Kenny Come Home:

A Seven Year Ache Fisher Lavell, 2022-01-18 Rosie Kelvey is a spirited and willful prairie woman of the early twentieth century whose ache to pursue her own desires goes against the harsh and limiting moral landscape of her time. She has what the neighbours teasingly call two men on her hook: an older passive husband and a virile young lover. But life is perilous for those who are poor and female and undeterred by the misfortunes that befall her wayward sisters. Rosie is inexorably drawn to an all-consuming flame. Through Rosie's eyes and in her fresh, lusty voice, Fisher Lavell explores themes of poverty, loss, and upheaval. Based closely on the hardscrabble lives of the author's errant aunts, A Seven Year Ache paints their tragedies, heartaches, and passions on a large and vibrant Prairie canvas.

The Mineola Twins Paula Vogel, 1999 THE STORY A comedy in six scenes, four dreams, and seven wigs. There are two ways to produce this play: 1 with good wigs or 2 with bad wigs. The second way is preferred. Myrna and Myra, almost identical twins, battle each other through the Eisen.

The House at Mingo Pond Linda Hoffman, 2015-09-16 The House At Mingo Pond holds secrets, dark secrets from the past and horrific secrets in the present. Four families live by the house. One of those families is shrouded in secrecy. When the veil of secrecy is ripped down, it will take the strength and courage of three families to try and save a boy from his sadistic and psychotic mother. Her tortured past drove her to kill. Now her insanity is driving her to kill again.

From the Eyes of a Child Kenny Angelo, 2016-11-03 From the Eyes of a Child is a true story written from the eyes of a child. The names were changed to protect the incident. It's about a young boy battling all kinds of problems in the ghetto projects and how he overcame, but with a price he had to pay for the rest of his life.

Be Careful What You Ask for in Detroit David Dean, 2021-08-04 As a kid, David used to always look up to drug dealers, pimps, and players because he thought that they had everything: money, cars, and whores. Even though he wanted to be a lawyer, he wanted to live like them, but his mother was not having that kind of life for him, and his big brother Mike. She raised them like middle class, even though they were poor. Growing up, David never saw drugs, pimps, or players. It was not until David turned eighteen that he started to see drugs and prostitution. After some guy had left David for dead because they were jealous of him for going to school and working and even trying to get a scholarship to college to play basketball, but his so-called best friend put a stop to that, and David's whole life had changed. He became that person that he looked up to when he was a kid. He became one of the biggest drug dealers in Detroit and the state of Michigan. He kept the bad-ass killers, the biggest drug dealers, and the most scandalous thieves around him. He felt that if they can't get past him, nobody could. David got married even though he was married to the game and lived that kind of lifestyle. His wife didn't really know David was in the game until after the wedding. They had the house he bought, the cars they drove, and the jewelry they wore. That's when David started noticing her stealing money and depositing it into her own private credit union. He thought that she was putting it away for a rainy day, so he never said anything. It seemed like everybody was trying to steal from him: his family, his best friend, everybody except for his mother and father. But this was David's way of keeping up with the game It was David s way of practicing for the people that were not family or friends The people that were close to David wanted to bring him down and take over his little cartel And his cousin did bring him down sending David to federal prison This story details the life of David Dean OPEN THE EYES OF MY HEART, LORD Patricia A.
