Lhumanita Perdue Ebai Sur Le Xxe Siacle:

L'humanité perdue Alain Finkielkraut, 1996 Hannah Arendt and the Uses of History Richard H. King, Dan Stone, 2008-09 Hannah Arendt first argued the continuities between the age of European imperialism and the age of fascism in Europe in The Origins of Totalitarianism This text uses Arendt's insights as a starting point for further investigations into the ways in which race imperialism slavery and genocide are linked Holocaust Literature: Agosin to Lentin S. Lillian Kremer, 2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004

The Holocaust, Fascism and Memory D. Stone, 2013-02-22 From interpretations of the Holocaust to fascist thought and anti fascists responses this book tackles topics which are rarely studied in conjunction This is a unique collection of essays on a wide variety of subjects which contributes to understanding the roots and consequences of mid twentieth century Europe's great catastrophe The Burden of Democracy Geneviève Souillac, 2011-12-16 This book offers an original contribution to the debate on contemporary democratic ethics It argues that public culture provides the mediating spaces required for processes of encounter but should be supplemented with an open dialog on history memory and identity Since democratic modernity is consolidating its new phase characterized by the multiplicity of perspectives the mediation of conflict identity and memory are required to continue fostering mutual understanding and the identification of issues of common concern The historical emergence of a public culture is a democratic gain Recognizing this offers opportunities for ethical transformation that respects diversity but also addresses the realities of conflict under conditions of post modernity Social Sciences and Innovation OECD, 2001-06-05 These workshop proceedings examine the contribution of the social sciences to improving our understanding of social and technological innovation processes to overcoming barriers to innovation and how innovation can improve social science An Uncertain Future Robert I. Weiner, Richard E. Sharpless, 2012-01-01 This contemporary oral history based on interviews and recorded observations made over an eighteen year period tells the compelling story of the small Jewish community of Dijon France and how it has evolved over time in response to both internal and external challenges From Revolution to Ethics Julian Bourg, 2007-05-14 A bold history of French intellectual life and the legacies of 1960's radicalism Facing Postmodernity Max Silverman, 2012-10-12 Facing Postmodernity explains French cultural theory by grounding it in the politics of the issues facing France today such as the breaking of the city racism the crisis of culture new citizenship It discusses some of the major responses to postmodernity by contemporary French thinkers both the very well known Lyotard Levinas Derrida and those who will be less familiar to a non French audience In doing so it addresses the questions central to the postmodern debate whatever country it takes place in questions of history of representation identity and community Re-founding the World Jean-Claude Guillebaud,2001 Is it time to dump Western capitalism s values Or on the contrary to re found our market based society by dumping its distortions and returning to the fundamental values of our Greek Judeo Christian heritage French Writers and the Politics of Complicity Richard J. Golsan,2006-02 Focusing on the political commitments of three French writers who collaborated with the Vichy Regime and Nazi Germany during World War II and on those of three leading French intellectuals of the 1990s whose misplaced political idealism led them to support xenophobic authoritarian regimes and dangerous historical revisionisms Richard J Golsan reexamines the notion of political commitment or engagement in two difficult periods in modern French history Discussing the fiction essays and journalism of Henry de Montherlant Jean Giono and Alphonse de Chateaubriant Golsan explores the complexity of artistic and intellectual collaboration during the German Occupation He demonstrates that in this context complicity with political evil often derived from nonpolitical motives including sexual orientation antimodern aesthetics and dangerously skewed religious beliefs Turning to the post cold war era of the 1990s Golsan examines the philosopher Alain Finkielkraut s support for Croatian independence the mediologist Régis Debray s pro Serb stance during the bombing of Kosovo and the historian Stéphane Courtois s revisionist comparison of Nazi and Communist crimes during the 1997 debate surrounding the publication of The Black Book of Communism In these three cases laudable motives and misguided historical comparisons with Vichy Nazism and the Occupation period that marked the political and intellectual discourses of France in the 1990s resulted paradoxically in antidemocratic engagements profoundly at odds with the original motivations behind these intellectuals commitments In each of these case studies political complicity derives from a combination of passions and ideals whether positive or negative emotional or intellectual as well as a desire to make the present conform to a particular and generally skewed vision of the past The full implications of these involvements are neither fully grasped nor understood by their authors either through lack of objectivity rationality or imagination or through willful ignorance The results are always unfortunate and often disastrous Considered together these six intellectuals serve as sobering reminders that political commitments are never as simple or straightforward as they seem and that admirable motives for political involvement can have dangerous and destructive consequences in historical practice Homo Sapiens 2.0 Gérard Ayache,2023-06-15 How can we use information rather than be subjected to it Does life have a digital logic Is the internal structure of the universe made up of information Is the Internet generating a collective brain Ever since Homo sapiens armed with his electronic machines learned to unlock the secret of information and its alchemy by digitizing it he has unleashed hyperinformation This force is a subtle blend of matter and thought animate and inanimate virtual and real For the first time in human history technology seems to be generating a collective intelligence Does this mean that reason is becoming truly alien to itself potentially hostile and dangerous Or are we witnessing the happy dawn of a new era Homo sapiens 2.0 offers a journey into the mysteries of the human brain the mysteries of genes and memes their mental equivalent and the secrets of language religion and new technologies From Ren Girard to Richard Dawkins from Teilhard de Chardin to Jo l de Rosnay the author recounts the saga of thought in the age of the virtual In between each chapter Interludes take us on a journey through literary works or enlightening scientific experiments G rard Ayache has taught communications at the University of Paris I worked as director of a public television channel and heads the Institut Infom trie Truth and Compassion Robert Petkovsek,Bojan Zalec,2017 Truth and Compassion offers an integral and inter disciplinary view on truth and compassion their mutual connectedness the meaning of their cultivation and the devastating consequences of their neglect and destruction The authors analyze their various forms their origins and concrete ways and attempts of their repression Essays focus on the attention to truth and compassion under communism but this is only one of its segments As a whole topics range from basic theological and philosophical analysis to concrete historiographic treatments of particular cases The central message is that speaking about grievances communication dialogue empathy and solidarity are necessary for living in truth and compassion Series Theology East West Theologie Ost West Vol 20 Subject Philosophy Ethics Studies Contemporary Italian Political Philosophy Antonio Calcagno,2015-07-06 Highlights and critically assesses the work of contemporary Italian political philosophers Italy has a rich philosophical legacy and recent developments and movements in its political philosophy have produced a significant body of thought by internationally renowned philosophers working on questions and themes such as the critique of neoliberalism statehood politics and culture feminism community the stranger and the relationship between politics and action This volume brings this conversation to English language readers considering well known Italian philosophers such as Vattimo Agamben Esposito and Negri as well as philosophers with whom English language readers are less acquainted such as Luce Fabbri Adriana Cavarero and Lea Melandri In addition the essays extend the conversation beyond the realm of Italian philosophy bringing its thinkers into dialogue with philosophical figures including Badiou Marx Merleau Ponty Deleuze and Guattari Adorno Arendt Foucault Wittgenstein and the Peruvian historian and sociologist Anibal Quijano Fin de millénaire French Fiction Ruth Cruickshank,2009-10-08 The turn of the millennium in France coincided with a number of tangible crises and apocalyptic discourses and with the growth of the mass media and global market further generating and manipulating crisis In this original wide ranging but closely analytical study Cruickshank contextualizes and reads the work of four influential writers of prose fiction Angot Echenoz Houellebecq and Redonnet teasing out each one s response to this convergence She suggests that the recurrent fictional and cultural trope of the turning point has both aesthetic and critical potential Bringing together analyses spanning literature thought and culture she identifies and critiques the ways in which on the eve of the twenty first century different theoretical and fictional approaches confront the manipulation of crisis discourses Drawing on a long twentieth century of crisis thinking Cruickshank counters the perception that a postmodern model of perpetual crisis is culturally dominant and establ Can We Live Together? Alain

Touraine, David Macey, 2000 In this book a leading French social thinker grapples with the gap between the tendency toward globalization of economic relations and mass culture and the increasingly sectarian nature of our social identities as members of ethnic religious or national groups Though at first glance it might seem as if the answer to the question Can we live together is that we already do live together watching the same television programs buying the same clothes and even using the same language to communicate from one country to another the author argues that in important ways we are farther than ever from belonging to the same society or the same culture Our small societies are not gradually merging into one vast global society instead the simultaneously political territorial and cultural entities that we once called societies or countries are breaking up before our eyes in the wake of ethnic political and religious conflict The result is that we live together only to the extent that we make the same gestures and use the same objects we do not communicate with one another in a meaningful way or govern ourselves together What power can now reconcile a transnational economy with the disturbing reality of introverted communities The author argues against the idea that all we can do is agree on some social rules of mutual tolerance and respect for personal freedom and forgo the attempt to forge deeper bonds He argues instead that we can use a focus on the personal life project the construction of an active self or subject ultimately to form meaningful social and political institutions The book concludes by exploring how social institutions might be retooled to safeguard the development of the personal subject and communication between subjects and by sketching out what these new social institutions might look like in terms of social relations politics and education

Representations and Othering in Discourse Beyza Ç Tekin, 2010 This volume examines the construction of Turkey's possible European Union accession in French political discourse In today's France heated debates regarding Turkey's EU membership are turning into an essential part of European identity formation Once again the Turkish Other functions as a mirror for defining not only the European Self but also European values By providing a genuine and multi disciplinary approach for studying the Otherness attributed to Turkey this book contributes to our understanding of the Self Other nexus in International Relations Within a Critical Discourse Analysis framework this study explores the socio historical basis of the construction of Turkey's Otherness in an attempt to identify the processes through which past memories representations images and fantasies regarding Turkey are inserted into the French social imaginary Focusing on these significations which are reproduced and become manifest through language this book strives to uncover the link between discourse and political action Beyza Tekin's book helps us make sense of the complexities in an unusually detailed and explicit way by deploying the sophisticated techniques we now have for the analysis of discourse This is a book with historical depth It is also a book that offers precise analysis Historians sociologists policymakers as well as discourse analysts all have much to learn from this book Paul Chilton University of Lancaster This is an original and insightful study of the construction of Turkey in French political discourse and offers a valuable analysis of the formation of European identity Gerard Delanty University of Sussex From the Saracen slayer to the
