Kalifs War:

Empire and Jihad Neil Faulkner, 2021-08-24 A panoramic provocative account of the clash between British imperialism and Arab jihadism in Africa between 1870 and 1920 The Ottoman Sultan called for a Great Jihad against the Entente powers at the start of the First World War He was building on half a century of conflict between British colonialism and the people of the Middle East and North Africa Resistance to Western violence increasingly took the form of radical Islamic insurgency Ranging from the forests of Central Africa to the deserts of Egypt Sudan and Somaliland Neil Faulkner explores a fatal collision between two forms of oppression one rooted in the ancient slave trade the other in modern coolie capitalism He reveals the complex interactions between anti slavery humanitarianism British hostility to embryonic Arab nationalism war on terror moral panics and Islamist revolt Far from being an enduring remnant of the medieval past or an essential expression of Muslim identity Faulkner argues that Holy War was a reactionary response to the violence of modern imperialism

The Punic Wars R. Bosworth Smith, 2018-04-13 Hardly had Pyrrhus turned his back for the last time on Italy when the first note of war between the Romans and the Carthaginians who had so recently formed an alliance against him was sounded It came as was to be expected from that fair island which by its position seemed to belong half to Europe half to Africa and from that point in it which lay actually within sight of Rhegium the town which was as yet the farthest outpost of the Roman alliance For more than a century past Greeks and Carthaginians had been contending with varying success for the possession of the island Few towns of any importance within its limits had escaped destruction fewer still had escaped a siege and many had been taken and retaken almost as many times as there had been campaigns On the whole in spite of the efforts of able leaders like Dionysius the Tyrant Timoleon and Agathocles fortune had favoured the Carthaginians and the power of Syracuse the head of the Greek states was now confined to the southeastern corner of the island

The Nile Sir Ernest Alfred Wallis Budge, 1910 The March of the Barbarians Harold Lamb, 2022-05-12T00:00:00Z An account of four generations of Mongol leaders from Genghis Khan through his sons grandsons and great grandsons The book is arranged into a series of narratives which are grouped dynastically and chronologically covering the span of the Thirteenth Century and dealing with the process by which the Mongols came to dominate Central Asia and spread outwards to come into contact with Europe the Indian sub continent and China

The Wars of the Nineties Andrew Hilliard Atteridge, 1899 Khartoum Campaign, 1898; or the Re-Conquest of the Soudan Bennet Burleigh, 2019-12-04 In Khartoum Campaign 1898 or the Re Conquest of the Soudan Bennet Burleigh captures the tumultuous events surrounding the British military expedition to reclaim Sudan from Mahdist forces Written in the late 19th century Burleigh s narrative adopts a journalistic style infused with gripping firsthand accounts vividly depicting the harsh realities of war and the fervor of imperial ambition The book serves as both an eyewitness chronicle and a historical analysis interweaving personal anecdotes with a broader commentary on British colonial policy thus offering invaluable insight into the complexities of the Soudan campaign Bennet Burleigh was a prominent war correspondent and writer whose extensive experience in reporting from various conflict zones profoundly informs his work Born in 1854 he became renowned for his ability to convey the drama of military engagements and his experiences in Africa provided him with a unique perspective on the socio political landscape of the time This context streamlines his motivations for writing this book as he sought to document not only the battles fought but also the cultural implications of colonialism I highly recommend Khartoum Campaign 1898 to readers interested in military history imperial studies and the craft of journalism Burleigh s detailed and engaging prose enables readers to experience the excitement and chaos of the campaign while also fostering a critical understanding of its historical ramifications This work is essential for anyone keen on exploring the intricacies of British imperialism in the late 19th century History of Freedom Movement in India VOL 1 TARA CHAND, The book deals with the social political cultural and economic conditions of India in the eighteenth century against the backdrop of the historical processes that had in earlier times shaped the life and history of Indian people Khartoum Campaign, 1898 Bennet Burleigh,1899 The Modern Review Ramananda Chatterjee,1923 Includes section Reviews and notices of books Terrorism And Justice Michael O'Keefe,Tony Coady,2013-05-09 The terrorist attacks on the United States on 11 September 2001 profoundly shocked the international community Policy makers are increasingly aware of the inadequacy of existing intellectual moral and legal frameworks for dealing with such events Terrorism and Justice is the first book since September 11 to address philosophically the moral and political underpinnings of terrorism and anti terrorism It brings together authors with different attitudes and original perspectives on the ethical and practical justifications offered for terrorism and different conceptual frameworks for assessing and justifying responses to terrorism Some defend the principle that non combatants innocents or civilians should be immune from attack others qualify it others again argue that traditional distinctions between combatants and non combatants do not apply in the case of terrorism Can terrorism ever be justified If not what are the grounds for condemning it Is your terrorist my freedom fighter What are the morally appropriate responses to terrorism diplomatically militarily and ethically These are some of the questions this timely book seeks to explore Khartoum Campaign 1898, Or, The Re-conquest of the Soudan Bennet Burleigh,1899 Khartoum Campaign 1898 A Good Dusting Henry Keown-Boyd,1986-11-24 This book is about the Sudan Campaigns fought during the last two decades of the nineteenth century This book covers the complete saga from 1883 1899 Fire and Sword in the Sudan Rudolf Carl Slatin,Rudolf Carl Freiherr von Slatin,1896 Fire and Sword in the Sudan Rudolf Carl Freiherr von Slatin,1903 Fire and Sword in the Sudan : a Personal Narrative of Fighting and Serving the Dervishes, 1879-1895 Rudolf Carl Slatin Pasha,1896 Fire and Sword in the Sudan Rudolf Carl Slatin Pasha,1895 Fire and Sword In The Sudan Rudolf Carl Freiherr von Slatin,2023-10-01 Embark on a riveting journey through the tumultuous history of Sudan with Fire and Sword in the Sudan by Rudolf Carl Freiherr von Slatin a gripping firsthand account of one man s harrowing experiences in the midst of war

Dividing the spoils Henrietta Lidchi, Stuart Allan, 2020-09-29 At a time of heightened international interest in the colonial dimensions of museum collections Dividing the Spoils provides new perspectives on the motivations and circumstances whereby collections were appropriated and acquired during colonial military service Combining approaches from the fields of material anthropology imperial and military history this book argues for a deeper examination of these collections within a range of intercultural histories that include alliance diplomacy curiosity and enquiry as well as expropriation and cultural hegemony As museums across Europe reckon with the post colonial legacies of their collections Dividing the Spoils explores how the amassing of objects was understood and governed in British military culture and considers how objects functioned in museum collections thereafter suggesting new avenues for sustained investigation in a controversial contested field Fire and Sword in the Sudan Rudolf Carl von Slatin,1922 Fire and Sword in the

Sudan: A Personal Narrative of Fighting and Serving the Dervishes 1879-1895 Freiherr von Rudolf Carl Slatin,1913-01-01 The joy at meeting my dear friend and former comrade in captivity Slatin Pasha in Cairo after his miraculous escape was indeed great and it is with extreme gratification that I comply with the wishes of those friends who are interested in his experiences to preface them with a few remarks To have been a fellow sufferer with him for many years during which the closest friendship existed between us a friendship which owing to the circumstances of our captivity was necessarily of a surreptitious nature but which interrupted as it was mutually helped to alleviate our sad lot is I think a sufficiently good reason for my friends to urge that I should comply with their wishes Apart however from these purely personal motives I need only refer to the fact that the small scraps of information which from time to time reached the outside world regarding Slatin Pasha excited the deepest sympathy for his sad fate what wonder then that there should have been a genuine outburst of rejoicing when he at length escaped from the clutches of the tyrannical Khalifa and emerged safely from the dark Sudan It is most natural that all those interested in the weal and woe of Africa should await with deep interest all that Slatin Pasha can tell them of affairs in the former Egyptian Sudan which only a few short years ago was considered the starting point for the civilisation of the Dark Continent and which now fallen alas under the despotic rule of a barbarous tyrant forms the chief impediment to the civilising influences so vigorously at work in all other parts of Africa Slatin Pasha pleads with perfect justice that deprived all these years of intellectual intercourse he cannot do justice to the subject nevertheless I consider that it is his bounden duty to describe without delay his strange experiences and I do not doubt that whatever literary defects there may be in his work the story of his life cannot fail to be both of interest and of value in helping those concerned in the future of this vast country to realise accurately its present situation It should be remembered that Slatin Pasha held high posts in the Sudan he has travelled throughout the length and breadth of the country and a perfect master of the language he has had opportunities which few others have had to accurately describe affairs such as they were in the last days of the Egyptian Administration whilst his experiences during his cruel captivity place him in a perfectly unique position as the highest authority on the rise progress and wane of that great religious movement which wrenched the country from its conquerors and dragged it back into an almost indescribable condition of religious and moral decadence Thrown into contact with the principal leaders of the revolt unwillingly forced to appear and live as one of them he has been in the position of following in the closest manner every step taken by the Mahdi and his successor the Khalifa in the administration of their newly founded empire Sad fate it is true threw me also into the swirl of this great movement but I was merely a captive missionary whose very existence was almost forgotten by the rulers of the country whilst Slatin Pasha was in the vortex itself of this mighty whirlpool which swamped one by one the Egyptian garrisons and spread far and wide over the entire Sudan
