Justice Interruptus Rethinking Key Concepts Of A Postsocialist Age:

Justice Interruptus Nancy Fraser, 1997 Diagnosing the contemporary post socialist condition political philosopher Nancy Fraser identifies the tasks facing the critical theorists and political activists in the absence of a credible alternative to the present order Carl Schmitt's Critique of Liberalism John P. McCormick, 1997 This is the first in depth critical appraisal in English of the political legal and cultural writings of Carl Schmitt perhaps this century's most brilliant critic of liberalism It offers an assessment of this most sophisticated of fascist theorists without attempting either to apologise for or demonise him Schmitt's Weimar writings confront the role of technology as it finds expression through the principles and practices of liberalism Contemporary political conditions such as disaffection with liberalism and the rise of extremist political organizations have rendered Schmitt's work both relevant and insightful John McCormick examines why technology becomes a rallying cry for both right and left wing intellectuals at times when liberalism appears anachronistic and shows the continuities between Weimar's ideological debates and those of our own age The Classic Social Contractarians Janice Richardson, 2016-03-23 How can we live together without subordination and oppression What does it mean to treat each other as free and equal persons This book uses contemporary feminist insights to examine aspects of the classic social contractarians arguments focusing specifically upon the work of Hobbes Spinoza Locke Rousseau and Kant Considering the relationship between the self and the law this volume also looks at the points at issue between feminist political theorists and considers the usefulness of contractarian arguments for feminist politics today together with an examination of the relationship between their political legal and moral analyses Global Justice and Recognition Theory Monica Mookherjee, 2023-06-16 In the light of intense international focus on ongoing forms of world poverty this book examines the potential of the concept of recognition in contemporary political philosophy to respond morally to this dire condition This book uses recognition theories to develop a two tiered response to the problem of global poverty First it highlights non degradation non humiliation and the avoidance of social suffering as essential components to the agency of the very poor This runs counter to liberal arguments that focus only on the deficit of basic material interests Second even if universal conditions of agency are met many of the world's extreme poor may still suffer domination The book argues that empowering the world's poor to resist domination is an essential response to global poverty By conceiving poverty in terms of agency and empowerment this book highlights the transnational relevance of recognition theory to one of the most crucial problems affecting a rapidly globalising world Global Justice and Recognition Theory will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in social and political philosophy political theory and global justice Self-Determination and Collective Responsibility in the Secessionist Struggle Costas Laoutides, 2016-03-03 The often violent emergence of new independent states following the end of the Cold War generated discussion about the normative grounds of territorial separatism A number of opposing approaches surfaced debating whether and under which circumstances there is a right for a community to secede from its host country Overwhelmingly these studies placed emphasis on the right to secession and neglected the moral stance of secessionist movements as agents in international relations In this book Costas Laoutides explores the collective moral agency involved in secessionist struggles offering a theoretical model for the collective responsibility of secessionist groups Case studies on the Kurds and the people of Moldova Transdnistria illustrate the author's theoretical arguments as he seeks to establish how although the principle of self determination was envisaged as a means of gradually bestowing political power upon the people it never managed to realize its full potential because it was interpreted strictly within a framework of exclusionary politics of identity Routledge Handbook of European Sociology Sokratis Koniordos, Alexandros Kyrtis, 2014-09-04 The Routledge Handbook of European Sociology provides over forty original groundbreaking state of the art accounts each expert contribution teasing out the distinctively European features of the sociological theme it explores The Handbook is divided in four parts intellectual and institutional settings regional variations thematic variations and European concerns Analysing Families Alan Carling, Simon Duncan, Rosalind Edwards, 2005-07-05 While the family and its role continues to be a key topic in social and government policy much of the literature is concerned with describing the dramatic changes that are taking place By contrast Analysing Families directly addresses the social processes responsible for these changes how social policy interacts with what families actually do Topics covered include the relationship between morality and rationality in the family context the variety of contemporary family forms the purposes and assumptions of government interventions in family life the relationship between different welfare states and different ideas about motherhood Third Way thinking on families divorce and post divorce arrangements lone parenthood and step parenting the decision to have children the economic approach to understanding family process the legitimacy of state intervention in family life With contributions from the UK and North America Analysing Families provides the framework within which to understand an increasingly important element in social policy Feminist Interpretations of Jacques Derrida Nancy Holland, 2010-11-01 Aandacht voor het werk van Derrida vanuit feministisch perspectief De volgende bijdragen zijn opgenomen Choreographies interview door Jacques Derrida en Christie V McDonald Displacement and the discourse of woman door Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Ontology and equivocation Derrida's politics of sexual difference door Elizabeth Grosz Deconstruction and feminism a repetition door Peggy Kamuf Toward an ethic of desire Derrida fiction and the law of the feminine door Peg Birmingham Civil disobedience and deconstruction door Drucilla Cornell The force of law metaphysical or political door Nancy Fraser Sentiment recuperated the performative in women's AIDS related testimonies door Kate Mehegan Crossing the boundaries between deconstruction feminism and religion door Ellen T Armour Kolossos the measure of a man's size door Dorothea Olkowski Demanding Sex: Critical Reflections on the Regulation of Prostitution Marina Della Giusta, 2016-05-13 Interrogating supply demand from an inter and multi disciplinary perspective this collection broadens engagement beyond the routine analysis of the locus of violence in prostitution and the validity of the prostitute's consent. A focus on the supply demand dynamic brings into play a range of other societal economic and psychological factors such as the social construction of sexuality the viability of alternative choices for prostitutes and clients and the impact of regulatory regimes on the provision of sexual services. The factors which underlie each component of the supply demand dyad are also studied and an examination is made of their dynamic interrelation. The collection emphasizes the importance of rendering policy makers alert to the evidence emerging from empirical studies conducted in different fields of enquiry in the hope of moving beyond polarity and politics at the local national and international level.

Deconstructing Special Education and Constructing Inclusion 3e Gary Thomas, Andrew Loxley, 2022-01-18 Previous editions of the bestselling Deconstructing Special Education set a landmark for the understanding of inclusion. This completely re-written third edition continues in the tradition of critical analysis set by the first two editions and assesses how ideas and practice surrounding inclusion adapt to modern pressures and expectations. The new edition addresses the influence of intersectionality on the ways we think about special education and inclusion. Contemporary understandings of mental health and how these affect the way that we think about behaviour at school. Changing understandings of disability. The impact of research on the development of inclusion. Marketisation and its corrosive influence on inclusion. The impact of social media on children and young people. How spending on special needs impacts the development of inclusion. The authors address these complex issues in an open and accessible way making the book essential reading for a broad audience including students teachers educational psychologists policymakers and researchers. Essential reading for anyone studying or working in either special or inclusive education. Few could build the case as well as Thomas and Loxley. Melanie Nind Professor of Education University of Southampton UK. Few books in the field of education merit the soubriquet must read. This is one such. Philip Garner Professor Brunel University UK. An absolute must read for all of us committed to realising genuine inclusion within schools and society. Jan Valle The City College of New York USA. International Handbook of Comparative Education Robert Cowen,Andreas M. Kazamias,2009-08-22 A big project like this Handbook means that you incur debts and not only to your authors and your publisher As editors we along with our colleague Elaine Unterhalter who edited the section on postcolonialism would like to thank most warmly those authors who delivered on time and who did not fuss but just got on and did a r rate job We would also like to thank all authors who did deliver which was almost everyone we asked We know that some of our authors worked in very dif cult private circumstances as they were nishing their chapters and we hope the publication of the Volumes will later be for them a happy reminder of dif culties and disasters overcome The only sad theme is that some very close colleagues with whom we were wo ing and for whom we had the greatest respect and liking became very ill and died while the volumes were being prepared We decided to ask for copyright permissions to publish something of theirs These permissions were graciously given by two major journals and with the agreement also of our publishers Springer Rolland Paulston and Terry McLaughlin have examples of their writing in this Handbook
