Islam In A Globalizing World:

Islam in a Globalizing World Thomas W. Simons, 2003 A former U S ambassador and author of The End of the Cold War takes readers on a tour of Islamic history reconstructing the complex historical and geopolitical trends that have created modern Islam

Simultaneous Islam Islam, Globalization and Postmodernity Akbar S. Ahmed, Hastings Donnan, 2003-09-02 This book examines the cultural responses of Muslims to the transformations contradictions and challenges confronting contemporary Islam as it moves towards the twenty first century The diffusion of populations the globalization of culture and the forces of postmodernity have shaken the world like never before These developments have generated a debate among Muslims which as the contributors to this volume show will have far reaching consequences not just for the Muslim world but for relations between Islam and the West more generally

Muslim Citizens of the Globalized World Robert Hunt, Yuksel Aslandogan, 2007-12-01 Exploring the response and contributions of Muslims and Turkish Muslims to globalization including areas such as democratization scientific revolution changing gender roles and religious diversity this study identifies the common values and visions of peace Muslims share This study places specific analysis on the Glen movement a growing approach to the reunification of faith and reason with hopes for a peaceful coexistence between liberal democracies and the religiously diverse

Islam Encountering Globalisation Ali Mohammadi, 2012-11-12 One of the greatest dilemmas facing Muslims today is the fact that Muslim culture is often seemingly incompatible with the culture of the modern Western world and the features associated with it technological progress consumerism and new electronic communication all of which have the potential for a homogenizing effect on any culture This book explores many key aspects of the globalisation process discussing how Muslim countries are coping with globalisation as well as considering how the West is responding to Islam

Political Islam in the Global World Aini Linjakumpu, 2008 Develops an approach with which one can study the politicization of Islam in different circumstances and contexts This book uses three case studies to analyze the political dimension of Islam It also examines political identity and discusses the role of language

Globalization and the Muslim World Birgit Schaebler, Leif Stenberg, 2004-06-01 Written by scholars from a range of disciplines concerned with the Middle East and Islam history religious studies anthropology sociology political science and covering the Muslim world extensively from Malaysia Turkey Sudan Egypt and Israel Palestine to Muslim communities in Europe and the United States this important contribution to the debate on globalization sets a standard in dealing with this pervasive force in the field of Islamic and Middle Eastern studies

Islam in the Age of Globalization Asif Mohiuddin, 2024-11-29 Globalization has been a central theme in political economic cultural and religious debates since the turn of the century While some see it as a solution others consider it the root of our problems The intensification of cultural and military warfare and the West v the Rest mentality fuels a deep seated ethnocentrism Religion meanwhile faces scrutiny from various fundamentalisms and grand narratives Many modern Muslim thinkers are skeptical of globalization perceiving it as a homogenizing force that spreads

Western culture and concentrates power among a few nations They argue that Islam promotes human oneness and provides an intellectual and spiritual framework for a more civilized and universal approach to globalization opposing the Western centric hegemonic tendencies The goal of this book is to demonstrate that Islam favors globalization in its original voluntary form as opposed to the violent imposition of the West on the East It will examine Muslim responses to globalization and their attempts to find global answers to local problems in their own local regional national and global contexts Several academic works have explored various aspects of globalization focusing on tensions and conflicts such as power politics religious authority and legislative issues However there is a notable absence of attention given to the Islamic perspective on globalization including both appreciation and critique This book addresses this gap by offering not only a Muslim critique of globalization but also a broader framework for understanding Islam s unique perspective on globalization Does globalization support the inclusivity that Islam advocates How does Islam fit into the globalization era What impact and influence may Muslims have on the future of globalization What unique prospects does globalization provide Muslims and the Islamic faith Is Islamic revivalism a reaction to globalization Alternatives to globalization could exist What kind of structure will the Islamic globalization paradigm have In addition to addressing these questions the book attempts to provide a theoretical framework for Islamic globalization which incorporates the shuratic practice and the vision of an international community extending beyond the Arabs and non Arabs This underscores the importance of historical contexts for contemporary actions and beliefs In the process the book attempts to extend the debate on Islam and globalization by mapping out the effects of globalization on various aspects of Muslim culture

Muhammad 'Abduh and His Interlocutors: Conceptualizing Religion in a Globalizing World Ammeke Kateman, 2019-01-04 In Muhammad Abduh and his Interlocutors Conceptualizing Religion in a Globalizing World Ammeke Kateman offers an account of Muhammad Abduh s Islamic Reformism in a context in which ideas increasingly crossed familiar geographical religious and cultural frontiers Presenting an alternative to the inadequate perspective of Westernization Kateman situates the ideas of Muhammad Abduh Egypt 1849 1905 on Islam and religion amongst those of his interlocutors within a global intellectual field Ammeke Kateman s approach documents the surprising pluralism of Abduh s interlocutors the diversity in their shared conceptualizations of religion and the creativity of Abduh s own interpretation In this way the conceptualizations of Abduh and his contemporaries also shed light on the diversified global genealogy of the modern concept of religion

Islam and the Drive to Global Justice Louay M. Safi, 2023-12-15 Islam and the Drive to Global Justice Principles of Justice Beyond Dominant Ethnic and Religious Communities contributes to the current debate over Islam in a globalizing world by drawing on the contemporary and historical justice discourse within the Islamic traditions and by examining policies and practices of global powers towards Muslim populations in the Global South The discussions aim at bringing insights from Islamic authoritative sources and scholarly literature and to enrich the current deliberation on the universality of modern values and the relevance of the

Islamic traditions to advancing more inclusive notion of global justice The book examines in particular several models rooted in the monotheistic traditions crucial for overcoming three interrelated challenges facing the dispensation of justice in contemporary society inclusivity disparity and selectivity The book uses the normative framework it outlines to analyze the connection between European powers and the autocratic regimes in the MENA region Several chapters in the book illustrate how supporting Arab autocracy contributes to the rise of religious extremism and has already produced failed states in Syria Lebanon Iraq and Yemen that undermine both national and global peace and stability Islam in Global Politics Bassam Tibi, 2012-03-12 Reaching beyond traditionally politicised scholarship to provide a unique perspective on the place of religion and culture in global and local politics this book examines the impact of Islam on civilizational relations between different groups and polities Bassam Tibi takes a highly original approach to the topic of religion in world politics exploring the place of Islam in society and its frequent distortion in world politics to the more radical Islamism Looking at how this becomes an immediate source of tension and conflict between the secular and the religious Tibi rejects the clash of civilizations theory and argues for the revival of Islamic humanism to help bridge the gap Chapters expand on inter civilizational conflict in global politics dialogue between religious and secular East and West western concepts of Islamism euro Islam and the Islamic diaspora in Europe Islamic humanism as a tool for bridging civilizations Shedding new light on the highly topical subject of Islam in politics and society this book is an essential read for scholars and students of international politics Islamic studies and conflict resolution Globalization, Urbanization, and Civil Society Bagoes Wiryomartono, 2023-05-15 Globalization Urbanization and Civil Society is an interdisciplinary compilation of chapters concerning civil society in the global geopolitical context The establishment of civil society is essential for urbanism and the global community because it is the sense and essence of development concerning what humankind is as a collective entity on the globe This thought provoking book covers the multidimensional aspects issues challenges and consequences of geopolitics and globalization on civil society including freedom in the public sphere alienation neo fascism social cohesion racial inequality political narcissism political economic exceptionalism Islamic radicalism social justice and resistance The author brings a fresh and essentially non Western critical perspective to bear on the fundamental challenges faced by civil society as a result of the globalization of corporate capitalism in the Digital Age as well as providing a rich perspective on colonialism This book will appeal to scholars and graduate students of geopolitics and globalization global development sociology international relations cultural studies psychology and philosophy as well as practitioners and policymakers who are interested in interdisciplinary approaches in the field of global studies Muslims in Global Politics Mahmood Monshipouri, 2011-07-07 In Egypt Islamists clash with secularists over religious and national identity while in Turkey secularist ruling elites have chosen to accommodate Islamists in the name of democracy and reconciliation As Islam spreads throughout the world Muslims living in their traditional homelands and in the Western world are grappling with shifting identities In all cases understanding the dynamics of identity based politics is critical to the future of Muslims and their neighbors across the globe In Muslims in Global Politics Mahmood Monshipouri examines the role identity plays in political conflicts in six Muslim nations Egypt Iraq the United Arab Emirates Turkey Iran and Indonesia as well as in Muslim diaspora communities in Europe and North America In each instance he describes how conservatives neofundamentalists reformists and secularists construct identity in different ways and how these identities play out in the political arena With globalization the demand for human rights continues to grow in the Muslim world and struggles over modernity authenticity legitimacy and rationality become increasingly important Muslims in Global Politics deepens our understanding of how modern ideas and norms interact with the traditions of the Islamic world and in turn shows how human rights advocates can provide an alternative to militant Islamism movements Resurgent Islam Philip W. Sutton, Stephen Vertigans, 2005-11-11 With a glossary and a bibliography

Islam, Globalization and Postmodernity Akbar S. Ahmed, Hastings Donnan, 2003-09-02 An insightful examination of how general global processes are affecting Muslims everywhere and the way in which these processes are moulded by particular local cultural political and economic configurations Indonesian Muslims in a Global World Teuku

Zulfikar, 2017-08-21 Muslim communities in non Muslim countries and particularly their younger members have been an interesting topic in academia recently Many books and journal articles have been written on the identity issues of young Muslims and this book serves to enrich previous literature on this important issue It highlights Indonesian Muslims experience of living in between their home and their host society namely Australia However the study differs in some respects from other books on similar issues describing Muslim identity through the viewpoints of the sacred book of Islam the Qur'an and also as described by scholars investigating the identity construction of young Muslims The book suggests an essentialized understanding of Muslim identity as described in the sacred text but at the same time recognizes that discourses and agencies influence the way in which a community projects itself Books on Turkey, 2005 Localizing

Knowledge in a Globalizing World Ali Mirsepassi, Amrita Basu, Frederick Weaver, 2003-01-01 The essays in this collection address the current crisis in area studies a crisis that differs from its perennial struggle with the established academic disciplines This crisis stems from the confluence of three related circumstances the end of the Cold War greater economic and cultural fluidity across political borders and contradictory intellectual trends in the academy which include on the one hand a renaissance of universalizing thinking in the social sciences and on the other hand the rise of post colonial studies and debates about modernity postmodernity and cultural hybridization Although the essays differ markedly in their focus and strategies the authors all demonstrate that local knowledge including serious study of individual cultures and proficiency in foreign languages which are vital to understanding rapidly changing global patterns and to countering universal claims by the social sciences While the authors also agree that area studies must reject their ethnocentric heritages and adopt inventive new contours they present a diversity Emerging Research on Islamic Marketing and Tourism in the Global

Economy El-Gohary, Hatem, Eid, Riyadh, 2014-07-31 This book offers in depth perspectives on the influence of Islam on consumer behavior the travel industry product development and the promotion of goods and services focusing on current trends and tools comprehensive interviews questionnaires and emerging research Provided by publisher Globalization and Environmental Challenges Hans Günter Brauch, Ursula Oswald Spring, Czeslaw Mesjasz, John Grin, Pál Dunay, Navnita Chadha Behera, Béchir Chourou, Patricia Kameri-Mbote, P. H. Liotta, 2008-01-23 Put quite simply the twin impacts of globalization and environmental degradation pose new security dangers and concerns In this new work on global security thinking 91 authors from five continents and many disciplines from science and practice assess the worldwide reassessment of the meaning of security triggered by the end of the Cold War and globalization as well as the multifarious impacts of global environmental change in the early 21st century Religion and Ethics in a Globalizing World L. Anceschi, J. Camilleri, R. Palapathwala, Andrew Wicking, 2011-02-14 Around the world religion is an increasingly vital and pervasive force in both personal and public life Though this trend has been widely noted its long term implications are as yet only dimly perceived Will this be a force for healing or for violence To express the question to its most dramatic yet urgent form can the world's major religious traditions respond constructively to contemporary challenges in the public sphere that are now by definition global Religion and Ethics in a Globalizing World seeks to address this question and to contribute to a greater understanding of the role of religion in the paradoxical context of a world that is increasingly unified but which remains fundamentally plural
