Justification And The Future Of The Ecumenical Movement:

Justification and the future of the Ecumenical Movement, 2003 Justification and the Future of the Ecumenical Movement George A. Lindbeck, 2003 On October 31 1999 officials of the Lutheran World Federation and the Roman Catholic Church in Augsburg Germany signed and Official Common Statement with its Annex and the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification declaring publicly and in a binding manner that a consensus in basic truths of the doctrine of justification exists between Lutherans and Catholics A number of the essays in this book emanate from a conference at the Berkeley Divinity School of Yale University in 2000 that discussed the import of this momentous declaration for ecumenism

Spirit Flowing Like Water Nausikaa Haupt, Olle Kristenson, Michael Nausner, Gregory Ryan, 2025-06-19 What if churches focused less on wanting other Christian traditions to become more like theirs and more on exploring what they might learn from them Might this not only help churches to deepen faith mission and service but also revitalize the ecumenical landscape with new possibilities This is the provocative and inspiring vision presented by Receptive Ecumenism a movement which has crossed denominations and continents engaging church leaders ecumenists scholars and Christians in their everyday lives Spirit Flowing Like Water presents the latest conversations in this field It not only engages leading scholars and practitioners of Receptive Ecumenism between churches but also explores the possibility of learning from difference within a church community Internal Receptive Ecumenism and adapting the approach to a wider ecumenism beyond the visible church Church leaders ecumenists and theologians from five continents have contributed chapters on transforming ecumenism practicing mission in context and broadening the horizon They write not only for those already engaged in ecumenical work but with an invitation to all communities leaders and individuals to take a fresh look at what The Oxford Handbook of Catholic Theology Lewis walking together in Christ means in our polarized world Ayres, Medi Ann Volpe, 2019-03-28 The Oxford Handbook of Catholic Theology provides a one volume introduction to all the major aspects of Catholic theology Part One considers the nature of theological thinking and the major topics of Catholic teaching including the Triune God the Creation and the mission of the Incarnate Word It also covers the character of the Christian sacramental life and the major themes of Catholic moral teaching The treatments in the first part of the Handbook offer personal syntheses of Catholic teaching but each offers an account in accord with Catholic theology as it is expressed in the Second Vatican Council and authoritative documentation Part Two focuses on the historical development of Catholic Theology An initial section offers essays on some of Catholic theology s most important sources between 200 and 1870 and the final section of the collection considers all the main movements and developments in Catholic theology across the world since 1870 This comprehensive volume features fifty six original contributions by some of the best known names in current Catholic theology from the Americas Europe Asia and Africa The chapters are written in an engaging and easily comprehensible style functioning both as a scholarly reference and as a survey of the field There are no comparable studies

available in one volume and the book will be an indispensable reference for students of Catholic theology at all levels and in Pro Ecclesia Vol 17-N1 Pro Ecclesia, 2008-02-15 Pro Ecclesia is a quarterly journal of theology published by all contexts the Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology It seeks to give contemporary expression to the one apostolic faith and its classic traditions working for and manifesting the church's unity by research theological construction and free exchange of opinion Members of its advisory council represent communities committed to the authority of Holy Scripture ecumenical dogmatic teaching and the structural continuity of the church and are themselves dedicated to maintaining and invigorating these commitments The journal publishes biblical liturgical historical and doctrinal articles that promote or illumine its purposes Ways to subscribe Call toll free 800 273 2223 Email journals rowman com For back issues please contact journals rowman com Editorial inquiries Joseph Mangina joseph mangina utoronto ca Submissions should be sent by email attachment in Microsoft Word double spaced with identifying marks removed for the purposes of blind peer review Book review inquiries Chad Pecknold pecknold cua edu Advertising inquiries Charles Roth Ir charlie spireads com Subscription inquiries journals rowman com ISSN 1063 8512 Receptive Ecumenism and the Call to Catholic Learning Paul Murray, 2010-05-06 This volume proposes a fresh strategy for ecumenical engagement Receptive Ecumenism that is fitted to the challenges of the contemporary context and has already been internationally recognised as making a distinctive and important new contribution to ecumenical thought and practice Beyond this the volume tests and illustrates this proposal by examining what Roman Catholicism in particular might fruitfully learn from its ecumenical others Challenging the tendency for ecumenical studies to ask whether explicitly or implicitly What do our others need to learn from us this volume presents a radical challenge to see ecumenism move forward into action by highlighting the opposite question What can we learn with integrity from our others This approach is not simply ecumenism as shared mission or ecumenism as problem solving and incremental agreement but ecumenism as a vital long term programme of individual communal and structural conversion driven like the Gospel that inspires it by the promise of conversion into greater life and flourishing The aim is for the Christian traditions to become more not less than they currently are by learning from or receiving of each other's gifts The 32 original essays that have been written for this unique volume explore these issues from a wide variety of denominational and disciplinary perspectives drawing together ecclesiologists professional ecumenists sociologists psychologists and organizational experts

Beloved Community Hinlicky, Paul R., 2015-05-04 An original comprehensive system of theology especially apropos to the post Christendom North American context In this scholarly work Paul Hinlicky transcends the impasse between dogmatic and systematic theology by articulating and arguing a single cognitive claim God is the One who has determined to redeem the creation by the missions of his Son and Spirit Deploying an unusual Spirit Son Father trinitarian scheme Hinlicky treats the problem of the knowledge of God and the nature of the theological discipline and he proceeds to carefully develop his system of theology through expansive wideranging argumentation Each main part of his work includes discussion of the ecumenical convergences in doctrine gained over the last generation and exploration of interreligious dialogues especially with Judaism and Islam Throughout the book Hinlicky engages with other theologians particularly with Robert Jenson's Systematic Theology and concludes each major section with a discussion of an alternate perspective on the subject David Fergusson, Bruce McCormack, 2019-01-10 Schools of Faith represents a diversity of essays from scholars in several continents The contributors all leading theologians and ethicists offer reflections on historical and contemporary themes which are significant for wider debates in theological education and church life in today s world The range of contributor and content provides a fitting tribute to the work of Iain R Torrance over many years Amid the numerous subjects discussed the authors focus on liturgy textual criticism public theology the ethics of war Christian doctrine divine action ecumenism inter faith dialogue spiritual formation the office of the minister and the interface between religion and literature The multi faceted nature of this collection signifies its importance for historical systematic and practical theology Mission, Contextual Theology, Prophetic Dialogue Irvin, Dale T., Phan, Peter C., 2018-12-20 While the intent of the editors is to honor Steve Bevans SVD a towering figure in the field of missiology and a longtime author of Orbis books on missiology this book will be designed less as a festschrift than as a textbook for classroom use Designed around the three main foci of Bevans theology mission contextual theologies and dialogical theory it will appeal to teachers of courses in Christian mission theological method contextual theologies and contemporary Third World theologies The contributors are a who s who of contemporary mission studies in a global context including representatives from various Christian traditions and from throughout the global church Faith and Order in the U.S.A. William A. Norgren, 2011-07-06 Since its founding in 1957 the National Council of Churches Commission on Faith and Order has worked to draw churches out of isolation into discussion on points of agreement and disagreement in faith order and worship In Faith and Order in the USA William Norgren a long time executive director of the Faith and Order Commission takes a look at its background history and major initiatives He shows how the Commission originally limited in its scope to mainline Protestant Episcopal and Orthodox church bodies fostered fruitful dialogue not only between its founding churches but also over time with Roman Catholic Southern Baptist Evangelical Pentecostal Adventist holiness and peace churches contributing to greater friendship harmony and partnership among many Christian churches in America Ecumenism and Interreligious Dialogue Edward Idris Cassidy, 2005 This initial volume in the Rediscovering Vatican II series looks at the relationship between the Catholic Church and other Christian churches Unitatis Redintegratio Restoring Christian Unity and between the Catholic Church and other great religions Nostra Actate the Declaration on Interreligious Dialogue BOOK JACKET Engrafted Into Christ Christopher J. Malloy, 2005 Catholics and Lutherans signed the Joint Declaration on Justification in 1999 This ecumenical agreement claims to resolve all church dividing differences on justification without requiring doctrinal revision a claim that Engrafted into Christ challenges with a twofold thesis First the historic disagreement over justification was substantial thus doctrinal revision is a sine qua non condition of rapprochement Second portions of the Declaration appear irreconcilable with Catholicism A concluding series of original reflections illustrates the intelligibility of Catholic teaching identifies a self destructive element in sola fide and challenges structural elements of Lutheran theology Experts as well as educated laypersons will be interested in this book The Oxford Handbook of Systematic Theology John Webster, Kathryn Tanner, Iain Torrance, 2009-09-11 The Oxford Handbook of Systematic Theology brings together a set of original and authoritative accounts of all the major areas of current research in Christian systematic theology offering a thorough survey of the state of the discipline and of its prospects for those undertaking research and teaching in the field The Handbook engages in a comprehensive examination of themes and approaches guiding the reader through current debates and literatures in the context of the historical development of systematic theological reflection Organized thematically it treats in detail the full array of topics in systematic theology as well as questions of its sources and norms its relation to other theological and non theological fields of enguiry and some major trends in current work Each chapter provides an analysis of research and debate on its topic The focus is on doctrinal rather than historical questions and on major rather than ephemeral debates The aim is to stimulate readers to reach theological judgements on the basis of consideration of the range of opinion Drawn from Europe the UK and North America the authors are all leading practitioners of the discipline Readers will find expert guidance as well as creative suggestions about the future direction of the study of Christian doctrine

Reforming Rome Donald W. Norwood,2015-01-16 Few people realize that Karl Barth one of the twentieth century s greatest Protestant theologians was among a select group of non Catholic guests who were invited to the Second Vatican Council 1962 65 to assist in the reform and renewal of the Roman Catholic Church In Reforming Rome Donald Norwood offers the first book length study of Barth s involvement with Vatican II and his significant impact on the reform of the Catholic Church Norwood examines Barth s critical engagement with the Roman Catholic Church from his time at the Catholic University of Munster to his connection with Vatican II his conversations with Pope Paul VI and seminars and interviews he gave about the Council afterward On the basis of extensive research Norwood amplifies Barth s own very brief account of Vatican II Barth himself often felt that he was better understood by Roman Catholics such as Hans Kng Hans Urs von Balthasar and Joseph Ratzinger than he was by his own Reformed colleagues This study written by a fellow Reformed theologian helps us to see why

Postliberal Theology and the Church Catholic George A. Lindbeck, 2012-04 Examines the Roman Catholic roots of postliberal theology via conversations with three seminal postliberal theologians George Lindbeck David Burrell and Stanley Hauerwas The Nature of Doctrine, 25th Anniversary Edition George A. Lindbeck, 2009-07-20 The Nature of Doctrine originally published in 1984 is one of the most influential works of academic theology in the past fifty years A true classic this book sets forth the central tenets of a post liberal approach to theology emphasizing a cultural linguistic approach to religion and a rule theory of doctrine In addition to his account of the nature of religion George Lindbeck also addresses the relationship between Christianity and other religions the resolution of historic doctrinal conflict among Christian communities and the nature and task of theology itself This is a work that all theologians and advanced students should know This twenty fifth anniversary edition includes an English translation of the foreword to the German edition and a complete bibliography of Lindbeck s work Sin and Grace TONY LANE, 2020-11-19 Tony Lane surveys a wide range of doctrines relating to our experience of God's gracious salvation. He begins with our need as sinful and fallen people moves on to consider what is involved in becoming a Christian majoring on justification being put right with God and concludes with sanctification living the Christian life As well as expounding various aspects of these doctrines Lane introduces their historical roots in classical expositions Lane warns that these doctrines are in danger of being lost by significant sectors of evangelicalism and he explains them clearly He encourages readers to hold firmly to an evangelical soteriology having a greater understanding of it and a stronger conviction of its truth with experience of its application to Christian discipleship

The Wayfarer's End Shawn M. Colberg,2020-05-08 The Wayfarer's End follows the human person's journey to union with God in the theologies of Saint Bonaventure and Saint Thomas Aquinas It argues that these seminal thinkers of the 13th Century emphasize scriptural notions of divine rewards as ordering principles for the graced movement of human viators to eternal life Divine rewards emerge as a fundamental category through the study's emphasis on Thomas and Bonaventure as scriptural commentators and preachers whose work in sacra pagina structures the content of their sacra doctrina Shawn Colberg places Bonaventure s and Aquinas s scriptural dogmatic and polemical works into conversation and illumines their mutually edifying depictions of the way to eternal life Looking to the journey itself The Wayfarer's End demonstrates a nuanced understanding of the roles played by God and human beings in the movement to full beatitude To that end it explores the relationships between grace and human nature the effects of sin on the human person the vital themes of predestination conversion perseverance and the place of reward worthy human action within the overall movement toward union with God While St Bonaventure and St Thomas both stress the priority of grace and divine action for the journey the study also illustrates their distinct frameworks for human action unpacking Bonaventure's preference for the language of acceptatio versus Thomas s emphasis on ordinatio This difference inflects their language of rewards their exposition of scripture and the scope of free human action in the movement to union with God This study places the two most seminal theologians of the 13th Century into conversation on central and enduring topics of Christian life Such a comparative study has been sorely lacking in the field of studies on Aguinas and Bonaventure It offers insight to those interested in high scholastic thought Franciscan and Dominican understandings of human salvation and Thomist and Franciscan theology as it pertains to questions of the Reformation including biblical exegesis on justification and sanctification Above all the study appreciates and foregrounds the richness of Bonaventure's and Aquinas's vocations mendicant theologians concerned to share the fruits of contemplation with fellow friars and others seeking the goal of the wayfarer s end
