Floods Of Fear:

Flood Planning Jeroen Warner, 2011-02-28 Floods are amongst the most common and devastating natural disasters In the wake of such an event the pressure to initiate flood protection schemes that will provide security is enormous and politicians promise quick solutions in the national interest Jeroen Warner examines a number of such projects from around the world the Middle East South Asia and Western Europe aimed at the prevention of serious flooding Each provoked a level of controversy unforeseen by its initiators with the result that schemes were shelved were not completed or simply failed The author shows how such projects inevitably become politicized as different stakeholders seek to promote their interests

Charles Crichton Quentin Falk, 2021-06-29 Charles Crichton is perhaps best remembered as the director of the unlikely blockbuster hit A Fish Called Wanda made when he was seventy seven years old But the most significant part of his career was spent at Ealing Studios in the 1940s and 1950s working on such beloved comedies as Hue and Cry The Lavender Hill Mob and The Titfield Thunderbolt Nonetheless as this pioneering study of Crichton s work reveals his filmmaking skills extended way beyond comedy to wartime dramas and film noir and his adaptability served him well when he made the transition into primetime television working on popular shows such as The Avengers Space 1999 and The Adventures of Black Beauty Featuring first hand testimony from colleagues ranging from Dame Judi Dench and Petula Clark to John Cleese and Sir Michael Palin this riveting account of Crichton s fascinating life in film will appeal to film scholars and general readers alike
