Down Under in Henn Boo William P. Hogan, 2000 Imagine heading out for a six month trip to a foreign country intending to live in a recreational vehicle First you would have to quickly locate and then buy a satisfactory vehicle so you could get on the road to see as much as possible in the time allotted Bill and Marcia Hogan did that starting out in Cairns Australia and had the time of their lives seeing the beautiful sights of Australia and meeting many wonderful people They stayed mainly in caravan parks where the Aussies camped and as a result got to know the people who told of their country What's more it seemed that they hardly left home at all because they took along a laptop computer and sent out e mail messages at every opportunity to their family and friends Down Under in Henn Boo is a compilation of those e mail messages where they tell of their wild experiences in the Kakadu tracing Crocodile Dundee s explorations the investigation of the Red Center and Ayers Rock the long tour of the Australian beaches from Cape Tribulation to Adelaide the southwest corner of Western Australia the island of Tasmania and then on to New Zealand

Guinea The Routledge Handbook of Animal Ethics Bob Fischer, 2019-12-06 There isn't one conversation about animal ethics. Instead, there are several important ones that are scattered across many disciplines. This volume both surveys the field of animal ethics and draws professional philosophers, graduate students, and undergraduates more deeply into the discussions that are happening outside of philosophy departments. To that end, the volume contains more nonphilosophers than philosophers, explicitly inviting scholars from other fields such as animal science, ecology, economics, psychology, law, environmental science, and applied biology among others to bring their own disciplinary resources to bear on matters that affect animals. The Routledge Handbook of Animal Ethics is composed of 44 chapters, all appearing in print here for the first time, and organized into the following six sections: I. Thinking About Animals; II. Animal Agriculture and Hunting; III. Animal Research and Genetic Engineering; IV. Companion Animals; V. Wild Animals; Conservation, Management, and Ethics; VI. Animal Activism. The chapters are brief, and they have been written in a way that is accessible to serious undergraduate students regardless of their field of study. The volume covers everything from animal cognition to the state of current fisheries, from genetic modification to intersectional animal activism. It is a resource designed for anyone interested in the moral issues that emerge from human interactions with animals.
