Fleuron Vi 1928:

The Fleuron Stanley Morison, 1970 The Palaeotypography of the French Renaissance (2 vols.) Hendrik Vervliet, 2008-11-30 This collection of thirteen essays examines sixteenth century type design in France. Typefaces developed during this period were to influence decisively the typography of the centuries which followed and they continue to influence a great many contemporary typefaces. The papers' common goal is to establish the paternity of the typefaces described and critically to appraise their attributions, many of which have previously been inadequately ascribed. Such an approach will be of interest to type historians and type designers seeking better documented attributions and to historians, philologists and bibliographers whose study of historical imprints will benefit from more accurate type descriptions. The papers and illustrations focus on the most important letter cutters of the French Renaissance including Simon de Colines, Robert Estienne, Claude Garamont, Robert Granjon, Pierre Haultin and also include a number of minor masters of the period. The Bookman's Manual Bessie Graham, 1928 The Fleuron, 1970 French Ceremonial Entries in the Sixteenth Century Hélène Visentin, Nicolas Russell, 2007 The articles in this volume use a variety of disciplinary approaches to examine texts and archival documents recording sixteenth century French ceremonial entries. By their very nature ceremonial entries require such an approach; they bring together a number of artistic media including music, architecture and literature and a range of political concerns like international diplomacy and the relations between urban and royal power. Few cultural constructs offer such rich and varied terrain to the student of sixteenth century France. The primary purpose of this collection is therefore to reflect upon salient aspects of ceremonial entries that may help us to understand how this ritual performed its complex and multidimensional cultural, intellectual, historical and political work in order to cast a new light on French society in the early modern period. Stanley Morison James Moran, 1971 The Writings of Stanley Morison, 1976

Bookman's Manual Bessie Graham, 1928 Private Presses and Their Books Will Ransom, 1929 A history of the private press movement in England and America with detailed check lists of the publications arranged chronologically under the name of the press with index to presses, books and individuals recorded. Decadent Enchantments Katherine Bergeron, 2023-04-28 The oldest written tradition of European music, the art we know as Gregorian chant, is seen from an entirely new perspective in Katherine Bergeron's engaging and literate study. Bergeron traces the history of the Gregorian revival from its Romantic origins in a community of French monks at Solesmes whose founder hoped to rebuild the moral foundation of French culture on the ruins of the Benedictine order. She draws out the parallels between this longing for a lost liturgy and the postrevolutionary quest for lost monuments that fueled the French Gothic revival, a quest that produced the modern concept of restoration. Bergeron follows the technological development of the Gregorian restoration over a seventy year period as it passed from the private performances of a monastic choir into the public commodities of printed books, photographs and Gramophone records. She discusses such issues as architectural restoration, the modern history of typography the uncanny power of the photographic image and the authority of recorded sound She also shows the extent to which different media shaped the modern image of the ancient repertory an image that gave rise to conflicting notions not only of musical performance but of the very idea of music history The oldest written tradition of European music the art we know as Gregorian chant is seen from an entirely new perspective in Katherine Bergeron's engaging and literate study Bergeron traces the history of the Gregorian revival from its Romantic origin Selected Essays on the History of Letter-forms in Manuscript and Print Stanley Morison, 2009 Signature Oliver Simon, 1949 Reader's Adviser and Bookman's Manual, 1928 John Baskerville Caroline Archer-Parré, Malcolm Dick, 2017-10-05 The eighteenth century typographer printer industrialist and Enlightenment figure John Baskerville 1707-75 was an inventor entrepreneur and artist with a worldwide reputation who made eighteenth century Birmingham a city without typographic equal by changing the course of type design This publication explores Baskerville in his social and economic context and evaluates his impact A Bibliographic History of the Book Joseph Rosenblum, 1995 skillfully compiled should be useful to anyone interested in placing his or her studies in the context of printed and bound literature ENGLISH LITERATURE IN TRANSITION 1880-1920
