Champion Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Raymond Obstfeld, 2025-09-02 In this stunningly illustrated graphic novel, Kareem Abdul Jabbar's life as a social justice advocate comes to life through the story of a high school student whose promising basketball career is in jeopardy. Monk Travers is the star basketball player on his high school team. Confident about his future as an NBA player, he doesn't see the point in caring much about school, let alone his community. But his world is about to change big time. After getting caught graffitiing his team's rival school, Monk comes to the awful realization that his actions have put his place on the team and his future in jeopardy. He's taken by surprise when his coach offers him an unorthodox way to atone: completing a report on the life of Kareem Abdul Jabbar. Monk is ecstatic. He knows all Kareem's records and stats. He smugly announces that the project will be a snap, but his excitement is short-lived when Coach tells him that the project is not about Kareem's basketball career; it's about his life as an advocate for change. As Monk grudgingly begins his research, he discovers a history of struggles, conflicts, frustrations, and violence that he'd never been aware of, awakening a passion for social justice that rivals Kareem's own. Authored by Kareem Abdul Jabbar himself alongside longtime collaborator Raymond Obstfeld and vividly illustrated by artist Ed Laroche, Champion highlights and celebrates Kareem's work for good like never before, inspiring fans of all ages.

Coach Wooden and Me Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, 2024-09-24 The former NBA star and Presidential Medal of Freedom recipient explores his 50-year friendship with Coach John Wooden in this New York Times bestseller. President Barack Obama's Favorite Book of 2017, A Boston Globe and Huffington Post Best Book of 2017 Pick. When future NBA legend Kareem Abdul Jabbar was still an 18-year-old high school basketball prospect from

New York City named Lew Alcindor he accepted a scholarship from UCLA largely on the strength of Coach John Wooden's reputation as a winner. It turned out to be the right choice as Alcindor and his teammates won an unprecedented three NCAA championship titles. But it also marked the beginning of one of the most extraordinary and enduring friendships in the history of sports. Coach Wooden and Me is a stirring tribute to the subtle but profound influence that Wooden had on Kareem as a player and then as a person as they began to share their cultural, religious, and family values while facing some of life's biggest obstacles. From his first day of practice when the players were taught the importance of putting on their athletic socks properly to gradually absorbing the sublime wisdom of Coach Wooden's now famous Pyramid of Success to learning to cope with the ugly racism that confronted black athletes during the turbulent Civil Rights era as well as losing loved ones, Abdul Jabbar fondly recalls how Coach Wooden's fatherly guidance not only paved the way for his unmatched professional success but also made possible a lifetime of personal fulfillment. A miraculous evocation of the ultimate odd couple relationship in sports history. Huffington Post Great Moments in Basketball History Matt Christopher, 2009-10-01 The history of basketball is chock full of famous buzzer beating shots, amazing game saving plays, and thrilling maneuvers that defy gravity. All fans have their favorite memory, just as they have their favorite team and their favorite player. Now here's a book that offers a look back at more than fifteen of the sport's best moments: The Block, The Steal, The Shot, Chamberlain, Abdul Jabbar, Bird, Jordan, and James. Each entry captures the nail biting tension of the minutes leading up to the play, as well as information about the superstar players that made them and the teams that they played for. Packed with facts and action, this is a book young basketball fans will reach for again and again, and because it comes from Matt Christopher, young readers know they're getting the best sports writing on the shelf. This Day in Sports History Ray G. Claveran, I have been an avid sports fan since the 1950s. Prior to the 60s I played in high school and two years of college basketball and was on the college golf team. Today I am a life member of the PGA of America. So I can say that I have had a love affair with sports. I truly believe that true, honest, and fair competition in sports builds character. To compete in any sporting event and to win fairly and square is something to be proud of. If you did not win fairly, then there is nothing to be proud of. If you did not win fairly, you did not win; you lost. You should never accept first place if you know it belongs to another. RAY G. CLAVERAN
