Kasserine: Baptism of Fire Ward Rutherford, 1970      Kasserine Pass 1943 Steven J. Zaloga, 2011-03-15 A highly illustrated account of The North African campaign of November 1942 May 1943 during World War II This campaign was a baptism of fire for the US Army After relatively straightforward landings the US II Corps advanced into Tunisia to support operations by the British 8th Army Rommel worried by the prospect of an attack decided to exploit the inexperience of the US Army and strike a blow against their overextended positions around the Kasserine Pass However the Germans were unable to exploit their initial success and later attacks were bloodily repulsed The fighting in Tunisia taught the green US Army vital combat lessons and brought to the fore senior commanders such as Eisenhower Patton and Bradley

Deliberating War Patricia Roberts-Miller, 2024-06-27 This book argues that treating politics as war derails essential democratic processes including deliberation and policy argumentation in complicated ways Politics is war is not always just a figure of speech but often a sincere expression of how people see disagreement they mean it literally and they use it to evade the responsibilities of rhetoric This book takes the metaphor seriously Using a series of case studies ranging from the 432 BCE Debate at Sparta to Bill O Reilly s recent invention of a War on Christmas Deliberating War illustrates pathologies of deliberation that arise when a community understands itself to be at political war This book identifies recurrent rhetorical strategies that constrain or even effectively prohibit deliberation such as deflecting reframing threat inflation appealing to paired terms claiming moral license radicalizing a base In short what seems to be an effective solution to an immediate rhetorical problem using hyperbole and demagoguery to persuade people to adopt a specific leader or policy is a trap that prevents democratic practices of compromise deliberation fairness reciprocity Unhappily threat inflation even when well intentioned At some point hyperbolic rhetoric becomes threat inflation and then that inflated threat becomes the premise of policies both foreign and domestic And then agreeing as to the obvious existential threat posed by the Other and uniting behind the obvious policy solution is a necessary sign of being on the side of Good Once communities become persuaded that they are in an apocalyptic battle between Good and Evil politics as war can quickly become real war often with far reaching and catastrophic consequences

The war against Germany, Italy and the other European Axis members was fought primarily in Europe, the Mediterranean, the Middle East, East and North Africa and the Atlantic Ocean. The Axis powers were defeated by the Allies led by the Grand Alliance of Great Britain, the United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. A medical officer in the 34th Red Bull Infantry Division on the front lines of World War II. Lt Col Maj Arthur L. Ludwick Jr. was responsible for the well-being of traumatized and wounded American soldiers through some of the bloodiest engagements in North Africa and Italy: Kasserine and Fondouk Passes, Hill 609, Monte Pantano, Cassino and Anzio. He was awarded both the Purple Heart and Silver Star, unusual combat commendations for an unarmed medical officer. His letters home detail his experiences with keen observations of the people and landscapes. Based on Ludwick's letters and an archive of interviews, military documents and photos, this multifaceted narrative compiled by his daughter also tells the story of her discovery of her father as the young man she never knew.

Command of Honor Harry Paul Jeffers, 2008. The author of Onward We Charge traces the life and military career of General Lucian K. Truscott from his youth in Texas and Oklahoma to his rise to become one of the most respected and revered battlefield commanders in the U.S. Army during World War II. Logistics in World War II John Norris, 2020-04-30. John Norris shows how logistics, though less glamorous than details of the fighting itself, played a decisive role in the outcome of every campaign and battle of World War Two. The author marshals some astounding facts and figures to convey the sheer scale of the task all belligerents faced to equip vast forces and supply them in the field. He also draws on first-hand accounts to illustrate what this meant for the men and women in the logistics chain and those depending on it at the sharp end. Many of the vehicles, from supply trucks to pack mules and other relevant hardware, are discussed and illustrated with numerous photographs. This first volume of two looks at the early years of the war, so we see, for example, how Hitler's panzer divisions were kept rolling in the Blitzkrieg; a German division in 1940 still had around 5000 horses requiring hundreds of tonnes of fodder, and the British army's disastrous loss of equipment at Dunkirk. This is a fascinating and valuable study of a neglected
