Leadership in Islam Nezar Faris,Mohamad Abdalla,2017-11-26 This book examines the concept of leadership from within the Islamic worldview exploring its meaning and various manifestations through textual evidence from the two primary sources of Islam The Qur'an and hadith Using this theoretical framework concurrent with contemporary leadership theory the authors scrutinise the distinctive leadership dynamics of Islamic organisations within a minority Muslim context and a focus on Australia Drawing on empirical data gathered over four years the nature of leadership and its processes within this unique context is examined Leadership in Islam reconciles the problematic processes that exist within Muslim organisational context and offers a set of measures and strategies to improve leadership processes including enacting leadership enacting following accommodating complexity sense making and embracing basics as the core processes This book will be beneficial for anyone who seeks to understand the meaning of leadership in Islam the way Islamic organisations operate and the way forward for improving leadership processes within an Australian Western context Piety, Politics, and Everyday Ethics in Southeast Asian Islam Robert Rozehnal, 2018-12-27 This book explores the diversity and dynamism of Islam in Southeast Asia through the concept of adab or beautiful behavior Amid the complexity of Islamic civilization adab provides Muslims with a shared sense of sacred history identity and morality In the context of Islamic ethics adab defines the rules of personal and public etiquette good manners proper conduct civility and humaneness Featuring the interdisciplinary research of nine prominent scholars of Islam the book offers new perspectives on adab s multiple meanings and myriad applications for Muslim communities in Malaysia and Indonesia The chapters examine a wide range of texts spotlighting the writings of prominent Muslim thinkers and contexts focusing on the everyday experiences of lay Muslims Drawing on a variety of theoretical and methodological lenses the essays reveal how beautiful behavior impacts local institutions cultural practices and religious imaginations via politics and law spirituality and piety ethics and experience With its careful textual analysis detailed case studies and attention to historical continuities and disjunctures Piety Politics and Everyday Ethics in Southeast Asian Islam is essential reading for students and scholars interested in global Islam and the lived local dynamics of Muslim Southeast Asia Traditional Islamic Ethics: The Concept of Virtue and its Implications for Contemporary Human Rights Irfaan Jaffer, 2021-09-07 Traditional Islamic Ethics The Concept of Virtue and its Implications for Human Rights concentrates on the subject of Islam and modernity and Islam and human rights a topic that has become popular and relevant with the rise of globalization and the interest in Islamic extremism and human rights This book distinguishes itself by operating within the framework of the traditional school of thought or Islamic Traditionalism In doing so it draws on Islam s 1400 year old spiritual and intellectual tradition and its understanding of ethics and virtue along with truth justice freedom and equality This book argues that Islam s pre modern approach is indispensable in creating an organic and integral human rights model for Muslims The first section argues that the current understanding and implementation of international human rights needs to be more flexible and inclusive if it truly aims to be universal in scope this is because The Universal Declaration and its offshoots are still underpinned by secular liberal principles and therefore are at odds with other cultural traditions To this end this section critically explores popular human rights histories and contemporary ethical theories that attempt to justify human rights The second section of this book provides a general overview on the subject of Islam and Human Rights After explaining some of the main problems this section examines various solutions offered by Muslim academics and scholars focusing on four different types of Muslim responses to modernity and human rights liberal progressive traditional and fundamentalist It concludes that there are spaces of convergence between modern liberal ethics and traditional Islamic virtue ethics while maintaining that there are also fundamental differences and that these differences should be welcomed by human rights theorists and advocates The book s intended audience is primarily post graduate students and professional academics in the fields of Human Rights Ethical Philosophy and Islamic Studies modern Islamic thought Sufism Islamic theology Islamic Philosophy and Traditionalism It will also appeal to anyone interested in the subject of Islam and modernity in general and Islam and human rights in particular

Biblical Figures in the Islamic Faith Stephen J. Vicchio, 2008-07-01 Vicchio believes that by understanding how much Muslim tradition overlaps with the biblical traditions of Judaism and Christianity we might begin to expose a wedge of common ground on which understanding and respect might begin to be built Vicchio begins with a brief introduction sketching some fundamentals of Muslim history and culture and clearing away some common misconceptions His main goal however is to give us a detailed look at the treatment of biblical figures in the literature of Islam The broad range of his research and presentation is startling He begins with the Qur an but continues on to the collected writing of the roughly two hundred years after Mohammed Hadith Sunnah Akhbar that came to be regarded as authoritative in the various traditions that developed in early Islam He then traces the interest in these biblical figures on into modern treatments of the role of these figures in Muslim scholarship and how these figures are understood and used in the traditions of Islam yet today The result of Vicchio s scholarship and presentation will be a revelation to most Christian and Jewish readers It has become somewhat commonplace to refer to Judaism Christianity and Islam as the three Abrahamic faiths This shows a beginning awareness of the beginnings of each of these three great religions birthed in the Middle East in a common ancestor Abraham Ibrahim Abraham s faithfulness and his closeness to God make him a revered figure in each of these three great faiths and for each Abraham is a beginning of the story of the particular relationship between God and the people of each of these religions from the Foreword

Improving the Pedagogy of Islamic Religious Education in Secondary Schools Ayse Demirel Ucan, 2019-09-04 This timely book focusses on the central issues and questions which emerge in relation to the teaching and learning of Islam in confessional and constructivist religious education Considering the consequences of a lack of diversity in the Islamic Religious Education curriculum the text also explores the challenges faced by Muslim pupils in connection with secularism and radical Islam Through rich analysis of research carried out across Muslim and public secondary schools in the UK this book develops a meaningful pedagogy of Islamic Religious Education In particular the volume investigates the benefits of Critical Religious Education and Variation Theory frameworks on student learning in Religious Education classrooms and illustrates how these didactic frameworks can help to ameliorate distinct problems seen across Islamic Religious Education Chapters identify discrete pedagogical issues that arise in the confessional and constructivist approaches to Islamic Education such as students difficulties in relating to concept of Islam and progressive approaches taken in public schools In addressing these the text proposes a new theoretical and pedagogical approach to the teaching of Islam which draws on the philosophy of Critical Realism the theories of Critical Religious Education and Variation Theory This book will be of great interest to postgraduate students researcher scholars and academics in the fields of religion and education and Islamic studies In addition it will be of interest to social equity professionals and public policy decision makers
