Flowers From A Puritans Garden:

Flowers from a Puritan's Garden Charles Spurgeon, 2021-11      Flowers from a Puritan's Garden Charles H. Spurgeon, 2014-12-30 While commenting upon the One Hundred and Nineteenth Psalm I was brought into most intimate communion with Thomas Manton who has discoursed upon that marvelous portion of Scripture with great fullness and power His works occupy twenty two volumes in the modern reprint a mighty mountain of sound theology They mostly consist of sermons but what sermons There is not a poor discourse in the whole collection he is constantly excellent Ministers who do not know Manton need not wonder if they are themselves unknown Here then is a man whose figures will be sure to be usable by the earnest preacher who has forsworn the baubles of rhetoric and aims at nothing but the benefit of his hearers I thought it worth while to go through volume after volume and mark the metaphors and then I resolved to complete the task by culling all the best figures out of the whole of Manton's works Thus my clearing his house of all his pictures and hanging them up in new frames of my own I do not rob him but I bless him by giving him another opportunity of speaking To make this little book more generally acceptable I have thrown it into a somewhat devotional form using Manton's figures as texts for brief meditations this I humbly hope may be found profitable for reading in the chamber of private worship The latter half of the work was composed in the gardens and olive groves of Mentone where I found it a pleasure to muse and compose How I wish that I could have flooded my sentences with the sunlight of that charming region As it is I have done my best to avoid dullness and to aim at edification If a single practical truth is the more clearly seen through my endeavors I shall be grateful and doubly so if others are helped to make their teaching more striking Highly shall we be favored if the gracious Master shall accept our service and grant us the consciousness of that acceptance happier still if we may hope to hear him say Well done good and faithful servant That all my readers may meet with so great a blessing is the earnest prayer of their grateful servant C H Spurgeon Westwood January 1883      Illustrations and meditations: or, Flowers from a puritan's [T.

C. H. Spurgeon,2015-07-03 Excerpt from Illustrations and Meditations Or Flowers From a Puritan s Garden While commenting upon the One Hundred and Nineteenth Psalm I was brought into most intimate communion with Thomas Manton who has discoursed upon that marvellous portion of Scripture with great fulness and power I have come to know him so well that I could choose him out from among a thousand divines if he were again to put on his portly form and display among modern men that countenance wherein was a great mixture of majesty and meekness His works occupy twenty two volumes in the modern reprint a mighty mountain of sound theology They mostly consist of sermons but what sermons They are not so sparkling as those of Henry Smith nor so profound as those of Owen nor so rhetorical as those of Howe nor so pithy as those of Watson nor so fascinating as those of Brooks and yet they are second to none of these For solid sensible instruction forcibly delivered they cannot be surpassed Manton is not brilliant but he is always clear he is not oratorical but he is powerful he is not striking but he is deep There is not a poor discourse in the whole collection he is evenly good constantly excellent Ministers who do not know Manton need not wonder if they are themselves unknown About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com
