

A photograph of a two-lane asphalt road winding through a dense forest. The road has double yellow lines in the center and white lines on the edges. The trees are tall and dark, and the sky in the background is a mix of soft pinks, purples, and blues, suggesting twilight. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

A liberated woman is one who has sex before marriage and a job after.

England Barbara Leah Harman, 1998 In this book Barbara Leah Harman convincingly establishes a new category in Victorian fiction the feminine political novel By studying Victorian female protagonists who participate in the public universe conventionally occupied by men the world of mills and city streets of political activism and labor strikes of public speaking and parliamentary debates she is able to reassess the public realm as the site of noble and meaningful action for women in Victorian England Harman examines at length Brontë's Shirley Gaskell's North and South Meredith's Diana of the Crossways Gissing's In the Year of Jubilee and Elizabeth Robins's The Convert reading these novels in relation to each other and to developments in the emerging British women's movement She argues that these texts constitute a countertradition in Victorian fiction neither domestic fiction nor fiction about the public fallen woman these novels reveal how nineteenth century English writers began to think about female transgression into the political sphere and about the intriguing meanings of women's public appearances Virginia Law Review, 1920 The New Male Female Relationship Herb

Goldberg,2000 In this ground breaking work Goldberg shows how traditional relationships are doomed to fail not because of personal inadequacies but because of the psychological defense mechanisms that program men to behave like machines and women like children Goldberg offers a total reevaluation of the war between the sexes in light of the enormous changes the woman s liberation movement has brought about in the last several decades Immensely hopeful in its outlook the book gives us a vision of just how good a relationship can be when men and women are friends and companions as well as lovers Book jacket

Gender Claire Colebrook,2003-10-20 Why has Western thought been so persistent in its organisation of human bodies and other categories in terms of the binary opposition male and female Is gender nothing more than an ideology or does it have its basis in sexual difference This invaluable introductory guide offers a clear overview of the concept and problem of gender Claire Colebrook places the term in its historical contexts and traces its development from the Enlightenment to the present before moving on to the evolution of the concept of gender from within the various stances of feminist criticism and exploring recent developments in queer theory and post feminism Close analysis of key literary texts including Frankenstein Paradise Lost and A Midsummer Night s Dream shows how specific styles of literature enable reflection on gender

Myth, Matriarchy and Modernity Peter Davies,2010-02-26 This study explores the prevalence in German culture of myths about ancient matriarchal societies discussing their presence in left and right wing politics feminist and antifeminist writing sociology psychoanalysis and literary production By tracing the influence of the works of the Swiss jurist and theorist of matriarchy Johann Jakob Bachofen 1815 1887 and the controversies about the reception and interpretation of his work this study shows how debate about the matriarchal origins of culture was inextricably linked with anxieties about modernity and gender identities at the turn of the twentieth century By moving beyond the discussion of canonical authors and taking seriously the scope of the discussion it becomes clear that it is not possible to reduce matriarchal theories to any particular political ideology instead they function as a mythic counterdiscourse to a modernity conceived as oppressive rational and masculine Writers considered include Ludwig Klages Hofmannsthal Kafka Hauptmann Lou Andreas Salom Sir Galahad Clara Viebig Mathilde Vaerting Thomas Mann Elisabeth Langg sser Ilse Langner Otto Gross Franz Werfel and many others

Bertrand Russell, Feminism, and Women Philosophers in his Circle Landon D. C. Elkind,Alexander Mugar Klein,2024-02-20 This book examines Bertrand Russell s complicated relationships to the women around him and to feminism more generally The essays in this volume offer scholarly reassessments of these relationships and their import for the history of feminism and of analytic philosophy Russell is a founder of analytic philosophy He has also been called a feminist due to his public decades long advocacy for women s rights and equality of the sexes But his private behavior towards wives and sexual partners and his apparently dismissive occasionally public responses to some women philosophers raises the question of what sort of feminist or chauvinist Russell actually was Focusing on women in Russell s circle of acquaintance including feminist activists and his philosophical interlocutors this book casts new light on a timeless thinker s feminism and the women who played critical roles in the making of analytic philosophy      Consumer Australia Robert Crawford, Kim Humphery, Judith Smart, 2010-06-09 Donald Horne s The Lucky Country claimed that Australia was one of the first nations to find part of the meaning of life in the purchase of consumer goods Significantly similar views had been expressed in the late 18th century where everyday life in the antipodean outpost of Empire was regarded as being pecuniary and acquisitive in nature While references to Australia as a consumer society continue to be made the question of how Australia came to be so has attracted less attention The chapters in Consumer Australia actively redress this omission by examining the ways in which the processes of selling buying and exchanging have characterised the experiences of consumption in every day Australian life Prepared by leading and emerging scholars the chapters in this unique collection critically explore the different ways that Australians have consumed products brands and even consumption itself from the 19th century and through the 20th century By charting the growth and development of consumption in Australia Consumer Australia reveals how Australia came to be a consumer society and asks where it is headed      Liberation Psychotherapy

 Dr. S. Selvapriya, 2025-04-17 This book explores the various ways in which Anita Nair and Manju Kapur express struggles that women overcome and how they lead their way to their empowerment women in their works This research paper was submitted by Dr S Selvapriya Head of the Department of English CA at Nadar Saraswati College of Arts and Science Antonyns Theni under the guidance of Dr R Dhanalakshmi from Mannar Thirumalai Naicker College Antonyns Madurai      Eighteenth-Century Women Writers and the Gentleman's Liberation Movement Dr Megan A Woodworth, 2013-05-28 In the late eighteenth century English novel the question of feminism has usually been explored with respect to how women writers treat their heroines and how they engage with contemporary political debates particularly those relating to the French Revolution Megan Woodworth argues that women writers ideas about their own liberty are also present in their treatment of male characters In positing a Gentleman s Liberation Movement she suggests that Frances Burney Charlotte Smith Jane West Maria Edgeworth and Jane Austen all used their creative powers to liberate men from the very institutions and ideas about power society and gender that promote the subjection of women Their writing juxtaposes the role of women in the private spheres with men s engagement in political structures and successive wars for independence the American Revolution the French Revolution and the Napoleonic Wars The failures associated with fighting these wars and the ideological debates surrounding them made plain at least to these women writers that in denying the universality of these natural freedoms their liberating effects would be severely compromised Thus to win the same rights for which men fought women writers sought to remake men as individuals freed from the tyranny of their patriarchal inheritance

Through the Gender Lens Bola Akanji,Funmi Soetan,2018-12-12 Sustainable development is now intricately linked not just to economic growth but more importantly to the quality of life of people in terms of their social status political participation cultural freedom environmental justice and inclusive development For previously colonized nations like Nigeria these linkages are believed to have been influenced by the legacies of colonial rule positively or otherwise Through the Gender Lens A Century of Social and Political Development in Nigeria looks at how colonialism has enabled or hindered the roles of the state in promoting inclusive development in general and gender equality in particular in the process of nation building In this edited volume scholars analyze a host of policies strategies and programs as well as empirical evidence to expose how types of governance from direct colonial rule in the country from 1914 through her independence in 1960 a Republic in 1963 and to different post independence governance periods have influenced gender relations and the impacts of these on Nigerian women Diverse sectoral perspectives from education health culture environment and especially politics are presented to explain the level of attainment or otherwise of gender equality and the implications for Nigeria s road to sustainable development The emphasis on the role of the state in development particularly indicts the social and political domains of governance Hence the main focus of inquiry in the volume In its twelve chapters the authors analyze available data and other information to draw relevant conclusions identify lessons of experience including from some cross country comparisons and make concrete recommendations for more gender inclusive systems of governance in the next century of Nigeria s nationhood

Cross-Border Marriages Nicole

Constable,2010-08-03 Illuminating how international marriages are negotiated arranged and experienced Cross Border Marriages is the first book to chart marital migrations involving women and men of diverse national ethnic and class backgrounds The migrations studied here cross geographical borders of provinces rural urban borders within nation states and international boundaries including those of China Japan South Korea India Vietnam the Philippines the United States and Canada Looking at assumptions about the connection between international marriages and poverty opportunism and women s mobility the book draws attention to ideas about global patterns of inequality that are thought to pressure poor women to emigrate to richer countries while simultaneously suggesting the limitations of such views Breaking from studies that regard the international bride as a victim of circumstance and the mechanisms of international marriage as traffic in commodified women these essays challenge any simple idea of global hypergamy and present a nuanced understanding where a variety of factors not the least of which is desire come into play Indeed most contemporary marriage scapes involve women who relocate in order to marry rarely is it the men But Nicole Constable and the volume contributors demonstrate that contrary to popular belief these brides are not necessarily poor nor do they categorically marry men who are above them on the socioeconomic ladder. Although often women may appear to be moving up from a less developed country to a more developed one, they do not necessarily move higher on the chain of economic resources. Complicating these and other assumptions about international marriages, the essays in this volume draw from interviews and rich ethnographic materials to examine women's and men's agency, their motivations for marriage, and the importance of familial pressures and obligations, cultural imaginings, fantasies, and desires in addition to personal and economic factors. Border crossing marriages are significant for what they reveal about the intersection of local and global processes in the everyday lives of women and men whose marital opportunities variably yield both rich possibilities and bitter disappointments.
