Governance of Islam in Pakistan Sarah Holz, 2022-10-15 Modern states increasingly seek to regulate religious expression practice and discourse This is profoundly evident at many levels of Islamic policy interaction from debates about the banning of the Muslim face veil in Europe to civic re education programmes for Muslim citizens in China Governance of Islam in Pakistan provides a systematic account of how interactions between multiple public and private bodies direct the regulation and standardisation of Islam in one of the largest Muslim majority states in the world Analysis centres on the institutional development of the Council of Islamic Ideology a constitutional body tasked with issuing advice to the executive and legislature about the compatibility of laws with Islamic principles Based on archival material that has been subject to little scholarly attention and interviews with Council members and staff of other state bodies Sarah Holz proposes governance as an analytical framework to study the negotiation of religious expression practice and discourse In contrast to the established Islamisation narrative which generally labels such religious institutions as mere rubberstamps in the process of policy making the study of governance offers an alternative approach that enables examination of the dynamic competition and cooperation among multiple actors Through collective interaction the Council and other relevant bodies are active players in the governance of Islam Insights gained from analysis of the ideational structural and functional evolution of the Council offers a Global South perspective on liberal democratic ideas about the functionality of the modern state and its institutional structure Issues of economic cultural and local international political influence bear strongly in governance analysis Engagement with the governance policy tool has applicability across the social sciences but is particularly relevant for South Asian Near and Middle East Studies

Islam in Pakistan Muhammad Qasim Zaman,2018-05 The first book to explore the modern history of Islam in South Asia The first modern state to be founded in the name of Islam Pakistan was the largest Muslim country in the world at the time of its establishment in 1947 Today it is the second most populous after Indonesia Islam in Pakistan is the first comprehensive book to explore Islam s evolution in this region over the past century and a half from the British colonial era to the present day Muhammad Qasim Zaman presents a rich historical account of this major Muslim nation insights into the rise and gradual decline of Islamic modernist thought in the South Asian region and an understanding of how Islam has fared in the contemporary world Much attention has been given to Pakistan s role in sustaining the Afghan struggle against the Soviet occupation in the 1980s in the growth of the Taliban in the 1990s and in the War on Terror after 9 11 But as Zaman shows the nation s significance in matters relating to Islam has much deeper roots Since the late nineteenth century South Asia has witnessed important initiatives toward rethinking core Islamic texts and traditions in the interest of their compatibility with the imperatives of modern life Traditionalist scholars and their institutions too have had a prominent presence in the region as have Islamism and Sufism Pakistan did not merely inherit these and other aspects of Islam Rather it has been and remains a site of intense contestation over Islam s public place meaning and interpretation Examining how facets of Islam have been pivotal in Pakistani history Islam in Pakistan offers sweeping perspectives on what constitutes an Islamic state

Making Sense of Pakistan Farzana Shaikh,2018-10-15 Pakistan s transformation from supposed model of Muslim enlightenment to a state now threatened by an Islamist takeover has been remarkable Many account for the change by pointing to Pakistan s controversial partnership with the United States since 9 11 others see it as a consequence of Pakistan s long history of authoritarian rule which has marginalized liberal opinion and allowed the rise of a religious right Farzana Shaikh argues the country's decline is rooted primarily in uncertainty about the meaning of Pakistan and the significance of being Pakistani This has pre-empted a consensus on the role of Islam in the public sphere and encouraged the spread of political Islam It has also widened the gap between personal piety and public morality corrupting the country's economic foundations and tearing apart its social fabric More ominously still it has given rise to a new and dangerous symbiosis between the country's powerful armed forces and Muslim extremists Shaikh demonstrates how the ideology that constrained Indo-Muslim politics in the years leading to Partition in 1947 has left its mark skillfully deploying insights from history to better understand Pakistan's troubled present The 'Ulama in Contemporary Pakistan Mashal Saif, 2020-10-22 Explores how contemporary clerics engage with the historically first and currently most populated Islamic nation state Pakistan The book weaves ethnography with textual analysis to provide insights into some of the country's most significant issues and offers a theoretical framework for assessing state-ulama relations across the Muslim world Pakistan - Social and Cultural Transformations in a Muslim Nation Mohammad

Qadeer, 2006-11-22 This is the first English language survey of Pakistan's socio-economic evolution Mohammad Qadeer gives an essential overview of social and cultural transformation in Pakistan since independence which is crucial to understanding Pakistan's likely future direction Pakistan examines how tradition and family life continue to contribute long-term stability and explores the areas where very rapid changes are taking place large population increase urbanization economic development and the nature of civil society and the state It offers an insightful view into Pakistan exploring the wide range of ethnic groups the countryside religion and community and popular culture and national identity It concludes by discussing the likely future social development in Pakistan captivating students and academics interested in Pakistan and multiculturalism Qadeer's impressive work is a comprehensive examination of social and cultural forces in Pakistani society and is an important resource for anyone wanting to understand contemporary Pakistan Pakistan and the Geostrategic

Environment H. Rizvi, 1993-01-15 A study of Pakistan's foreign policy with an emphasis on geostrategic environment undertakes a critical review of Pakistan's interaction at the bilateral regional and international levels Focusing mainly on the period from 1972 to the present the book examines Pakistan's troubled relations with India interaction with the smaller states of South Asia and the Muslim world Pakistan's relations with the U.S. the Soviet Union and China including the impact of the nuclear issue and the Afghanistan crisis on the Pakistan-U.S. ties get a detailed treatment The Politics of Ethnicity in Pakistan Farhan Hanif Siddiqi, 2012-05-04 In order to understand the Pakistani state and government's treatment of non-dominant ethnic groups after the failure of the military operation in East Pakistan and the independence of Bangladesh this book looks at the ethnic movements that were subject to a military operation after 1971 the Baloch in the 1970s the Sindhis in the 1980s and Mohajirs in the 1990s The book critically evaluates the literature on ethnicity and nationalism by taking nationalist ideology and the political divisions which it generates within ethnic groups as essential in estimating ethnic movements It goes on to challenge the modernist argument that nationalism is only relevant to modern industrialised socio economic settings The available evidence from Pakistan makes clear that ethnic movements emanate from three distinct socio economic realms tribal Baloch rural Sindh and urban Mohajir and the book looks at the implications that this has as well as how further arguments could be advanced about the relevance of ethnic movements and politics in the Third World It provides academics and researchers with background knowledge of how the Baloch Sindhi and Mohajir ethnic conflict in Pakistan took shape in a historical context as well as probable future scenarios of the relationship between the Pakistani state and government and ethnic groups and movements Islam and Pakistan's Political Culture Farhan Mujahid Chak,2014-09-04 This book explores the ideological rivalry which is fuelling political instability in Muslim polities discussing this in relation to Pakistan It argues that the principal dilemma for Muslim polities is how to reconcile modernity and tradition It discusses existing scholarship on the subject outlines how Muslim political thought and political culture have developed over time and then relates all this to Pakistan s political evolution present political culture and growing instability The book concludes that traditionalist and secularist approaches to reconciling modernity and tradition have not succeeded and have in fact led to instability and that a revivalist approach is more likely to be successful The Concept of an Islamic State in Pakistan Ishtiaq Ahmed,1991 Asian Islam in the 21st Century John L. Islam and Sectarian Violence in Pakistan Eamon Murphy, 2018-10-23 This book analyses the growth of sectarian based terrorist violence in Pakistan one of the Muslim majority states most affected by sectarian violence ever since it was established in 1947 Sectarian violence among Muslims has emerged as a major global security problem in recent years The author argues that the upsurge in sectarian violence in Pakistan particularly since the late 1970s has had less to do with theological differences between the various sects of Islam but is a consequence of the specific political social economic demographic and cultural changes that have taken place in Pakistan since it was established as an independent state A major theme of the book is the increasing violence extent and expressions of sectarian conflict which have emerged as new forms of sectarian terrorism The volume provides an in depth empirical case study which addresses some major theoretical questions raised by Critical Terrorism Studies researchers in respect of the links between religion and sectarian terrorism in Pakistan and more widely This book will be of much interest to students of critical terrorism studies Asian politics and history religious studies and International Relations in general
