available to the public for many years Author William Hughes aims to keep alive Agee's neglected masterpiece placing Mr Lincoln in the context of the period's prevailing ideology Cold War liberalism and conveying the institutional framework in which the work originated In addition Hughes takes into account Agee's personal experiences his social and political views and his related writings for and about film all of which came into play when he reworked the Lincoln legend for the television age Based on extensive archive research and an interview with Norman Lloyd who directed the five films this book fully documents the cultural and historical importance of Mr Lincoln Context Michael A. Lofaro, 2023-01-17 It's difficult to overestimate the impact of the many new works by James Agee uncovered and published in the last twenty years These previously unknown primary works have in turn encouraged a parallel explosion of critical evaluation and reevaluation by scholars to which James Agee in Context is the latest contribution This superb collection from well known James Agee scholars features myriad approaches and contexts for understanding the author's fiction poetry journalism and screenwriting The essays bring the reader from the streets of James Agee's New York to travel with the author from Alabama to Hollywood to Havana Contributors explore overlapping and sometimes unique subjects themes and accomplishments or lack thereof in Agee's uncovered works and highlight the diversity of interest that Agee s complete body of work inspires The insightful scholarship on influence examines connections between Agee and Wright Morris Helen Levitt John Dos Passos Ernest Hemingway and Stephen Crane Such juxtapositions serve to illustrate how Agee drew on literary influences as a young man how he used his work as a journalist to craft fiction as he was about to turn thirty and his influence upon others The volume concludes with three poems and a short story by Agee all previously unknown It seems astonishing that so much remains to be discovered about this protean author his materials and his circle Yet the recovery and analysis of neglected texts and information mined from newspapers and magazines proves the extent to which Agee kept his mind and his work as he himself put it patiently concentrated upon the essential guietudes of the human James Agee and the Legend of Himself Alan Spiegel,1998 James Agee s literary reputation has grown enormously soul since his death in 1955 He wrote novels short stories poetry film criticism screenplays and investigative journalism but these accomplishments earned him only a modest public reputation during his brief life Ironically Agee's greatest recognition as a writer came posthumously when his novel A Death in the Family won the Pulitzer Prize In James Agee and the Legend of Himself Alan Spiegel examines these accomplishments and treats Agee not simply as a celebrity journalist or Depression writer but as a self interrogating literary artist who created a homemade legend from his earliest family memories sifting his experience through an automythology composed of his mother his father and himself Letters to Father Flve James Agee, 1962 The Making of James Agee Hugh Davis, 2008 Wildly productive during his short life James Agee 1909 1955 is today perhaps best remembered as a novelist his posthumously published A Death in the Family won a Pulitzer Prize in 1958 but he was also a poet screenwriter journalist essayist book reviewer and movie critic In The Making of James Agee Hugh Davis takes a comprehensive look at Agee's career showing the interrelatedness of his concerns as a writer A full view of Agee's oeuvre Davis argues illuminates its deeply political nature as well as a debt to various sources particularly European surrealism that have been little noted by previous Agee scholars Davis challenges the view of Agee that has persisted since his death that he is best understood primarily as a romantic individualist at odds with convention and the literary mainstream and argues that this myth was largely constructed by friends and associates who were so immersed in the tenets of modernism that they distorted Agee's work and aesthetic intent in an attempt to purify it in modernist terms In revealing a writer of far greater complexity than the Agee myth allows Davis explores for example the leftist poetry that Agee wrote in the 1930s which was almost completely suppressed by his editors He also throws a fresh light on Agee's collaboration with photographer Walker Evans on Let Us Now Praise Famous Men and reevaluates A Death of in the Family in light of recent scholarship that has produced an almost entirely new version of the novel one much closer to Agee s original intentions A much needed corrective to the many misconceptions about Agee Davis s study is a provocative and lucidly written work that is certain to spark new dialogues about one of the most fascinating figures in twentieth century American literature at 100 Michael A. Lofaro, 2012-02-25 Drawn mainly from the centennial anniversary symposium on James Agee held at the University of Tennessee in the fall of 2009 the essays of Agee at 100 are as diverse in topic and purpose as is Agee s work itself Often devalued during his life by those who thought his breadth a hindrance to greatness Agee's achievements as a poet novelist journalist essayist critic documentarian and screenwriter are now more fully recognized With its use of previously unknown and recently recovered materials as well as established works this groundbreaking new collection is a timely contribution to the resurgence of interest in Agee's significance. The essays in this collection range from the scholarly to the personal and all offer insight into Agee's writing his cultural influence and ultimately Agee himself Dwight Garner opens with his reflective essay on Why Agee Matters Several essays present almost entirely new material on Agee Paul Ashdown writes on Agee s book reviews which unlike Agee s film criticism have received scant attention With evidence from two largely unstudied manuscripts Jeffrey Couchman sets the record straight on Agee's contribution to the screenplay for The African Queen and delves as well into his television miniseries screenplay Mr Lincoln John Wranovics treats Agee s lesser known films the documentaries In the Street and The Quiet One and the Filipino epic Genghis Khan Jeffrey J Folks wrestles with Agee's culture of repudiation while James A Crank investigates his perplexing treatment of race in his prose Jesse Graves and Andrew Crooke provide new analyses of Let Us Now Praise Famous Men and Michael A Lofaro and Philip Stogdon both discuss Lofaro s recently restored text of A Death in the Family David Madden closes the collection with his short story Seeing Agee in Lincoln an imagined letter from Agee to his longtime confidante Father Flye The contributors to Agee at 100 utilize materials new and old to reveal the true importance of Agee's range of cultural sensibility and literary ability Film scholars will also find this collection particularly engrossing as will anyone fascinated by the work of the author rightly deemed the sovereign prince of the English language Michael A Lofaro is Lindsay Young Professor of American Literature and American and Cultural Studies at the University of Tennessee Most recently he restored James Agee s A Death in the Family and is the general editor of the projected eleven volume The Works of James Agee Dear Los Angeles David Kipen, 2018-12-04 A rich mosaic of diary entries and letters from Marilyn Monroe Cesar Chavez Susan Sontag Albert Einstein and many more this is the story of Los Angeles as told by locals transplants and some just passing through Los Angeles is refracted in all its irreducible unexplainable glory Los Angeles Times The City of Angels has played a distinct role in the hearts minds and imaginations of millions of people who see it as the ultimate symbol of the American Dream David Kipen a cultural historian and avid scholar of Los Angeles has scoured libraries archives and private estates to assemble a kaleidoscopic view of a truly unique city From the Spanish missionary expeditions in the early 1500s to the Golden Age of Hollywood to the strange new world of social media this collection is a slice of life in L A through the years The pieces are arranged by date January 1st to December 31st featuring selections from different decades and centuries What emerges is a vivid tapestry of insights personal discoveries and wry observations that together distill the essence of the city As sprawling and magical as the city itself Dear Los Angeles is a fascinating must have collection for everyone in from or touched by Southern California With excerpts from the writing of Ray Bradbury Edgar Rice Burroughs Octavia E Butler Italo Calvino Winston Churchill No l Coward Simone De Beauvoir James Dean T S Eliot William Faulkner Lawrence Ferlinghetti Richard Feynman F Scott Fitzgerald Allen Ginsberg Dashiell Hammett Charlton Heston Zora Neale Hurston Christopher Isherwood John Lennon H L Mencken Ana s Nin Sylvia Plath Ronald Reagan Joan Rivers James Thurber Dalton Trumbo Evelyn Waugh Tennessee Williams P G Wodehouse and many more Advance praise for Dear Los Angeles This book s a brilliant constellation spread out over a few centuries and five thousand square miles Each tiny entry pins the reality of the great unreal city of Angels to a moment in human time moments enthralled appalled jubilant suffering gossiping or bragging and it turns out there s no better way to paint a picture of the place Jonathan Lethem A scintillating collection of letters and diary entries an engrossing trove of colorful witty insights Publishers Weekly starred review Rufus Paul F. Brown, 2024-01-12 One of the most gifted of America's writers James Rufus Agee 1909 1955 spent a third of his short life in Tennessee yet no biographical treatment until this one has so fully explored his roots in the state In Rufus Paul F Brown draws deeply on a trove of journals letters interviews and contemporaneous newspaper accounts to produce a captivating portrait of Agee s boyhood Brown meticulously delineates Agee s family history his earliest years as a sensitive child growing up in Knoxville s Fort Sanders neighborhood and the traumatic event that marked his sixth year his father s death in an automobile accident Young Rufus as his family always called him revered his father and would use his memories of the tragedy to create his most enduring work of fiction the Pulitzer Prize winning A Death in the Family Just a few years after his father was killed Agee's mother placed him in the St Andrew's School for Mountain Boys near Sewanee Tennessee where he would meet his mentor and lifelong friend Father James Flye these experiences would inspire Agee s poignant novella The Morning Watch Another year in Knoxville followed and then his mother newly remarried whisked him away to New England where he would complete his education at Phillips Exeter Academy and Harvard Brown s account deftly reconstructs various settings the young Agee encountered including not only turn of the century Knoxville and St Andrew s but also the mountain hamlet of LaFollette his father s hometown and the complex family relationships that swirled around the young writer to be Brown also explores Knoxville s belated discovery of its famous son initiated when Hollywood came to town in 1962 to film All the Way Home an adaptation of A Death in the Family Notable commemorations including academic seminars a public park and a street named in Agee s honor would come later as the writer s posthumous reputation bloomed And now with Rufus we have the definitive account of how it all began
