Liberated Cinema Daniel J. Goulding, 2002 Originally published in 1985 Liberated Cinema The Yugoslav Experience received the first annual Close up award from the Yugoslav Film Institute in 1986 for outstanding scholarship and for promoting the values of Yugoslav film art internationally This new edition has been revised and updated throughout It has been expanded to complete the story of the new Yugoslav cinema of the 1980s and to address major film developments that have taken place in the former Yugoslavia's five successor states As in his analysis of past periods of Yugoslav cinema Goulding situates the most recent developments within the context of film economics state subsidies and changing patterns of political control Most significantly however he provides an insightful discussion of the ways in which critically important domestic feature films produced or co produced from 1991 to 2001 reflect on recent brutal internecine warfare and other contemporary social cultural and political realities after the breakup of Yugoslavia Liberated cinema Daniel J.

Goulding, 1985 Liberated Cinema, Revised and Expanded Edition Daniel J. Goulding, 2002 Originally published in 1985 Liberated Cinema The Yugoslav Experience received the first annual Close up award from the Yugoslav Film Institute in 1986 for outstanding scholarship and for promoting the values of Yugoslav film art internationally This new edition has been revised and updated throughout It has been expanded to complete the story of the new Yugoslav cinema of the 1980s and to address major film developments that have taken place in the former Yugoslavia's five successor states As in his analysis of past periods of Yugoslav cinema Goulding situates the most recent developments within the context of film economics state subsidies and changing patterns of political control Most significantly however he provides an insightful discussion of the ways in which critically important domestic feature films produced or co produced from 1991 to 2001 reflect on recent brutal internecine warfare and other contemporary social cultural and political realities after the breakup of Yugoslavia The last Yugoslav generation Ljubica Spaskovska, 2017-04-30 This promising addition to the growing literature on the history of late socialism charts the development of youth culture and politics in socialist Yugoslavia focusing on the 1980s Rather than examining the 1980s as a mere prelude to the violent collapse of the country in the 1990s the book recovers the multiplicity of political visions and cultural developments that evolved at the time and that have been largely forgotten in subsequent discussion The youth of this generation the author convincingly argues sought to rearticulate the Yugoslav socialist framework in order to reinvigorate it and democratise it rather than destroy it altogether A Concise History of Serbia Dejan Djokić, 2023-01-26 This accessible and engaging book covers the full span of Serbia's history from the sixth century Slav migrations up to the present day It traces key developments surrounding the medieval and modern polities associated with Serbs revealing a fascinating history of entanglements and communication between southeastern and wider Europe sometimes with global implications This is a history of Serb states institutions and societies which also gives voice to individual experiences in an attempt to understand how the events described impacted the people who lived through them

Although no real continuity between the pre modern and modern periods exists Dejan Djoki draws out several common themes including migrations the Serbs relations with neighbouring empires and peoples Serbia as a society formed in the imperial borderlands and the polycentricity of Serbia The volume also highlights the surprising vitality of Serb identity and how it has survived in different incarnations over the centuries through reinvention Haunted Serbia David Norris,2016-05-05 Haunting is what happens when the past is disturbed and the victims of previous violence who are thought to be buried and forgotten are brought back to the present and made to live again Serbian fiction writers of the 1980s exhume the ghosts of the past re remembering the cruelty of the twentieth century reinterpreting the heroic role of the Partisans and the extraordinary measures taken to defend Yugoslavia s recently won independence and socialist revolution Their uncanny and ghostly imagery challenges the assumptions of the master discourse promoted by the country s orthodox communist authorities and questions the historical roots of social and cultural identities The instability of this period of transition is deepened during the wars of the 1990s when authors turn from the memory of past violence to face the ferocious brutality of new conflicts The haunting evocations in their work continue to articulate fresh uncertainties as the trappings of modern civilization are stripped away and replaced by the destructive logic of civil war The past returns once more with renewed energy in the struggle to make sense of a vastly changed world Russia and Eastern Europe, 1789-1985 Raymond Pearson,1989 Unsettled 1968 in the Troubled Present Aleksandra Konarzewska,Anna Nakai,Michał Przeperski,2019-10-14 Why does 1968 matter today The authors of this volume believe that it is a crucial point of reference for current developments especially the illiberal turn both in Europe and America If we want to understand it we need to look back into 1968 the year that founded the cultural and political order of today s world The book consists of the following four sections 1968 and transnationality 1968 and the transformation of meanings Artistic representations of 1968 and 1968 and the European contemporarity This is followed by an afterword from the significant keynote speaker at the conference Unsettled 1968 Origins Myth Impact in June 2018 in T bingen Germany Irena Grudzinska Gross herself a Polish 68er reflects upon the conference and leaves remarks on her 50 years of engagement with what happened in 1968 Post-Communist Malaise Zoran Samardzija,2020-05-15 Post Communist Malaise examines political modernism within the context of post communist Eastern Europe and the Balkans It focuses on how select cinemas from the regions critique European unification and how they represent related issues like the transition from communism to free market capitalism the Euro crisis and austerity and the rise of nationalism and right wing politics A Reader's Guide to Croatia Lawrence D. Orton,1992 Chinese Migrants in Russia, Central Asia and Eastern Europe Felix B. Chang,Sunnie T. Rucker-Chang,2013-03 This book provides a comprehensive overview of Chinese migration to the countries of the former Soviet bloc Russia Eastern Europe and countries of Central Asia exploring how the migration has come about discussing the motivation of the migrants and examining the significant contribution the migrants are making Retracing Images Daniel

Šuber, Slobodan Karamanic, 2012-01-06 The essays in this collection disclose cultural and political dynamics as they occurred before and in the wake of Yugoslavia's dissolution 1991-92 by analyzing visual data such as film art graffiti street art public advertisement memorials and monuments Within the vast field of Balkan Studies such visual materials have rarely been taken for important empirical evidence Against the still widely held presumption that the cultural production of allegedly totalitarian states such as Yugoslavia can be neglected as they were penetrated by state ideology the contributions offer a corrective image of the complex ideological dynamics and discursive potentials in various artistic and cultural fields Phenomena such as Titostalgia nationalist mobilization nation branding rewriting of history inventing of traditions and symbolic violence that have surfaced in recent years are interpreted in the light of Yugoslavia's legacy Contributors include Zoran Terzi Elissa Helms Miklavž Komelj Nebojša Jovanović Isabel Strihle Sezgin Boynik Gregor Bulc Davor Beganović Robert Alagžovski Gal Kirn Mitja Velikonja Daniel Šuber and Slobodan Karamani

Polish National Cinema Marek Haltof, 2002 In the years since World War 2 Poland has developed one of Europe's most distinguished film cultures This is a comprehensive study of Polish cinema from the end of the 19th century to the present

Transnationalism and Imperialism Hervé Mayer, David Roche, 2022-04-05 While Western films can be seen as a mode of American exceptionalism they have also become a global genre Around the world Westerns exemplify colonial cinema driven by the exploration of racial and gender hierarchies and the progress and violence shaped by imperialism Transnationalism and Imperialism Endurance of the Global Western Film traces the Western from the silent era to present day as the genre has circulated the world Contributors examine the reception and production of American Westerns outside the US alongside the transnational aspects of American productions and they consider the work of minority directors who use the genre to interrogate a visual history of oppression By viewing Western films through a transnational lens and focusing on the reinterpretations appropriations and parallel developments of the genre outside the US editors Hervé Mayer and David Roche contribute to a growing body of literature that debunks the pervasive correlation between the genre and American identity Perfect for media studies and political science Transnationalism and Imperialism reveals that Western films are more than cowboys they are a critical intersection where issues of power and coloniality are negotiated Cultural Transfer and Political Conflicts Andreas Kötzing, Caroline Moine, 2017-07-17 Film festivals during the Cold War were fraught with the political and social tensions that dominated the world at the time While film was becoming an increasingly powerful medium the European festivals in particular established themselves as showcases for filmmakers and their perceptions of reality At the same time their prestigious international character attracted the interest of states and private players The history of these festivals thus sheds light not only on the films they made available to various publics but on the cultural policies and political processes that informed their operations Presenting new research by an international group of younger scholars Cultural Transfer and Political Conflicts critically investigates postwar history in the context of film festivals reconstructing not only their social background and international dispensation but also their centrality for cultural transfers between the East the West and the South during the Cold War Literature and Film from East Europe's Forgotten "Second World" Gordana P.

Crnkovic,2021-05-06 Czechoslovakia Yugoslavia no longer on the map East Europe of the socialist period may seem like a historical oddity apparently so different from everything before and after Yet the masterpieces of literature and cinema from this largely forgotten Second World as well as by the authors formed in it and working in its aftermath surprise and delight with their contemporary resonance This book introduces and illuminates a number of these works It explores how their aesthetic ingenuity discovers ways of engaging existential and universal predicaments such as how one may survive in the world of victimizations or imagine a good city or broach the human boundaries to live as a plant Like true classics of world art these novels stories and films to rephrase Bohumil Hrabal keep telling us things about ourselves we don t know In lively and jargon free prose Gordana P Crnkovic builds on her rich teaching experience to create paths to these works and reveal how they changed lives

The Conformists Evgenija Garbolevsky,2011-05-25 The complexities and paradoxes of the Bulgarian film industry during the era of Communist rule 1945 1989 are explored This influential industry was mobilized for the needs of the state During its creation and development cultural institutions and those involved in film production operated within a relatively closed system based on rewards and punishments imposed by the Communist bureaucratic apparatus Sub textual content in films produced in Bulgaria during this period highlights the attitude of the elite towards the regime Understanding this multifaceted relationship helps explain why so many intellectuals found the film industry to be an attractive field in which to work and decided to remain loyal to the regime instead of leaving or openly rebelling against it This work challenges the historiographical perception that the arts in the Eastern Bloc during the Cold War were largely unsuccessful vehicles of propaganda and dissent By using a comparative methodological approach the cinema arts in the East and West are shown following similar paths despite the Iron Curtain Provided by publisher A Cultural History of

Serbia David A. Norris,2024-03-05 This volume focuses on Serbia s need to manage change while preserving community identities a narrative that avoids the common depiction of Serbian culture as a hostile struggle between modernizers supporting foreign models and traditionalists advocating forms of national cultural patrimony Traditions only function if they are allowed to bend to the necessary modifications demanded by a community s changing historical circumstances Tradition and change are two sides of the same coin which Serbia in its many different incarnations has experienced over the centuries protecting its national heritage while borrowing and adapting intellectual and other trends from Byzantine Ottoman and Western sources Outside influences have been imposed as a direct result of foreign rule or through more friendly channels of communication leading to a complex relationship between autochthonous and alien elements in Serbian society and culture This book argues that the division between the national and international frameworks has often been a false dichotomy with outside features embedded in domestic symbolic capital and Serbian culture simultaneously determined on local national regional and global levels David A Norris's approach offers a new perspective to students academics and general readers interested in the history of Serbia's participation in the broad networks of cultural exchange The History of Film Nicholas Croce, 2015-07-15 This comprehensive guide offers cinema enthusiasts everything they need to know about the history of film The book covers the film industry's most epic periods including the early years of film starting in the 1830s the silent years in the first quarter of the twentieth century the pre World War II sound era the rise and fall of the Hollywood studios and the transition into the twenty first century Along the way readers learn about the most iconic films and directors from around the world as well as how history politics and the cultural zeitgeist influenced cinema Media Archaeologies, Micro-Archives and Storytelling Martin Pogačar, 2016-08-30 This book argues that today we live in the culture of the past that delimits our world and configures our potentialities It explores how the past invades our presents and investigates the affective uses of the past in the increasingly elusive present Remembering and forgetting are part of everyday life popular culture politics ideologies and mythologies In the time of the ubiquitous digital media the ways individuals and collectivities re presence their pasts and how they think about the present and the future have undergone significant changes The book focuses on affective micro archives of the memories of the socialist Yugoslavia and investigates their construction as part of the media archaeological practices The author further argues that these affective practices present a way to reassemble the historical and relegitimize individual biographies which disintegrated along with the country in 1991
