John A Collected Essays 2 John Scales Avery, 2016-02-06 This book contains a collection of essays and articles by John Scales Avery discussing the severe problems and challenges which the world faces during the 21st century Human civilization and the biosphere are threatened by catastrophic climate change Unless rapid steps are taken to replace fossil fuels by 100% renewable energy we risk passing a tipping point beyond which uncontrollable feedback loops could produce a 6th extinction event comparable to those observed in the geological record Another serious threat to human civilization and the biosphere is the danger of a catastrophic thermonuclear war Over a long period of time there is an ever increasing risk that such a war will occur by accident or miscalculation Thirdly there is threat of an extremely serious and widespread famine produced by the climate change rapidly growing populations and the end of the fossil fuel era We must urgently address all three challenges

Allow the Water Leonard Desroches, 2004-03 Allow the Water combines an introduction to nonviolence with a deeper exploration into some of its dimensions Though its style is mainly that of storytelling there are also as many helpful references as possible The book is 500 pages long but photos and drawings make up almost half the volume This is an exploration of the spirituality and practice of the force of love we inadequately call nonviolence Nonviolence is people and their stories before it is idea a way of living and acting not just a way of thinking This book is one contribution to an urgently needed conversation It is not meant to be complete There are questions observations and convictions Hopefully in their thoroughness and simplicity the contribute to our common search
