Fanon A Critical Reader:

Fanon Lewis Gordon,T. Denean Sharpley-Whiting,Renee T. White,1996-08-30 The wide range of disciplines represented here enables the volume to stand as a contextualizing work in Fanon studies It contains new original essays on Africana philosophy the human sciences dialectical humanism women of color studies neocolonial and postcolonial studies violence and tragedy

Frantz Fanon's 'Black Skin, White Masks' Max Silverman,2017-10-03 First published in 1952 Frantz Fanon's Black Skin White Masks is one of the most important anti colonial works of the post war period It is both a profound critique of the conscious and unconscious ways in which colonialism brutalises the colonised and a passionate cry from deep within a black body alienated by the colonial system and in search of liberation from it This volume is the first collection of essays specifically devoted to Fanon's text It offers a wide range of interpretations of the text by leading scholars in a number of disciplines Chapters deal with Fanon's Martinican heritage Fanon and Creolism ideas of race and racism and new humanism Fanon and Sartre representations of Blacks and Jews and the psychoanalysis of race gender and violence Contributors offer new ways of reading the text and the volume as a whole constitutes an important contribution to the growing field of Fanon studies

Forms of Fanonism Reiland Rabaka,2010-03-08 When Frantz Fanon's critiques of racism sexism colonialism capitalism and humanism are brought into the ever widening orbit of Africana critical theory something unprecedented in the annals of Africana intellectual history happens five distinct forms of Fanonism emerge Forms of Fanonism Frantz Fanon's Critical Theory and the Dialectics of Decolonization is discursively distinguished from other engagements of Fanon's thought and texts insofar as it is the first study to consciously examine his contributions to Africana Studies and critical theory or rather the Africana tradition of critical theory Forms of Fanonism identifies and intensely analyzes Fanon's contributions to the deconstruction and reconstruction of Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory In highlighting his unique solutions to the problems of racism sexism colonialism capitalism and humanism five distinct forms of Fanonism materialize These five forms of Fanonism allow contemporary critical theorists to innovatively explore the ways in which his thought and texts can be dialectically put to use in relieving the wretched experience of this generation's wretched of the earth Critics can also apply these forms to deconstruct and reconstruct Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory using their anti imperialist interests Throughout Forms of Fanonism Reiland Rabaka critically dialogues with Fanon incessantly asking his corpus critical questions and seeking from it crucial answers This book in short solemnly keeps with Fanon's own predilection for connecting critical theory to revolutionary praxis by utilizing his thought and texts as paradigms and points of departure to deepen and develop the Africana tradition of critical theory

Frantz Fanon's Psychotherapeutic Approaches to Clinical Work Lou Turner,Helen Neville,2019-12-06 Recognizing Frantz Fanon's remarkable legacy to applied mental health and therapeutic practices which decolonize humanize and empower marginalized populations this text serves as a timely call for research education and clinical work to establish and further develop Fanonian approaches and practices As the first collection to focus on contemporary clinical applications of Fanon s research and practice this volume adopts a transnational lens through which to capture the global reach of Fanon s work Contributors from Africa Australia Europe and North America offer nuanced insight into historical and theoretical methods clinical case studies and community based innovations to place Fanon s research and practice in context Organized into four key areas including the Historical Significance of Fanon s Clinical Work Theory and Fanonian Praxis Psychotherapeutic and Community Applications and Action Research each section of the book reflects an impressive diversity of practices around the world and considers the role of political and socioeconomic context structures of gender oppression racial identities and their intersection within those practices A unique manifesto to the ground breaking and immensely relevant work of Frantz Fanon this book will be of great interest to graduate and post graduate students researchers academics and professionals in counselling psychology mental health research and psychotherapy

Extravagant Abjection Darieck Scott,2010-07-01 Part of the American Literatures Initiative Series 2011 Winner of the Alan Bray Memorial Book Award presented by the Modern Language Association Challenging the conception of empowerment associated with the Black Power Movement and its political and intellectual legacies in the present Darieck Scott contends that power can be found not only in martial resistance but surprisingly where the black body has been inflicted with harm or humiliation Theorizing the relation between blackness and abjection by foregrounding often neglected depictions of the sexual exploitation and humiliation of men in works by James Weldon Johnson Toni Morrison Amiri Baraka and Samuel R Delany Extravagant Abjection asks If we re racialized through domination and abjection what is the political personal and psychological potential in racialization through abjection Using the figure of male rape as a lens through which to examine this question Scott argues that blackness in relation to abjection endows its inheritors with a form of counter intuitive power indeed what can be thought of as a revised notion of black power This power is found at the point at which ego identity body race and nation seem to reveal themselves as utterly penetrated and compromised without defensible boundary Yet in Extravagant Abjection power assumes an unexpected and paradoxical form In arguing that blackness endows its inheritors with a surprising form of counter intuitive power as a resource for the political present found at the very point of violation Extravagant Abjection enriches our understanding of the construction of black male identity

The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele,2010 From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse philosophy political thought religion literature important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience The Encyclopedia is a large scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought including historical figures and important social movements producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent research and a solid guide for further study Her Majesty's Other Children Lewis Ricardo Gordon, 1997 In this exploration of race and racism noted scholar Lewis R Gordon offers a critique of recent scholarship in post colonial African philosophy and critical race theory Concepts of Cabralism Reiland Rabaka, 2014-07-16 By examining Amilcar Cabral's theories and praxes as well as several of the antecedents and major influences on the evolution of his radical politics and critical social theory Concepts of Cabralism Amilcar Cabral and Africana Critical Theory simultaneously reintroduces chronicles and analyzes several of the core characteristics of the Africana tradition of critical theory Reiland Rabaka's primary preoccupation is with Cabral's theoretical and political legacies that is to say with the ways in which he constructed deconstructed and reconstructed theory and the aims objectives and concrete outcomes of his theoretical applications and discursive practices The book begins with the Negritude Movement and specifically the work of Leopold Senghor Aimé Césaire and Jean Paul Sartre Next it shifts the focus to Frantz Fanon's discourse on radical disalienation and revolutionary decolonization Finally it offers an extended engagement of Cabral's critical theory and contributions to the Africana tradition of critical theory Ultimately Concepts of Cabralism chronicles and critiques revisits and revises the black radical tradition with an eye toward the ways in which classical black radicalism informs or should inform not only contemporary black radicalism African nationalism and Pan Africanism but also contemporary efforts to create a new anti racist anti sexist anti capitalist anti colonialist and anti imperialist critical theory of contemporary society what has come to be called Africana critical theory Encyclopedia of Modern Political Thought (set) Gregory Claeys, 2013-08-20 This groundbreaking new work explores modern and contemporary political thought since 1750 looking at the thinkers concepts debates issues and national traditions that have shaped political thought from the Enlightenment to post modernism and post structuralism Encyclopedia of Modern Political Thought is two volume A to Z reference that provides historical context to the philosophical issues and debates that have shaped attitudes toward democracy citizenship rights property duties justice equality community law power gender race and legitimacy over the last three centuries It profiles major and minor political thinkers and the national traditions both Western and non Western which continue to shape and divide political thought More than 200 scholars from leading international research institutions and organizations have provided signed entries that offer comprehensive coverage of Thought of regions and countries including African political thought American political thought Australasian political thought Australian and New Zealand Chinese political thought Indian political thought Islamic political Thought Japanese political thought and more Thought regarding contemporary issues such as abortion affirmative action animal rights European integration feminism humanitarian intervention international law race and racism and more The ideological spectrum from Marxism to neoconservatism including anarchism conservatism Darwinism and Social Darwinism Engels fascism the Frankfurt School Lenin and Leninism socialism and more Connections of political thought to key areas of politics and other disciplines such as economics psychology law and religion Notable time periods of political thought since 1750 Concepts including class democratic theory liberalism nationalism natural and human rights and theories of the state Theorists and political intellectuals both Western and non Western including John Adams Edmund Burke Mohandas Gandhi Immanuel Kant Ayatollah Khomeini Ernst Friedrich Schumacher George Washington and Mary Wollstonecraft Politics and Post-Colonial Theory Pal Ahluwalia, 2012-12-06

This groundbreaking book makes sense of the complexities and dynamics of post colonial politics illustrating how post colonial theory has marginalised a huge part of its constituency namely Africa Politics and Post Colonial Theory traces how African identity has been constituted and reconstituted by examining issues such as negritude the rise of nationalism decolonisation The book also questions how helpful post colonial analysis can be in understanding the complexities which define institutions including the nation state civil society human rights citizenship Politics and Post colonial Theory bravely breaks down disciplinary boundaries Its radical vision will be essential reading for all those engaged in Politics post colonial studies and African studies The Empire Triumphant Kevin J. Wetmore, Jr., 2017-08-10 George Lucas s first Star Wars trilogy shows the influences of its era Cold War tension is evident in its theme of rebellion against totalitarianism Recent entries in the Star Wars saga The Phantom Menace 1999 and Attack of the Clones 2002 are much more concerned with evil corporations terrorists and the corruption of the political process Each film is influenced by the times in which it was released but also by cultural subtexts and by other films that had direct and indirect effects on Lucas as writer producer and director This work focuses on all six Star Wars films The first topic of this multifaceted examination is how the films use the language of colonialism The Rebellion The Empire to emphasize the idea of imperialism Next the author looks at how Asian influences including religious undertones from Taoism and Buddhism and the works of Kurosawa and other Asian filmmakers provide a subtext for much of the action Next the discussion turns to the representation of people of color in the Star Wars universe and how other ethnicities are represented overall particularly through the literalization of the word aliens These topics of discussion provide for penetrating conclusions about Lucas s films and how they represent race religion and rebellion Edward Said and Critical Decolonization Ferial J Gbazoul, 2007 This book is dedicated to Edward Said 1935 2003 a major literary and cultural critic who has been instrumental in promoting decolonization through his analytical and critical writing Scholarly articles tackle various aspects of Said s writing on fiction criticism politics and music and the volume includes an extensive bibliography of Edward Said Edward Said and Critical Decolonization strives to cover the multifaceted career of Said with emphasis on his critical contribution to decolonization and resistance to hegemony There are moving testimonies by friends and relatives students and colleagues which throw light on his personality An article by Said himself on the idea of the university is published here for the first time The volume also includes articles exploring in depth Said s political critical and aesthetic positions including his views on intellectuals and secular criticism on traveling theory and humanism And Said's thought is explored in relation to other major thinkers such as Freud and Foucault Contributors Fadwa Abdel Rahman Richard Armstrong Mostafa Bayoumi Terry Eagleton Rokus de Groot Stathis Gourgouris Hoda Guindi Ananya Kabir Lamis El Nakkash Daisuke Nishihara Rub'n Chuaqui Yasmine Ramadan Andrew Rubin Edward Said Najla Said Yumna Siddiqi David Sweet Michael Wood and Youssef Yacoubi

Postcolonial Criticism Bart Moore-Gilbert, Gareth Stanton, Willy Maley, 2014-05-12 Postcolonial theory is a relatively new area in critical contemporary studies having its foundations more Postcolonial Criticism brings together some of the most important critical writings in the field and aims to present a clear overview of and introduction to one of the most exciting and rapidly developing areas of contemporary literary criticism It charts the development of the field both historically and conceptually from its beginnings in the early post war period to the present day The first phase of postcolonial criticism is recorded here in the pioneering work of thinkers like Aimé Césaire Frantz Fanon Edward Said and Gayatri Spivak More recently a new generation of academics have provided fresh assessments of the interaction of class race and gender in cultural production and this generation is represented in the work of Aijaz Ahmad bell hooks Homi Bhabha Abdul JanMohamed and David Lloyd Topics covered include negritude national culture orientalism subalternity ambivalence hybridity white settler societies gender and colonialism culturalism commonwealth literature and minority discourse The collection includes an extensive general introduction which clearly sets out the key stages figures and debates in the field The editors point to the variety even conflict within the field but also stress connections and parallels between the various figures and debates which they identify as central to an understanding of it The introduction is followed by a series of ten essays which have been carefully chosen to reflect both the diversity and continuity of postcolonial criticism Each essay is supported by a short introduction which places it in context with the rest of the author's work and identifies how its salient arguments contribute to the field as a whole This is a field which covers many disciplines including literary theory cultural studies philosophy geography economics history and politics It is designed to fit into the current modular arrangement of courses and is therefore suitable for undergraduate and postgraduate courses which address postcolonial issues and the new literatures in English

Contact Zones Sheila Petty, 2008 Explores the contributions of black diasporic filmmakers and thinkers to contemporary artistic and theoretical discourses Created at the crossroads of slavery migration and exile and comprising a global population the black diaspora is a diverse space of varied histories experiences and goals Likewise black diasporic film tends to focus on the complexities of transnational identity which oscillates between similarity and difference and resists easy categorization In Contact Zones author Sheila J Petty addresses a range of filmmakers theorists and issues in black diasporic cinema highlighting their ongoing influences on contemporary artistic and theoretical discourses Petty examines both Anglophone and Francophone films and theorists divided according to this volume's three thematic sections Slavery Migration and Exile and Beyond Borders The feature films and documentaries considered which include Sankofa Daughters of the Dust The Man by the Shore and Rude among others represent a wide range of cultures and topics Through close textual analysis that incorporates the work of well known diasporic thinkers like W E B DuBois Aim C saire and Frantz Fanon along with contemporary notables such as Molefi Kete Asante bell hooks Glenora Hudson Weems Ren Depestre Paul Gilroy and Rinaldo Walcott Petty details the unique ways in which black diasporic films create meaning By exploring a variety of African American Caribbean Black British and African Canadian perspectives Contact Zones provides a detailed survey of the diversity and vitality of black diasporic contributions to cinema and theory This volume will be a welcome addition to the libraries of scholars and students of film studies and Africana studies

The Witch's Flight Kara Keeling, 2007-11-05 Through an analysis of filmic representations of Black femininity and the Black Femme in particular this book highlights the ways the cinematic structures both racist and sexist portrayals and their potential undoing

Black Iconoclasm Charles Athanasopoulos, 2024-09-03 In the decade since the 2014 Ferguson Uprising re intensified conversations about racial progress continue to be at the forefront of American culture The moniker Black Lives Matter for example emerged as a rallying cry of Black led mass rebellions calling into question the rigid Western social codes of race gender class and sexuality These values emerge through iconography those social codes reflected by a corresponding rolodex of public symbols whether positive or negative in American culture Black Lives Matter fractured icons such as the first Black president the innocent police officer and the charismatic Black male activist opening space for new theories and practices of Black radical disruption At the same time groups such as BLM10 BLM Grassroots and Mass Action for Black Liberation criticize the Black Lives Matter Global Network as having transformed into a new icon of racial progress demonstrating that the meaning of Black liberation remains hotly contested How do we discern Black radical thought and activism from the co options of Western Man Are we doomed to repeat a cycle of destroying a few icons only to inevitably produce new ones In Black Iconoclasm Charles Athanasopoulos dismantles the Eurocentric notion of iconoclasm as the physical destruction of icons and or the recovery of supposedly pure counter ideologies Instead Black iconoclasm refers to a liminal orientation toward cracks and fissures in narratives of linear racial progress and teleological narratives of Black liberation Athanasopoulos examines conflicting messages surrounding Black liberation in post Ferguson America across activism Black radical theory communicative situations cinema and street art Across each arena of American culture his orientation toward the liminal unsettles the supposed cyclical nature of icons iconoclasm by demonstrating that theories and practices of Black radical disruption always reflect both Black radical excess and the iconographic residues of Western Man Those residues do not preclude those theories practices from teaching us important lessons they are how those lessons are learned to evolve our theories and practices of Black radical disruption Institutional capture is neither simply inevitable just as no movement person or idea will be totally immune to Western Man s racial icons Thus Black iconoclasm eschews purity politics and the pursuit of epistemological closure in favor of a critical orientation toward ritual transgression and Black radical discernment Reframing iconoclasm in this way Athanasopoulos opens avenues for new approaches to the relationship between Black resistance and the co option of that resistance Culture and the Literary Avishek Parui,2022-01-26 Culture and the Literary is a study of how cultural codes are constructed consumed and conveyed as represented in selected works of fiction and non fiction Examining cultural studies as a discipline by revisiting some of its seminal figures the book includes a study of selected literary as well as non fictional texts It offers a unique combination of three major theoretical frames memory studies thing theory and affect studies Drawing on fictional representations theoretical frames and historical events this book aims to provide a unique perspective into how culture as a phenomenon is represented reified and re membered in the world we inhabit today Frantz Fanon ,2002 Coloniality of Diasporas Yolanda Martínez-San Miguel,2014-07-24 Focusing on piracy in the seventeenth century filibustering in the nineteenth century intracolonial migrations in the 1930s metropolitan racializations in the 1950s and 1960s and feminist redefinitions of creolization and sexile from the 1940s to the 1990s this book redefines the Caribbean beyond the postcolonial debate Postcolonial Agency Simone Bignall,2011-06-06 Newly available in paperback this book complements and balances the attention given by postcolonial theory to the revitalisation and recognition of the agency of colonised peoples
