Liber Amicorum for the Rt. Hon. Lord Wilberforce, PC, CMG, OBE, QC Maarten Bos, Ian Brownlie, 1987 From House of Lords to Supreme Court James Lee, 2011-01-06 2009 saw the centenary of the Society of Legal Scholars and the transition from the House of Lords to the new Supreme Court The papers presented in this volume arise from a seminar organised jointly by the Society of Legal Scholars and the University of Birmingham to celebrate and consider these historic events The papers examine judicial reasoning and the interaction between judges academics and the professions in their shared task of interpretative development of the law The volume gathers leading authorities on the House of Lords in its judicial capacity together with academics whose specialisms lie in particular fields of law including tort human rights restitution European law and private international law The relationship between judge and jurist is therefore investigated from a variety of perspectives and with reference to different jurisdictions The aim of the volume is to reflect upon the jurisprudence of the House of Lords and to consider the prospects for judging in the new Supreme Court Multicentrism as an Emerging Paradigm in Legal Theory Marek Zirk-Sadowski, Mariusz Jerzy Golecki, Bartosz Wojciechowski, 2009 The contemporary legal theory is gradually departing from traditional theory of the hierarchical legal system Some authors announce the supposed death of the concept of law within the state The so called multicentrism might become an attractive alternative to the traditional monocentric approach The essence of multicentrism may be characterized as coexistence of many adjudicating bodies especially courts whose verdicts are equally effective within the national legal system Such a situation takes place e g within the European legal area where multicentrism could be perceived as the existence of sensitive liaisons entanglements and relations of dependence between the European Court of Human Rights in Strasbourg the European Court of Justice in Luxemburg and national especially constitutional courts in member states The coexistence of many centres of adjudication may thus become a constant feature of the system of regional and global law Fouchard, Gaillard, Goldman on International Commercial Arbitration Philippe Fouchard, Berthold Goldman, 1999-09-02 Based on and includes revisions to Trait de l'arbitrage commercial international Ph Fouchard E Gaillard B Goldman 1996 Cf foreword

Organising the Firm Petri Mäntysaari, 2011-09-18 The theoretical basis of commercial law corporate governance law and corporate law is still unsatisfactory There essentially is no theory of commercial law and existing theories of corporate governance and corporate law cannot explain the behaviour of firms or the contents of existing regulation This book proposes a coordinated solution for all three areas The starting point is that all three areas deal with the organisation of firms Commercial law corporate governance and corporate law are therefore studied from the perspective of the firm rather than that of the judge or the investor Changing the perspective makes it easier to formulate an umbrella theory of commercial law and theories of corporate governance and corporate law as applications of the main theory The book provides examples of how the proposed theories work by studying legal corporate governance tools and practices that increase the sustainability of the firm Sustainability can be bolstered by making the governance model more self enforcing and ensuring that it fosters innovation

An Index to Common Law Festschriften Michael Taggart, 2006-09-01 This is the first ever index of contributions to common law Festschriften and fills a serious bibliographic gap in the literature of the common law The German word Festschrift is now the universally accepted term in the academy for a published collection of legal essays written by several authors to honour a distinguished jurist or to mark a significant legal event The number of Festschriften honouring common lawyers has increased enormously in the last thirty years Until now the numerous scholarly contributions to these volumes have not been adequately indexed This Index fills that bibliographic gap The entries included in this work refer to some 296 common law Festschriften indexed by author subject keyword editor title honorand and date It therefore includes over 5 000 chapter entries In addition there are more than a thousand entries of English language contributions to predominantly foreign language non common law legal Festschriften from Germany Austria Switzerland Denmark Finland Iceland Norway and Sweden

The Future of Political Community Gideon Baker, Jens Bartelson, 2009-12-04 This book explores the alternative futures of political community and moves beyond the critique of what is wrong with existing state based forms of political community It does so not with the defence of a particular normative model of political community in mind but rather in the quest for new ways of thinking about political community itself Exploring how the political must be rethought in the twenty first century and beyond this book is divided into three parts Part I focuses on the core problem that despite the obvious need to rethink political community beyond the nation state our conceptual language is still thoroughly shaped by modernity its prioritisation of the state and sovereignty and its assumption of unifying progress in history Part II focuses on postmodern political community these chapters take up the calls made above for new thinking about political community that goes beyond modern conceptions Part III turns to the question of the emergence and decline of new forms of political community The purpose of this section is to consider how the transformation of political community occurs in practice and what the primary driver of this change is globally locally and historically This book will be of strong interest to students and scholars of International Relations Political and Social Theory Annuaire Canadien de Droit International Charles B.
