Issues Of Access Quality Student Development And Public Policy:

Assessment in Higher Education Samuel J. Messick, 2013-12-16 Assessment in Higher Education brings together in one place most of the major issues confronting higher education in the 1990s These include enhancing student access development and success in higher education transforming admissions testing to meet expanding educational needs resolving the politics of accountability by assessing quality outcomes of higher education assuring fair assessment responsive to human diversity and facing the technological future of higher education An integrative thread that weaves through all of these issues is the concept of equity especially as it bears on social justice in education and on fairness in assessment Another integrative thread is the role of computer and multimedia technology not only in improving the efficiency and power of all the functions of higher education assessment but also in revolutionizing the delivery of higher education itself

Critical Issues for Student Affairs Arthur Sandeen, Margaret J. Barr, 2014-03-14 Student affairs is now part of the management and administrative structure of almost every college and university in the United States Professional staff working under the banner of student affairs are engaged in a wide variety of educational support and service functions Measured by almost any standard today's student affairs profession has never been stronger There are still however a number of critical issues that must be debated and discussed if the student affairs profession is to move forward in the years ahead Critical Issues for Student Affairs identifies the most vital issues currently confronting the student affairs profession Each chapter in this important volume focuses on a specific issue and presents a background a summary of related research and writing an examination of the issue related references and a list of suggestions for further discussion

Assessment in Higher Education Samuel Messick, 1999 Assessment in Higher Education brings together in one place most of the major issues confronting higher education in the 1990s These include enhancing student access development and success in higher education transforming admissions testing to meet expanding educational needs resolving the politics of accountability by assessing quality outcomes of higher education assuring fair assessment responsive to human diversity and facing the technological future of higher education An integrative thread that weaves through all of these issues is the concept of equity especially as it bears on social justice in education and on fairness in assessment Another integrative thread is the role of computer and multimedia technology not only in improving the efficiency and power of all the functions of higher education assessment but also in revolutionizing the delivery of higher education itself
