the world of the bedbound and dying One chapter analyses the changing portrayal of older people in the Irish short story Recent demographic shifts in Ireland have focused attention on an increasing ageing population making this study a timely intervention in the field of literary gerontology Liam O'Flaherty: the Collected Stories A. notes on the condition and binding of each copy Nine appendices provide listings of selected periodicals series publications anthologies yearbooks and topical works The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Art and Commerce in the British Short Story, 1880-1950 Dean Baldwin, 2015-10-06 The short story was a commercial phenomenon which took off in the late nineteenth century and lasted through to the rise of television and film Baldwin uses a wide variety of sources to show how economic factors helped to dictate how and what a wide variety of authors wrote Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century David Pierce, 2000 Arranged chronologically by decade from the 1890s to the 1990s each decade is divided into two different types of writing critical documentary and imaginative writing and is accompanied by a headnote which situates it thematically and chronologically The Reader is also structured for thematic study by listing all the pieces included under a series of topic headings The wide range of material encompasses writings of well known figures in the Irish canon and neglected writers alike This will appeal to the general reader but also makes Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century ideal as a core text providing a unique focus for detailed study in a single volume BOOK JACKET Modern Irish Poetry: A New Alhambra Frank Sewell, 2001-01-25 Recently chapters on individual Irish language authors have formed part of publications regarding modern Irish art and culture in general Such chapters are welcome but they have excited the curiosity of readers to the degree that longer more detailed works are now required to put writing in Irish into perspective In this study of four modern poets two each from two generations Sewell attempts to illustrate not only the accumulative but the transformative nature of tradition Chapters 1 and 2 turn from the mid 20th century master Se n Riord in to the contemporary poet Cathal Searcaigh because the comparison and contrast highlights significant aspects of the amazing development of Irish poetry and indeed society in the period Here importantly the word development is meant in a neutral way the image used is that of a zig zag movement in the pattern of the continuing Irish tradition Chapter 3 returns to the slightly earlier major Irish language poet M irt n Dire in In doing so it returns home from the internationalism of the previous chapter on Searcaigh to Ireland a major focus and concern for the more solely traditionalist Dire in This switch back in time geography social mores or outlook fits and illustrates Sewell s concept of the zig zag movement of a country s culture as it proceeds from generation to generation The positioning therefore has a thematic purpose The fourth and final chapter focuses on the contemporary poet Nuala N Dhomhnaill who has managed to synthesise tradition and modernity central concerns of this book and who in doing so has become the current trail blazer of Irish poetry in either language Liam O'Flaherty James Howard O'Brien,1973 The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints ,1968 The Ecology of Finnegans Wake Alison Lacivita,2021-11-09 In this book one of the first ecocritical explorations of Irish literature Alison Lacivita defies the popular view of James Joyce as a thoroughly urban writer by bringing to light his consistent engagement with nature Using genetic criticism to investigate Joyce s source texts notebooks and proofs Lacivita shows how Joyce developed ecological themes in Finnegans Wake over successive drafts Making apparent a love of growing things and a lively connection with the natural world across his texts Lacivita s approach reveals Joyce s keen attention to the Irish landscape meteorology urban planning Dublin s ecology the exploitation of nature and fertility and reproduction Alison Lacivita unearths a vital quality of Joyce s work that has largely gone undetected decisively aligning ecocriticism with both modernism and Irish studies Book Review Digest ,1927
