Children of Paradise Laura Secor,2016-02-02 The drama that shaped today s Iran from the Revolution to the present day In 1979 seemingly overnight moving at a clip some thirty years faster than the rest of the world Iran became the first revolutionary theocracy in modern times Since then the country has been largely a black box to the West a sinister presence looming over the horizon But inside Iran a breathtaking drama has unfolded since then as religious thinkers political operatives poets journalists and activists have imagined and reimagined what Iran should be They have drawn as deeply on the traditions of the West as of the East and have acted upon their beliefs with urgency and passion frequently staking their lives for them With more than a decade of experience reporting on researching and writing about Iran Laura Secor narrates this unprecedented history as a story of individuals caught up in the slipstream of their time seizing and wielding ideas powerful enough to shift its course as they wrestle with their country s apparatus of violent repression as well as its rich and often tragic history Essential reading

Shi'i Sectarianism in the Middle East Elisheva Machlis, 2014-09-17 The eruption of violent sectarianism in Iraq following the US invasion in 2003 brought the question of Sunni Shi'i relations in the country to the forefront of the international public agenda It also strengthened the popular belief that contemporary Shi'ism is inherently sectarian Yet several decades earlier Ayatollah Khomeini had declared an Islamic revolution and downplayed its Shi'i origins and links So what is the true orientation of Shi'i Islam in the contemporary era and how did modernisation alter its sectarian affiliation This book contends that early Shi'i reformist thought set the foundations for a more universal oriented Shi'ism Prominent reformists in the first half of the twentieth century from the holy cities of Karbala and Najaf in Iraq and from the Shi'i centres in Southern Lebanon played a significant role in the renewal of Shi'ism and laid the groundwork for its reinvention in the modern era Exploring this shift towards a more ecumenical perception of Islam Elisheva Machlis here provides a fresh perspective on inter sectarian relations in contemporary Iraq and illuminates the intellectual roots of the Islamic revolution by examining networks of Shi'i scholars such as Muhammad usayn Khashif al-Ghi and Muhammad sin al-Amn al-mil operating within a more globalised Muslim world Drawing on the experiences of early Shi'i reformists such as Abd al-usayn Sharaf al-Din al-M saw in Lebanon and Muhammad jawid Mughniyya in Damascus this book gives new insight on the future of inter Muslim relations at a time of growing inter sectarian contention from the Iran Iraq war to the post 2003 Sunni Shi'i conflict in Iraq and al-Qa'ida's anti Shi'i message taking into account questions of theology historiography jurisprudence and politics which all played a vital role in the transition to the contemporary era The author here analyses the broad scholarly connections between Iran Iraq and Lebanon in the twentieth century while debating paramount questions of leadership identity and group membership in the development of modern Shi'ism Examining the relationship between intellectual thought and socio political development in the region this book provides a new perspective concerning the future of an increasingly globalised Muslim world and will prove essential reading for students and specialists
