Kenyas Population Growth And Development To The Year 2000:

Kenya's Population Growth and Development to the Year 2000 Simeon Hongo Ominde,1988 Wangari Maathai Namulundah Florence,2014-10-07 Nobel Peace Prize laureate fighter for democratic space founder of the Green Belt Movement and inspiration for women and grassroots activists throughout the world the environmentalist Wangari Maathai 1940 2011 was a complex and multifaceted figure In this book fellow Kenyan Namulundah Florence offers an expansive examination of Maathai s role as a public figure educator inside and beyond the academy symbol of resistance to oppression and very visible woman in a patriarchal society Examining Maathai through the lens of feminist theory Florence unpacks the social and political background of Maathai s life and work and places her within the context of women s struggles in Africa for self determination and access to education and political power In so doing Florence reveals the complexities and many dimensions of this fascinating and extraordinary voice for women in Africa and beyond African Development Prospects Dominick Salvatore,1989 First Published in 1989 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company African Development Prospects United Nations Staff,2018-10-24 First published in 1989 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Undercurrents of Ethnic Conflict in Kenya John Oucho,2021-11-08 This book analyses the ethnic conflict that engulfed Kenya s Rift Valley Province at the turn of the nineties when multi party democratic politics were being reintroduced in the country Its central thesis is that ethnic conflict in the country then was a function of several issues among them ethnocentrism politics the land question and criminal behaviour in certain circles Both its determinants and consequences are demographic economic political and socio cultural implying the risks involved in oversimplifying issues

Local Environmental Change and Society in Africa M.A. Salih,2013-03-14 Social and natural scientists are currently obsessed with globalization but this has not been matched by an equal interest in the societal consequences of local environmental change Attention has thus been withdrawn from community and locality and transferred to global processes with an indifference to the reality of those at the receiving end of the social economic and political problems that globalization create Local reality is obscured and conditions are imposed that are often insensitive to or even distort local needs resource management and production systems The case studies presented here illustrate how environmental degradation has contributed to the distortion of local institutions and economies thus denying local communities the right to live in a productive and healthy environment The contributors highlight the seriousness of the difficulties involved in conflating national policies and local reality and imposing global policy instruments on local communities Understandably the case studies demonstrate that local communities resist putting their faith in environmental policies and plans imposed on them by global or national institutions that often deprive them of access to and control over their local environment

Energy and Development in Kenya Philip O'Keefe,Paul Raskin,Steve Bernow,1984 Study of power consumption and energy sources especially fuelwood in Kenya discusses energy economics the energy balance and energy policy options
