Kansas City An Evocation:

Kansas City Conger Beasley, 1999      Fabricating Lives Herbert Leibowitz, 2013-04-03 How does the autobiographer want us to perceive him How do we penetrate the memoirist s strategies and subterfuges sometimes conscious usually brilliant and discover the real person screened behind them In this fresh and provocative approach to the reading of autobiography Herbert Leibowitz explores the self portraits of eight Americans whose lives span almost two centuries and encompass a stunning range of personality and circumstances Benjamin Franklin Louis Sullivan Jane Addams Emma Goldman Gertrude Stein William Carlos Williams Richard Wright and Edward Dahlberg In pursuit of clues to both the human essence and the literary artifice of each he examines their styles Franklin s plain talk and possum s wit Sullivan s gilded abstractions Stein s gossipy ventriloquism Williams s grumpy clowning and foxy innocence their metaphors and their choices of incident looking beyond their visions of themselves to their true identities In American autobiography particularly Leibowitz finds an extraordinary medley of voices from the balanced objectivity of Addams and the heated oratory of Goldman as each encounters the promises and failures of the democratic ideal to the uneasy self consciousness of Wright reflecting the tensions of growing up in a world he did not trust and the baroque contrivances of Dahlberg who painted himself in mythic proportions on the American canvas As he guides us through the labyrinths and mazes of these self histories Leibowitz relates the material to a wide cross section of the American experience and helps to interpret our history His engrossing and highly original book is both a contribution to biographical criticism and a vivid recapturing of some remarkable American lives      Encyclopedia of the American Novel Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition no other reference work on American fiction brings together such an array of authors and texts as this      The Great Depression on Film David Lührssen, 2022-08-23 This book presents the Great Depression through the lens of 13 films beginning with movies made during the Depression and ending with films from the 21st century and encourages readers to examine the various depictions of this period throughout history The Great Depression on Film is a unique guide to how the Great Depression was represented and is remembered making it an excellent resource for students or anyone interested in film history or U S history Each film is set in a different sector of American life focusing on such topics as white supremacy political protest segregation environmental degradation crime religion the class system and popular culture in the U S during the 1930s This book is indispensable for clearing away misconceptions fostered by the movies while acknowledging the power of film in shaping public memory The book separates fact from fiction detailing where the movies are accurate and where they depart from reality and places them in the larger context of historical and social events Eyewitness or journalistic accounts are referenced and quoted in the text to help readers differentiate between ideas attitudes and events presented in the films as well as the historical facts which inspired those films      The Cinema of Robert Altman Robert Niemi, 2016-03-01 In a controversial and tumultuous filmmaking career that spanned nearly fifty years Robert Altman mocked subverted or otherwise refashioned Hollywood narrative and genre conventions Altman's idiosyncratic vision and propensity for formal experimentation resulted in an uneven body of work some rank failures and intriguing near misses as well as a number of great films that are among the most influential works of New American Cinema While Altman always professed to have nothing authoritative to say about the state of contemporary society this volume surveys all of his major films in their sociohistorical context to reposition the director as a trenchant satirist and social critic of postmodern America depicted as a lonely wasteland of fraudulent spectacle exploitative social relations and unfulfilled solitaries in search of elusive community

What's the Matter with Kansas? Thomas Frank, 2007-04-01 One of our most insightful social observers cracks the great political mystery of our time how conservatism once a marker of class privilege became the creed of millions of ordinary Americans With his acclaimed wit and acuity Thomas Frank turns his eye on what he calls the thirty year backlash the populist revolt against a supposedly liberal establishment The high point of that backlash is the Republican Party's success in building the most unnatural of alliances between blue collar Midwesterners and Wall Street business interests workers and bosses populists and right wingers In asking what's the matter with Kansas how a place famous for its radicalism became one of the most conservative states in the union Frank a native Kansan and onetime Republican seeks to answer some broader American riddles Why do so many of us vote against our economic interests Where's the outrage at corporate manipulators And whatever happened to middle American progressivism The questions are urgent as well as provocative Frank answers them by examining pop conservatism the bestsellers the radio talk shows the vicious political combat and showing how our long culture wars have left us with an electorate far more concerned with their leaders values and down home qualities than with their stands on hard questions of policy A brilliant analysis and funny to boot What s the Matter with Kansas presents a critical assessment of who we are while telling a remarkable story of how a group of frat boys lawyers and CEOs came to convince a nation that they spoke on behalf of the People Los Angeles Times
