Membaca mitos dan legenda Kadazandusun Kok On Low, 2005 Understanding social life and customs of the Kadazandusun people in Sabah through their myth legend and traditional belief Identity and the State in Malaysia Fausto Barlocco, 2013-12-04 Using the case study of the Kadazan of Sabah a region in the Malaysian section of Borneo this book examines national ethnic and local identities in post colonial states It shows the importance of the connection between lived experience and identity and belonging and by doing so provides a deeper and fuller explanation of the apparently contradictory conflict between different collective forms of identification and the way in which they are employed in reference to everyday situations Based on ethnographic fieldwork and historical analysis the book reconstructs the development of the cultural forms and labels associated with the collective identities it studies The author employs an approach that sees collective identification as an expression of everyday practices and that stresses the importance of participation and familiarity between forms of identification and lived experience In this context he considers anthropological debates about state minorities relations and issues of dignity and respect Explaining state minority relations in Malaysia and more generally in other post colonial realities the insights presented are highly relevant to other cases of conflicting allegiances and identity politics in settings of post colonial nation building Borneo Studies in History, Society and Culture Victor T. King, Zawawi Ibrahim, Noor Hasharina Hassan, 2016-08-12 This edited book is the first major review of what has been achieved in Borneo Studies to date Chapters in this book situate research on Borneo within the general disciplinary fields of the social sciences with the weight of attention devoted to anthropological research and related fields such as development studies gender studies environmental studies social policy studies and cultural studies Some of the chapters in this book are extended versions of presentations at the Borneo Research Council s international conference hosted by Universiti Brunei Darussalam in June 2012 and a Borneo Studies workshop organised in Brunei in 2012 The volume examines some of the major debates and controversies in Borneo Studies including those which have served to connect post war research on Borneo to wider scholarship It also assesses some of the more recent contributions and interests of locally based researchers in universities and other institutions in Borneo itself The major strength of the book is the inclusion of a substantial amount of research undertaken by scholars working and teaching within the Southeast Asian region In particular there is an examination of research materials published in the vernacular notably the outpouring of work published in Indonesian by the Institut Dayakologi in Pontianak In doing so the book also addresses the urgent matters which have not received the attention they deserve specifically subjects themes and issues that have already been covered but require further contemplation elaboration and research and the scope for disciplinary and multidisciplinary collaboration in Borneo Studies The book is a valuable resource and reference work for students and researchers interested in social science scholarship on Borneo and for those with wider interests in Indonesia and Malaysia and in the Southeast Asian region

Maintenance and Loss of Minority Languages Willem Fase, Koen Jaspaert, Sjaak Kroon, 1992-06-18 The papers in this volume describe a wide variety of language contact settings in which one or more languages are in a process of shift In the first part of the book theoretical perspectives are presented followed by linguistic sociological and descriptive studies of languages and countries that have attracted the interest of researchers before as well as less well known examples Data are presented from the Philippines Korea Japan Israel The Netherlands Belgium Canada Sweden Spain Denmark Morocco Finland Malaysia Germany USA Ireland India Tanzania and Australia Journal of the International Folk Music Council, 1961 A Botanist in Borneo Hugh Low, 2002 The Genus Coelogyne Dudley Clayton, 2002 Coelogyne a large genus of Asiatic orchids comprising some 190 species and 12 varieties is widely distributed from India and Sri Lanka across Southern Asia and the Malay archipelago to the Philippines New Guinea and the south west Pacific Islands The Genus Coelogyne A Synopsis provides a comprehensive account that includes ecology morphology taxonomy distribution descriptions of each species with habitat and flowering time and molecular phylogeny This will be of great interest to growers and collectors as the author provides detailed information on cultivation and hybridisation based on his own extensive experience raising these fascinating orchids Twenty three maps 133 colour photographs and intricate line drawings of the lips of flowers a critical identification feature illustrate the text The Third Mandate Bala Chandran, 1986 A Guide to Australian Grasshoppers and Locusts David C.
