Letters Of The Cedar Tree:

Letters of the Cedar Tree I D I Publishing, 1999-12-01 Letters of the Cedar Tree tells through fragments of letters the story of an angry youth's journey towards spiritual manhood His anger stems from his perception of cultural disfranchisement owing to his mixed cultural background and distance from his parents Being the product of a Native American and a Jewish American Princess is a bitch In a world of boarding schools and summer camps neither is a title of nobility Yet it is elements of these cultures which become the forges of his ascendancy Without meaning to the letters are a partial journey into the Lakota Sioux spirituality and in so doing uncovers for us a message which is more poignant and urgent today than when these letters were written over two decades ago The Cedar Tree is a symbol of eternal life for Native Americans and the dialogue achieved through these letter fragments speaks to the possible future of the Cedar Tree
