Bayou Classic Thomas Aiello, 2010-09-15 The annual clash in New Orleans between the Grambling State University Tigers and the Southern University Jaguars represents the fiercest and most anticipated in state football rivalry in Louisiana The most significant national game to feature historically black colleges and universities is more than a contest the Bayou Classic is a lavish event featuring celebrities a fan festival and a halftime Battle of the Bands that offers an intensity equal to that of the gridiron In Bayou Classic Thomas Aiello chronicles the history of the game and explores the two schools broader significance to Louisiana to sports and to the black community When the Southern University Bushmen football team traveled to Monroe Louisiana to play the Tigers of Louisiana Negro Normal and Industrial Institute for the first time on Armistice Day 1932 few realized they were witnessing the birth of a phenomenon Aiello recounts Southern s early dominance over the smaller two year institution Southern s acceptance into the Southwestern Athletic Conference Grambling s hiring of the legendary Eddie Robinson who would lead the Tigers to 408 wins between 1941 and 1997 Grambling s first victory over Southern and years of alternating home and away games In 1974 the rivalry found a neutral site in New Orleans first at Tulane Stadium and then the Superdome and became the Bayou Classic An NBC television contract introduced the Bayou Classic to a nationwide audience and completed the transformation of the game into a major event The Bayou Classic remains the only nationally broadcast game between two historically black schools Aiello supplements his colorful narrative with period photographs and informative appendices providing game results statistics and all star teams from every year the schools have played To appreciate the rivalry Coach Eddie Robinson once noted you have to realize Grambling and Southern fans are close friends as well as relatives Bayou Classic offers a splendid history for fans friends and those who want to know more about this special game

Marill, 2008-12-30 Television has always augmented its dramatic and variety programming with sports After covering wrestling and boxing matches for several years ABC added the hugely popular Roller Derby between 1949 and 1951 and later college and pro football Today there is a multitude of pay and cable networks devoted exclusively to baseball football golf hockey tennis ice skating and auto racing Rather than focusing on live sports broadcasts however this book chronicles the history of sports themed comedies and dramas to see how our national fictions have affected our authentic sports experiences and vice versa Sports dominate the television landscape today and still the demand for more is so great that pay and cable networks continue to find funding and success even when devoted exclusively to a single sport But this is really nothing new television has always augmented its dramatic and variety programming with sports Live sports have had a tremendous impact on what we see on television and on how we see it Rather than focusing on live sports broadcasts however this book takes a critical look at sports themed comedies and dramas to see how our authentic sports affect our national fictions as well From the character studies that supplement Olympic coverage to nightly highlight reels to reality programming on ESPN sports both echo and help shape the myths that pervade our culture Sports on Television covers the changing relationship between live sports broadcasts and television dramas as well as the important technological developments and cultural shifts that have changed the way we view the reality of sports In 1949 after covering wrestling and boxing matches for several years ABC added the hugely popular Roller Derby and later moved on to college and pro football where humble beginnings have since developed into a national obsession In the early sixties Jimmy Stewart played a disgraced baseball player in Flashing Spikes which was also one of the rare ventures into television for veteran director John Ford On HBO the Yankees have been the subject of both 61 about Roger Maris's quest to top Babe Ruth's home run record and The Bronx Is Burning about the 1977 Yankees team And there have been sports themed TV sitcoms as well such as Sports Night Aaron Sorkin's critically lauded but commercially unsuccessful project which preceded his work on The West Wing Meanwhile American Gladiators a strange blend of canned programming and authentic athletic endeavor that in effect puts television audiences in an arena with what amounts to professional athletes is quickly becoming one of the most popular shows on primetime Here Marill gives due time to all of these unique projects

Berry, 2009-09-02 On 4 July 1910 in 100 degree heat at an outdoor boxing ring near Reno Nevada film cameras recorded and thousands of fans witnessed former heavyweight champion Jim Jeffries reluctant return from retirement to fight Jack Johnson a black man After 14 grueling rounds Johnson knocked out Jeffries and for the first time in history there was a black heavyweight champion of the world At least 10 people lost their lives because of Johnson's victory and hundreds more were injured due to white retaliation and wild celebrations in the streets Public screenings received instantaneous protests and hundreds of cities barred the film from being shown Congress even passed a law making it a federal offense to transport moving pictures of prizefights across state lines and thus the most powerful portrayal of a black man ever recorded on film was made virtually invisible This is but one of the hundreds of films covered in The A to Z of African American Cinema which includes everything from The Birth of a Nation to Crash In addition to the films brief biographies of African American actors and actresses such as Sidney Poitier James Earl Jones Halle Berry Eddie Murphy Whoopi Goldberg Denzel Washington and Jamie Foxx can be found in this reference Through a chronology a list of acronyms
