Because He Has Spoken to Us Brad Bursa, 2022-05-11 Pope John XXIII called the Second Vatican Council so that the Church's doctrine might be more widely known more deeply understood and more penetrating in its effects However since the close of the Council in 1965 the results are wanting Rather than announcing the gospel boldly in the present age the Church has been seemingly reduced to silence How did she lose her voice How did the structures of proclamation intended to hand on the Catholic faith devolve and even contribute to vaporizing a Catholic culture Because He Has Spoken to Us traces such developments from fixed points drawn from the fluid theology of Karl Rahner to their postmodern condition successive steps that usher in the crisis by subduing dismissing and silencing the tradition This postconciliar anthropocentric structure can now be better understood critiqued and displaced by a Ratzingerian approach Rather than embracing a given demanded by contemporary context Ratzinger proposes the revelation of the Logos in Jesus Christ as the given the true object of Christian faith His alternate proposal requires the courage to face the full scope of the Christian structure accessed through the Church's tradition and a willingness to proclaim the gospel personally and with humble confidence

A Theological Aesthetics of Liberation Vicente Chong, 2019-02-07 Since its emergence in the sixties of the last century liberation theology in Latin America has paid little attention to the areas of aesthetics and art At the same time theological aesthetics seldom has been directly and explicitly concerned about the reality of the poor and the struggle for justice This mutual disinterest between liberation theology and theological aesthetics is regrettable because discerning a correlation between them would benefit both theological disciplines in their attempt to understand the saving action of God in the world It is the intention of this book to fill that gap A Theological Aesthetics of Liberation correlates liberation theology and theological aesthetics exploring different themes such as the liberating power of art and how the Spirit of God is involved in the process of liberation in and through art This study is a critical reflection upon the question of the beauty of Jesus Christ especially in relationship with the event of the cross and upon its meaning for Christian life This book analyzes such topics in conversation with important theologians Gustavo Guti rrez Jon Sobrino Karl Rahner Hans Urs von Balthasar Edward Schillebeeckx and other contemporary Christian theologians who have explored

Molnar, 2007-06-15 For too long contemporary theology has downplayed the importance of holding together the incarnation and the resurrection when thinking theologically Paul Molnar here surveys the place of these key doctrines in the thought of several influential theologians Karl Barth Karl Rahner Thomas F Torrance John Macquarrie Gordon Kaufman Sallie McFague Roger Haight John Hick and Wolfhart Pannenberg Molnar demonstrates that whenever the starting point for interpreting the resurrection is not Jesus himself the incarnate Son of the Father then Christology and Soteriology are undermined because they are not properly rooted in a plausible doctrine of the Trinity Fair comprehensive and balanced Molnar s analysis following Torrance and Barth highlights the details of contemporary theology of the resurrection linked to the incarnation and maintains the necessity of the incarnation in its intrinsic unity with the resurrection as the beginning rather than the end of Christology Europe as a Common Walter Baier, Franz Kronreif, Cornelia Hildebrandt, Luisa Sello , 2021-06-14 To cope with the problems of today s world we need to enter into a dialogue regardless of political religious and philosophical beliefs a transversal dialogue as Pope Francis called for in the private audience he gave to Alexis Tsipras Walter Baier and Franz Kronreif in September 2014 This conversation resulted in the DIALOP initiative a transversal dialogue between Socialists and Christians Since then a network of universities and NGOs have been exploring paths of what they call a transversal social ethics In this book authors from Austria Belgium Colombia France Germany Greece Hungary Italy Portugal and the Vatican air their views on topics like

Ecclesiology and Postmodernity Gerard Mannion, 2017-01-13 What in the world is postmodernity Is it the dominant reality today If it is what does it mean to be a church in a postmodern world It seems that the church had a difficult time coming to terms with a modern world an era ruled by the claims of scientific certainty Having done so more or less it is now confronted by the claims of postmodernity which seem to reverse the whole equation to say that certainty and objectivity are chimeras What is truth Pilate asked and postmodernity at least as caricatured by its opponents responds There s no such thing Gerard Mannion in Ecclesiology and Postmodernity addresses the situation of the church in a postmodern world The fundamental changes in human society and culture wrought by the twentieth century require the church to consider its response in the twenty first century What is the church s moral Vision how does its practice look what is the nature of its aspiration toward holiness in our times Mannion believes that since Vatican II the Catholic Church has been in a kind of limbo awaiting a Vision of its own life for the future Rather than focusing on specific controversies Mannion offers concrete suggestions about how the church can create a better harmony between its own self understanding its ecclesiological Vision and its day to day life its ecclesial practice Gerard Mannion PhD educated at King s College Cambridge University and New College Oxford University is Associate Professor of Ecclesiology and Ethics in the Department of Theology and Religious Studies at Liverpool Hope University UK He is also the director of Church In Our Times Centre for the Study of Contemporary Ecclesiology co director of the Applied Ethics Initiative at Liverpool Hope co chair of the AAR American Academy of Religion Ecclesiological Investigations Program Unit and co ordinator of the Ecclesiological Investigations International Research Network Mannion is the author of Schopenhauer Religion and Morality and co editor of Readings in Church Authority Gifts and Challenges for Contemporary Catholicism both published by Ashgate in 2003 and co editor of the forthcoming volumes The Routledge Companion to the Christian Church and Catholic Social Justice Theological and Practical Explorations

Mission Shaped by Promise Jukka A. Kääriäinen, 2012-10-03 Utilizing resources from Martin Luther and the Lutheran tradition this study offers an understanding of the gospel as promise as key to addressing the challenge of relating the missio Dei to a generous constructive approach toward the religious other In its construction of a Lutheran missiology it retrieves and reappropriates four resources from the Lutheran tradition the gospel as promise the law gospel distinction a theology of grace as promise of mercy fulfilled and a theology of the cross utilizing the hiddenness of God The law of God as accusing yet webbing humanity to its Creator the gospel as the comforting promise of mercy and the hiddenness of God as mystifying form the overarching framework within which the Lutheran missiology presented here seeks to engage the religious other by dialectically relating gospel proclamation and dialogue Such a view of mission shaped by promise offers the paradox of God being both revealed and hidden in the cross as a distinctive contribution to an interreligious dialogue centered on the ambiguity and hiddenness of God

Planning in Cold War Europe Michel Christian, Sandrine Kott, Ondrej Matejka, 2018-10-08 The idea of planning

economy and engineering social life has often been linked with Communist regimes will of control However the persuasion that social and economic processes could and should be regulated was by no means limited to them Intense debates on these issues developed already during the First World War in Europe and became globalized during the World Economic crisis During the Cold War such discussions fuelled competition between two models of economic and social organisation but they also revealed the convergences and complementarities between them This ambiguity so often overlooked in histories of the Cold War represents the central issue of the book organized around three axes First it highlights how know how on planning circulated globally and were exchanged by looking at international platforms and organizations The volume then closely examines specificities of planning ideas and projects in the Communist and Capitalist World Finally it explores East West channels generated by exchanges around issues of planning which functioned irrespective of the Iron Curtain and were exported in developing countries The volume thus contributes to two fields undergoing a process of profound reassessment the history of modernisation and of the Cold War
