The Boy-Man, Masculinity and Immaturity in the Long Nineteenth Century Pete Newbon,2018-09-04 This book explores the evolution of male writers marked by peculiar traits of childlike immaturity The Boy Man emerged from the nexus of Rousseau's counter Enlightenment cultural primitivism Sensibility's Man of Feeling the Chattertonian poet maudit and the Romantic idealisation of childhood The Romantic era saw the proliferation of boy men who congregated around such metropolitan institutions as The London Magazine These included John Keats Leigh Hunt Charles Lamb Hartley Coleridge Thomas De Quincey and Thomas Hood In the period of the French Revolution terms of childishness were used against such writers as Wordsworth Keats Hunt and Lamb as a tool of political satire Yet boy men writers conversely used their amphibian child adult literary personae to critique the masculinist ideologies of their era However the growing cultural and political conservatism of the nineteenth century and the emergence of a canon of serious literature inculcated the relegation of the boy men from the republic of letters

Irish Modernisms Paul Fagan, John Greaney, Tamara Radak, 2021-09-23 This book focuses on previously unexplored gaps limitations and avenues of inquiry within the canon and scholarship of Irish modernism to develop a more attentive and fluid theoretical account of this conceptual field Foregrounding interfaces between literary visual musical dramatic cinematic epistolary and journalistic media these essays introduce previously peripheral writers artists and cultural figures to debates about Irish modernism Hannah Berman Ethel Colburn Mayne Mary Devenport O'Neill Sheila Wingfield Freda Laughton Rhoda Coghill Elizabeth Bowen Mirt n Cadhain Joseph Plunkett Liam O'Flaherty Edward Martyn Jane Barlow Seosamh Torna Jack B Yeats and Brian O Nolan all feature here to interrogate the term's implications Probing Irish modernism's responsiveness to contemporary theory beyond postcolonial and Irish studies Irish Modernisms Gaps Conjectures Possibilities uses diverse paradigms including weak theory biopolitics posthumanism and the nonhuman turn to rethink Irish modernism's organising themes the material body language mediality canonicity war state violence prostitution temporality death mourning Across the volume cutting edge work from queer theory and gender studies draws urgent attention to the too often marginalized importance of women's writing and queer expression to the Irish avant garde while critical reappraisals of the coordinates of race and national history compel us to ask not only where and when Irish modernism occurred but also whose modernism it was Morrissey Gavin Hopps, 2009-06-26 Morrissey is arguably the greatest disturbance popular music has ever known Even more than the choreographed carelessness of punk and the hyperbolic gestures of glam rock and the New Romantics Morrissey's early bookish ineptitude his celebration of the ordinary and his subversive endorsement of celibacy abstinence and rock n roll revolutionized the world of British pop As a solo artist too he consistently adopts the outsider's perspective and dares us to confront uncomfortable subjects In his brilliant book Gavin Hopps examines the work of this compelling performer whose intelligence humour suffering and awkwardness have fascinated audiences around the world for the last 25 years Hopps traces the trajectory of Morrissey's career and outlines the contours and contradictions of the singer's elusive persona The book illuminates Morrissey's coyness how can he remain a mystery when he tells us too much his dramatized melancholy surely more of a radical existential protest than the gimmick some believe it to be and his complex attitudes towards loneliness and alienation as well as his intriguing sense of the religious Techno-Magism Orrin N. C. Wang, 2022-01-04 Shortlisted Marilyn Gaull Book Award Techno Magism explores how British Romantic literature abuts and is organized around both print and non print media The book explores not only the print pictorial art and theater of early nineteenth century England and Europe but also communicative technologies invented after the British Romantic period such as photography film video and digital screens This proleptic abutting points to one way we can understand the implicit exceptionality wagered by reading Romanticism through media studies and media theory Techno Magism argues that both media studies and the concept of mediation in general can benefit from a more robust confrontation with or recovery of the arguments of deconstruction an unavoidable consequence of thinking about the relationship between Romanticism and media The book thinks that relationship through the catachrestic practice of a techno magism a technics of inscription always outside the causalities of a dialectical economy The book further pursues two interrelated ideas the structural incommensurability of the cut and the unapologetic presentism of the constellation Marked by its late capitalist moment of composition the book explores the continuity between the social character of Romantic and post Romantic media in terms of commodity culture revolution and the ecological devastation of the anthropocene

The Emotions Rom Harre,W Gerrod Parrott,1996-06-27 There is much that is fascinating here Long established experiments and conclusions are rubbished and reinterpreted long established assumptions and beliefs about emotions are soundly trounced and generally a good going over is delivered to the whole field it is such a blockbuster that one can only reel backwards and tell anyone studying the subject that they would be crazy not to get it Self the variation and diversity in emotion which provides scope for exploring how patterns of emotion contrast in different societies across gender lines at different historical times and between children and adults and the way in which the body is shaped and its functions influenced by culturally maintained patterns of emotion displays
