The Subjective Eye Richard Valantasis, Deborah J. Haynes, James D. Smith, Janet F. Carlson, 2006-05-15 One of the great joys of the academic life is to pay homage in a Festschrift to a scholar who has influenced both colleagues and students over years of interaction and friendship both professional and personal This volume honors a scholar and theologian of historical theology a theorist and a practitioner of religion and the arts and a keen analyst of cultural trends both ancient and modern Margaret R Miles's prodigious production as a scholar has legendary qualities Her dozen plus books alone explore history patristics ancient philosophy art and art history spiritual formation and religious practice critical theory film ethics and values personal growth gender and women's studies as well as her true academic loves Augustine and Plotinus The breadth and depth of her own work and her influence upon others demands an expansive volume which the editors of this Festschrift unfortunately had to restrict to four categories Historical Theology Religion and Culture Religion and Gender and Religion and the Visual Arts in order to capture the heart of our appreciation for her from the Introduction Isadora Duncan in the 21st Century Andrea Mantell Seidel, 2015-12-01 Part artistic study part intimate memoir this book illuminates the technique and repertory of American dancer Isadora Duncan 1877 1927 and her enduring legacy from the perspective of an artist and scholar who has reconstructed and performed her work for 35 years Providing an overview of modern activities and trends in the teaching and performance of Duncan's dance the author describes her own work directing The Isadora Duncan Dance Ensemble the company that sought to implement Duncan's mission to create not a school of dance but a school of life Gender in Modernism Bonnie Kime Scott, 2007 Grouped into 21 thematic sections this collection provides theoretical introductions to the primary texts provided by the scholars who have taken the lead in pushing both modernism and gender in different directions It provides an understanding of the complex intersections of gender with an array of social identifications On the Borders of Convention Aleksandra Nikčević Batrićević, 2010-05-11 The research presented in this book is authored by scholars coming from as distant regions as South Africa the United States of America Great Britain France Italy Belarus the Balkans Needless to say that one of the good things about this international cooperation is that owing to their different socio cultural backgrounds these scholars have contributed to producing an extremely varied picture of ways of approaching the challenge of a changing world The papers on literature and culture collected in this book contribute a further element of rigour into the discussion of numerous and always varying and changing borders of convention in a literary text literary genre and literary theory as well as in general culture and everyday paths of life Starting with oral cultures over the classic literary masters modernist and postmodernist textual and theoretical phenomena the twentieth century flouting of numerous social and gender convention through painting film dance contemporary music as well as graffiti We have sought to stress that what is most noticeable from the evidence of their studies is that scholars today concern these issues through a dynamic global process and beyond any preconceived design or any strict set of theoretical prescriptions which would otherwise lead them to ignore the ever shifting borders in literature and culture as well as in global socio cultural reality in general The variety and complexity of these essays offer fresh views to the problem posed in the title of the book Therefore we trust that they will stimulate intellectual confrontation and circulation of ideas within the field of literature and cultural studies
