Flip Side A Fathers Perspective:

Flip Side Byron P. Bailey, 2002-08-14 Flip Side A Father's Perspective is the oft ignored true story of one of the many unheralded divorced or separated fathers who desperately want to do the right thing. This is the rarely told story of a well intentioned father who yearned for a substantial and meaningful role in his children's lives, a role that was repeatedly denied by gender biased systems which empower mothers to exact vindictiveness through victimized children. Follow the author's unrelenting journey as he weaves a truth stranger than fiction tale of fatherhood which encompasses virtually every human experience: imaginable joy, pain, victory, defeat, truth, deceit, strength and powerlessness. Despite the ultimate painful irony experienced by this father, join him as he exemplifies the power of faith. The Flip Side Professor Stuart Christie, 2024-12

Benefiting from recently catalogued archival materials, The Flip Side: Old China Hands and the American Popular Imagination, 1935-1985 evaluates the influence of an ensemble of well known Americans born or bred in China: Pearl S. Buck, Henry R. Luce, Owen Lattimore, and John Hersey, after their return to the United States of America. The children of missionaries and others serving China all contributed in significant ways to the globalisation of the American ideal in the 20th century, even as each sought in different roles as publishers, as novelists, as scholars, to centre Chinese values and concerns in the anglophone public sphere. As Chinese ideas and values met the projection of American soft power and governmentality, a uniquely bilateral global imaginary arose wherein respect for China as an emerging force encountered Western reaction. For these old China hands, the return to the USA resulted in unique and differing sociocultural formations. Buck's intersectional literary populism on behalf of the Chinese people, Henry R. Luce's press internationalism, Lattimore's inner Asian regional imaginaries, and Hersey's China trilogy allegories. All were keen observers of and participants in international networks combining a diversity of China based expertise and resources that continued to inform their everyday work at a great distance. Both public and private, these networks onshore and off enabled and energised their own advocacy that dared to imagine a Chinese future distinct from its colonial or semi feudal past. The Flip Side asserts that these American stakeholders occupied a transitional but crucial role in the rise of China in Western imagination prior to China's assertion of sovereignty over its own global role and message.

ASIAN HIGHLANDS PERSPECTIVES 27 Tsering Bum, 2013-03-27 Tsering Bum, CK Stuart, Ramona Johnson, Solomon Rino, Gerald Roche, Timothy Thurston, and Gabriela Samcewicz eds. 2013. A Northeastern Tibetan Childhood: Asian Highlands Perspectives 27. Tsering Bum b. 1985 describes his early life in Amdo in terms of dreams, herding, punishment from a lama, schooling, experiences attending a Kalachakra teaching, a lhatzi gathering, irrigation, his grandfather's archery, and other important moments and influences. Another incredible production from Kevin Stuart's Tibetan English students, Tsering Bum gives us a series of intricately woven vignettes of his childhood and adolescence in a small Tibetan village in Qinghai Province. A Northeastern Tibetan Childhood takes readers into the social and material culture of Tsering's family and fellow villagers. We begin with a home scene on the heated brick hyitsi bed where the family sleeps, meals are taken and guests are entertained Through Tsering s writing we taste the noodles his mother makes by hand know the life of the herders meet ritualists who communicate with the mountain deity visit a Kalachakra for blessings experience an archery contest that ends in singing and drink swim naked in cold mountain rivers celebrate Losar or Tibetan new year festival visit a nomad festival enter the transformative world of a county primary school and hear the accounts of three deaths The stories take us through a landscape of mountains rivers and grasslands to new worlds that for the narrator end with a kindled sense of global vision and self worth Mark Bender Ohio State University I highly recommend this exciting new work Tsering Bum s account of his life is a quick and pleasant read full of insights into many aspects of contemporary Tibetan culture From village rituals associated with death and archery contests to the challenges of modern schooling in rural areas Tsering Bum leads us quickly through a narrative that links past and present to hopes for the future Tibetan Buddhism and mountain pilgrimage play a limited but significant role in the story As a historian I was most interested in the chapter Grandpa that recounts the poorly documented but well known troubles the Amdo Tibetans faced under the warlord Ma Bufang Gray Tuttle Leila Hadley Luce Assistant Professor of Modern Tibetan Studies Columbia University

Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Puberty and Adolescence Gertraud Diem-Wille,2020-12-30 Puberty is a time of tumultuous transition from childhood to adulthood activated by rapid physical changes hormonal development and explosive activity of neurons This book explores puberty through the parent teenager relationship as a normal state of crisis lasting several years and with the teenager oscillating between childlike tendencies and their desire to become an adult The more parents succeed in recognizing and experiencing these new challenges as an integral ineluctable emotional transformative process the more they can allow their children to become independent In addition parents who can also see this crisis as a chance for their own further development will be ultimately enriched by this painful process They can face up to their own aging as they take leave of youth with its myriad possibilities accepting and working through a newfound rivalry with their sexually mature children thus experiencing a process of maturity which in turn can set an example for their children This book is based on rich clinical observations from international settings unique within the field and there is an emphasis placed by the author on the role of the body in self awareness identity crises and gender construction It will be of great interest to psychoanalysts psychotherapists parents and carers as well as all those interacting with adolescents in self family and society

Clinical and Psychological Perspectives on Foul Play Stephen J. Morewitz,2019-08-02 Clinical and Psychological Perspectives on Foul Play examines a wide range of factors that can influence how police determine foul play in possible homicide cases and in other possible crimes It develops a new theory of uncertainty at micro meso and macro levels to explain how law professionals arrive at this decision Specifically it examines the extent to which uncertainty in these situations can be influenced by media coverage family and community pressures socioeconomic factors demographic elements of victims as well as police knowledge and resources Written for forensic practitioners this book describes how these professionals can consult with law enforcement on such issues as the staging of crime scenes to mask intent the initiation of community strategies to find missing persons and the reliability of behavioral profiles The latest research from the Foul Play Project and the Missing Persons Project are employed to support the recommendations in this book and to point the way toward further research in this area Bad Dads of the Bible

Roland Warren, 2014-01-28 Some of the most noted celebrated and godly men in the Bible made some very big mistakes when it came to raising their children Roland Warren president of the National Fatherhood Initiative calls these errors bad dad mistakes Bad Dads of the Bible examines these mistakes brings them into a contemporary setting and gives today's dads much needed advice on how to avoid them Moreover should a dad unfortunately make some of these mistakes this book will give him practical advice and an easy to follow road map to help him repair his relationships with his children before it's too late This book is unique because it brings to life ancient Biblical narratives and stories and creatively illustrates important fathering principles in a way that is sure to engage today's dads and help them move from inspiration to action This book also addresses a troubling notion that is held by many pastors and Christian fathers a notion that has hampered the church's ability to meet fathers at their point of need There is a shared perspective and misconception that if we can just help men be better Christians they will automatically be better dads In other words the thinking is that good Christian men will equal good Christian fathers This certainly sounds logical But when you examine the lives of so many men whose stories are chronicled in the Bible you quickly detect a disturbing pattern Many of them even men who had deep and abiding hearts for God made some rather serious mistakes as fathers that often negatively impacted generations Therefore if these fathers had problems why wouldn't fathers today Warren believes that this is why God made sure that these bad dad mistakes were front and center consequences and all in so many of the Biblical narratives God truly loves fatherhood and fathers and He wanted these mistakes to be easy to find Yet few fathers really take the time to examine them or have strategies to avoid them Hopefully as dads study the examples of the fatherhood legacies of men like Abraham David and Eli men who loved God deeply they will learn from their mistakes More importantly this book can serve as a clarion call for men to take action now to be the fathers that God designed them to be There is a saying that a wise man learns from his mistakes This is true But the wisest man always learns from the mistakes of others Each chapter includes Reflection Correction and Connection sections at the end to help dads easily apply what they have read as well as a Good Dad Promise to pave the way for future good parenting decisions The Other Side of Eden John Steinbeck, IV, 2010-05 The late son of author John Steinbeck John Steinbeck IV labored under the burden of being the son of a 20th century legend yet persevered to become a respected journalist in his own right Left unfinished by his death this memoir of John Steinbeck IV is reconstructed by his wife of 12 years who interweaves her own memories of life with him Postcolonial and Gender Perspectives in Irish Studies Marisol

Morales Ladrón, 2007 This book represents an attempt to tackle questions related to fragmented and often conflicting ideologies within Irish studies Although a collective outcome with contributions in English and Spanish its unifying concern has been the appliance of postcolonial and gender perspectives to the analysis of Irish literature prose drama and verse and cinema as well as to the aesthetic production of both the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland Along the volume while some authors have chosen to delve into the broad theoretical debate concerning the position of Irish studies within postcolonial and feminist theories others offer detailed examinations of specific literary pieces and authors that fit in this panorama All in all the chapters are wide and diverse enough to trace a spatial and temporal map of the evolution of these paradigms within contemporary Irish studies North and South of the border

Point of View, Perspective, and Focalization Peter Hühn, Wolf Schmid, Jörg Schönert, 2009-05-08 Stories do not actually exist in the fictional or factual world but are constituted structured and endowed with meaning through the process of mediation i e they are represented and transmitted through systems of verbal visual or audio visual signs The terms usually proposed to describe aspects of mediation especially perspective point of view and focalization have yet to bring clarity to this field which is of central importance not only for narratology but also for literary and media studies One crucial problem about mediation concerns the dimensions of its modeling effect particularly the precise status and constellation of the mediating agents i e author narrator or presenter and characters The question is how are the structure and the meaning of the story conditioned by these different positions in relation to the mediated happenings perceived from outside and or inside the storyworld In this volume fourteen articles by international scholars from seven different countries address these problems anew from various angles reviewing the sub categorization of mediation and re specifying its dimensions both in literary texts and other media such as drama and theater film and computer games

The Back Side of the Cross Diane Leclerc, Brent Peterson, 2022-06-29 The cross has always been portrayed as the means of salvation and forgiveness for sinners but does it have anything to say to those who have been sinned against This book shows that the atonement of Christ has powerful potential to speak to those who have been wronged especially those who have been abused and abandoned in countless ways those who cower at the back side of the cross wondering if they are included As victims of various kinds of abuse are beginning to come out of the shadows in cultural conversation and in the context of the church The Back Side of the Cross is a timely book for several audiences It is thoroughly rigorous and will interest theologians and their students it also offers a very practical section for pastors and those who want to care for the wounded and it can even reach survivors themselves as it offers true hope in the urgency of such real pain

Asian Highlands Perspectives 38 Pema Kyi (pad ma skyid ), 2015-11-01 THE WITCHES OF TIBET is a fictionalized account of a Tibetan girl s childhood in Mgo log Golok in Qinghai Province The narrative begins with how a little girl s life was saved by a gift of a mysterious pill from a kind local woman who locals regarded as a witch These and other magic moments are from personal experiences that relatives and others related about their own lives and what the Brazilian economist combining autobiographical reflection and summation of a lifetime's work in developing countries gives his views on the failings of conventional economics to effect positive change in the lives of the poor. Rejects both old-fashioned statist economics and utopian post-economics ideas of social organization. Parental Gatekeeping Sarah J.

The Broken Mosaic Ladislau Dowbor,2005-09 The author a

Schoppe-Sullivan, F. Kübra Aytaç-DiCarlo, 2025-06-13 This pioneering volume reviews theory and research on parental gatekeeping: the extent to which parents support or thwart each other's involvement in parenting. Chapter authors review theories, conceptual models, and measures of gatekeeping and evaluate its consequences for parent-child relationships. Offering a holistic perspective, this book not only explores mothers' gatekeeping of fathers but also considers the potential roles of others, including fathers as gatekeepers. Chapter authors also explore parental gatekeeping processes in at-risk families, including separated and divorced families and those with adolescent and nonresident fathers. This book summarizes the key findings and critical gaps in the gatekeeping literature and suggests important directions for future research. This landmark text will be of interest to all students and scholars who study parenting, child development, and families. It will also serve as a valuable guide to future scholars in the burgeoning field of parenting research. Buenos Aires 2022 - Analytical Psychology Opening to the Changing World: Contemporary Perspectives on Clinical, Scientific, Social, Cultural, and Environmental Issues IAAP, 2023-08-03 The XXII International Congress for Analytical Psychology was held in Buenos Aires, Argentina, and for the first time in South America. It was also the first such congress delivered in hybrid form, bringing together IAAP members from all over the globe in person and on screens. Guests interested in Jungian thinking from various other academic fields were invited and joined in the conversations. The theme of "Opening to the Changing World" was explored as we come out of a pandemic and face the imperative of fast changes to our ways of working and relating to people, living beings, and the planet we inhabit. The Congress offered again ways of exploring themes via a rich programme of pre-congress workshops, masterclasses, plenary and breakout presentations, and posters. The Proceedings are published as two volumes: a printed edition of the plenary presentations and an e-book with the complete material presented at the Congress. To professionals as well as the general public, this collection of papers offers a cross-section and inspiring insight into contemporary Jungian thinking, spanning from classical theories to the latest scientific research. From the Contents: Soul myth and cosmovision in a changing world; Essentials of Analytical Psychology and the descendent path by Margarita Ovalle Vergara; Devouring and asphyxia by Liliana Wahba; Walter Boechat: Some questions raised by the practice of teleanalysis by François Martin; Vallas: COVID-19 Virtual engagement and the psychoid imagination by Joe Cambray; Working online during the contemporary COVID-19 pandemic by John Merchant; The syzygy reformulation and new perspectives: Dreams, anima, animus, androgynous, and gender by Mario Saiz et al; Enforced disappearances and torture today: A view from Analytical Psychology by Maria Giovanna Bianchi; Monica Luci: Dreaming for the world: A Jungian study of dreams during the COVID-19 pandemic by Ronnie Landau; Roger Brooke et al: The archetype of calamity: Reflections at a time of contagion by Mei Fun
